

Cleveland Plans Golf Tournament Aug. 31

CLEVELAND, Aug. 19.—(AP)—The most ambitious golf program ever attempted by the United Golfers Association has been laid out by the Chairman of the Tournament Committee, R. H. Hawkins, of the Arlington Heights, Mass., an International Negro Press representative learned today. The Tournament Committee Chairman announces that four golf championships will be contested for at the Highland Country Club in Cleveland, August 31 to September 3 with some added events new to the 'Nationals' on the program. The four day stretch at Cleveland will be the busiest in golf history, with tournaments, meetings and celebrations all going on at the same time. The largest number of prizes ever offered are being put up for professional, amateur and novice golfers alike. As usual the big tournament will be the annual National Open of which this will be the twelfth playing starting with 18 holes August 31, 18 holes will be played the following day with 36 holes windup on September 2, making total of 72 holes of medal play. A record breaking purse of $500, has been provided for the professionals, with $200 on the line for the winner of the Open and possession of the Open cup for a year. One Hundred dollars goes to the second best professional and there will be eight additional cash prizes. Amateurs who compete in the open and finish within the first ten will be given plaques. Just as important to the amateurs, as the Open, is the scheduled 10th Annual Amateur Championship for men. The event will start on the 31st with an 18 hole qualifying round, then 18 hole matches until the two finalists fight it out for the amateur crown in a 36 hole final on the fourth day.

Then there will be the Eighth Annual Women's Championship and for the first time, this event will be decided by match play. Like the men the ladies will start with an 18 hole qualifying round with the two finalist fighting it out on the fourth day of individual matches. A new event added for this tournament and one which will give every golfer a chance to win a prize is the "Hawkins Vacation Division Tournament." Forty prizes will be available: A two Ball Scotch Foursome, a long driving contest and prizes to the best dressed golfers are interesting events that are new. Headquarters for information, entry blanks and housing have been established by the Forest City Golf Association of Cleveland, at 2186 East 98rd. Street. Dr. James E. Levy is president of the local Forest City Association and John C. Cowan, chairman of the local tournament committee.

Sports Talk

NEW YORK CITY, Aug. 19.—(AP)—Jack Dempsey, the ring's famed Manassa Mauler, after watching Tommy Farr go thru his paces at Long Branch, N. J. last Tuesday, remarked, "Farr looks alright, he seems to be able to take a punch but he carries his hands too low". Farr is looking better in training these last few days. He is deceptively awkward and is a rough and bruising type of opponent. Abe Feldman, crack heavyweight boxer, is the latest recruit to join Farr's sparring crew. At Pompton Lakes, Joe is rapidly working into condition, never having ceased training since the Braddock championship go, the new champion is near his peak. When the Louis camp had been informed that the Welshman, Farr, was a rough and tumble fighter, adept in the use of his head for butting purposes, they immediately hired Marty Gallagher, Washington, D.C. boxer, to help round the bomber into shape. Gallagher, is one of the roughest men in the business and Louis is learning quickly what to do should Farr attempt to butt him with his head as he is credited to have done to Max Baer.
