Bomber Unable To Score Predicted Knockout In 15 Rounds Over Farr

YANKEE STADIUM, N. Y.—August 30—Tommy Farr, the rugged Welshman, who sport writers predicted didn't have a chance against the Brown Bomber upset all expectations by going the limit with the champion. Louis had no real difficulty in piling up a margin on points that gave him the decision.

Joe came closest to scoring a knockdown in the seventh round. Here the champion, who had spent most of the first six rounds spearing Tommy with left hands, really went to town. He blasted Tommy's head with both right and left. The challenger gave ground, while the blood dripped from his face, but his knees refused to buckle.

The challenger suffered a bad cut under both eyes. Near the close one of Joe's short left hooks started a stream of crimson from Farr's nose.

The champion exhibited a bruised right hand which he said he hurt in the third round. His left also was painful because of the constant pounding on the Welsh boy's rugged body.

"He's a tough boy" Louis said "but he can't hit much and if I meet him again, I'll knock him out. I might have done it tonight if I hadn't bruised my left."

The champion's physician called the injury to his right a "contusion of metacarpal." There was no doubt in the minds of Joe and his handlers that he had the British empire champion, but all agreed that the Bomber had an off night and didn't come up with anything resembling his usual fight.

"That Farr is tough and he is smart," said Manager Julian Black. "He's an awkward fellow to fight. Joe had a hard time getting set against him."

Joe said he hit Farr only one really good lick—a right just before the bell ended the 15th round. He said Farr's punches didn't pack much steam and didn't hurt him, but he admitted Tommy annoyed him no little with the long left he kept shooting to Louis' face and stomach.

On the official score cards, Referee Donovan gave Louis a 13-2 margin in rounds won. Othe two judges, Kid McPartland gave Louis 10 and Farr 5, while Charley Lynch scored eight for Louis, 4 for Farr and 3 even.

The attendance as well as gate receipts slightly exceeded expectations, which were not very high to begin with. Promoter Mike Jacobs announced that the spectators totaled 36,903, of which 2,000 represented new customers. The receipts from the ticket sales amounted to $265,753, which, with $60,000 from the radio and motion picture rights, ran the gross income to $325,753. Louis received 40 per cent and Tommy Farr 10.

Farr had the weight advantage, 204 1-2 to 197 for Joe.

Louis took a plane for Detroit Tuesday to witness the Henry Armstrong and Orville Drouillard battle.

CARAVAN THEATRE TAKES TO COVERED WAGON

NEW YORK Sept. 2—(CNA)—The Negro unit of the Federal Theatre took to the covered wagon this week for the first time. After playing to a full house at the Lafayette for a year and a half, the group became a temporary adjunct to the Caravan Theatre which has been producing Bernard Shaw, Gilbert and Sullivan and Shakespeare in the city's parks all summer.

The first performance of the unit took place at Amsterdam Avenue and 136th Street under the direction of the well-known playwright and director Gas Smith, with "Just Ten Days" on the bill. The audience, which included several hundred Negro and white persons enjoyed the comedy most.

The play is acted in melodramatic fashion. The original story was revised to fit the Negro scene. Lij Jones owns his house but makes the mistake of borrowing $74 from his lifelong enemy an old skinflint named Rock, shows up to collect the principal. The neighbors rally to save Jones, his wife, his sweet little daughter and his hard working son from the loss of their home. The neighbors raise the $76 during the three roaring scenes, borrowing most of it from nasty old Rock himself and everything ends happily.

The play will travel the regular circuit of the Caravan theatre and will close early in October when the Negro Theatre will begin working on their regular productions at the Lafayette Theatre.
