

Expect To Conclude Famous Scottsboro Trial In 2 Weeks

DECATUR, Ala., July 15.—(ANP)—If everything goes to the schedule of Judge W. W. (Speed) Callahan, all of the remaining eight Scottsboro defendants will be tried in four weeks at the rate of each Monday and another each Thursday. Heywood Patterson, the ninth, is under a 75-year sentence, received at a trial more than a year ago.

Clarence Norris and Charlie Weems, who are scheduled to be tried this week in that order, were arraigned last Monday before Judge Callahan and both pleaded not guilty. At the same time, the jurist overruled a motion by Defense Attorney Watts to transfer the case to federal court but said he would hear a motion for change of venue.

Callahan drew a regular jury panel of 35 and a special venire of 85, the maximum permitted under the law, to try Norris and Weems. Although Samuel Leibowitz of New York, chief defense counsel, and Asst. Attorney-Gen. Thomas F. Lawson were not present at the arraignment, both were to appear in court this week. The two boys were brought here in a state convict department truck from the Jefferson county jail where they have spent most of the time since being arrested in March, 1931, on charges of attacking Victoria Price and Ruby Bates aboard a freight train on which all were hobnobbing.

NEW YORK, July 14.—(C)—

New Health Law Passed By N. C. Assembly

The General Assembly of 1937 passed and ratified the following law, in the interest of public health and in the fight against the spread of venereal diseases:

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That hereafter all domestic servants who shall present themselves for employment shall furnish their employer with a certificate from a practicing physician or the public health officer of the county in which they reside, certifying that they have been examined within two weeks prior to the time of said presentations of said certificate, that they are free from all con-

Section 2. That all domestic servants employed shall be examined at least once each year and as often as the employer shall require, and the condition of their health, as is set out in section one hereof.

Section 3. All laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Section 4. That this Act shall be in full force and effect from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times and ratified, this 22nd day of March, 1937.

POTPOURRI

The Emperor
The imperial title, emperor, was used, for the first time by Julius Caesar in 58 B. C. The term came from the Latin "imperator" meaning "general." Roman rulers used the title up to the fifth century. It was then dropped to be revived by Charlemagne in 800 as head of the Holy Roman empire.
