RCB—Please tell me if my sister's friendship is sincere and will we get a better home soon?
Ans: Surely you don't understand your sister's actions or else you would not doubt her. She is only interested in getting ahead in life and doesn't take the time to show her affection for you. She will see that you two get a better home this summer.

AP—Is there anything that I can do to get rid of this big looking condition of my abdomen?
Tell me something to do.

Ans: Stop stuffing so much between meals and then taking on more than anyone can digest at meal time. See your doctor and he will give you a safe diet so that you can get rid of a great portion of the surplus fat that you now have.

SMJ—Please tell me who sent me the Valentine some time ago and why did they send it?

Ans: This was a prank of a child in your vicinity. It just so happened that the child had more valentines than he could dispose of among his own friends and decided to pick on one of the older members of the community. Don't worry about it.

AWB—Which one of these boys that I am going with cares the most for me. I have several friends and can't make up my mind which one to choose.

Ans: They all enjoy your company—but the little short fellow

QMB—Will I marry the boy that I am now going with and do you believe that he would make me happy?
Ans: He will surely do his best best to make you contented. If you will give him your best support from the very minute he takes you as his wife he will provide a good living and home for you. Yes—he will make you very happy.

LBD—I want to know if I am going to get any money from any source this summer?

Ans: A member of your immediate family will help you out with a small loan although I don't think that you will get the large sum of money that you are expecting to get.

MSW—Please tell me just as soon as you can if my sister could ever get well again?

Ans: Yes she could—but it will take the help of a good medical doctor and plenty of co-operation on her part. The home remedies that you have tried haven't worked out at all so why not take her to a good doctor immediately.
