CHIFFON PIE—A FAIRY DESSERT

A chiffon pie... there is nothing more airy... more fluffy.

A chiffon pie properly made is sure to tempt the most irritable husband, the harassed business man and the finicky child.

Did you know that such a pie can be without baking providing you select the right one. Let me tell you about the cracker crumb crust. Cracker crumbs or wafers do the trick! Mix two cups of cracker crumbs, one third cup of soft butter, one teaspoon sugar until they hold together. Press into bottom and around sides of pan with tips of fingers. Bake in hot oven ten to fifteen minutes.

In case your first chiffon pie decided to spread over the plate in a most disgusting manner try this the next time. Chill the pie thoroughly before cutting. First cool and then place in refrigerator to become cooler.

Butterscotch Chiffon Pie

One half cup brown sugar, 3 egg yolks, eight tablespoons water, four tablespoon granulated sugar, two tablespoon flour, two tablespoons butter, three egg whites.

Put brown sugar in small skillet and melt to deep brown without scorching. Add water and egg whites stiff and add white sugar then fold into first mixture. Pour into baked pie shell and place in 350 degree F. oven for fifteen minutes.

Sherry Chiffon Pie

One cup milk, one half cup water three egg yolks, three egg whites, one half cup domestic sherry wine, one tablespoon gelatine, four tablespoon cold milk, one fourth teaspoon salt, pinch grated nutmeg, one cup whipped cream.

Combine milk, and sugar and heat to boiling point. Place in double boiler, add well beaten egg yolks, nutmeg and salt. Stir constantly. Add wine slowly and gelatine that has been soaked in four tablespoons cold milk. Cook mixture in double boiler until it coats spoon. Cool slightly and fold in stiffly beaten egg white. Let this cool until it is firm and blend with the whipped cream. Then serve.

Chocolate Chiffon Pie

Two and one half cups milk, 3 squares unsweetened chocolate, cut small, and one third cup sugar, one half cup cornstarch, one half teaspoon salt, two tablespoons butter, three egg, one teaspoon vanilla, previously baked shell, sweetened whipped cream.

Heat milk and chocolate together in upper part of double boiler. Stir to thoroughly blend the melted chocolate and milk. Combine sugar, cornstarch and salt; add enough of chocolate-milk mixture to moisten, stirring while blending, then return to double boiler and cook, stirring constantly, until thick. Add butter and egg yolks and when thoroughly blended fold in gently the stiffly beaten egg whites and vanilla. When cool turn into previously baked pastry shell. Just before serving spread over entire surface a layer of slightly sweetened whipped cream. Then sprinkle with coconut, almonds walnuts or pecans.

HOUSEHOLD IDEAS

1. A piece of bread placed on top of cabbage before cooking will destroy the odor.
2. Coffee stains may be removed by holding the stain under the cold water faucet.
3. To have clear windows after washing, add a tablespoon of vinegar to the water.
4. White corn meal will clean felt hats, when rubbed on the hat with a stiff brush.
5. Green Peas may be washed thoroughly and cooked without hulling. The hulls will soon rise to the top and can be taken out. The flavor of the peas will be greatly improved.

FASHION HINTS

"The Home Coming Game"
There are so many nifty styles to tell you about that I don't know just where to begin. What are we going to buy for the Home Coming game? There is the plaid dress; corduroy suit; sweater and skirt and the woolen dress. We all wonder, "which shall I buy?" Now girls, let your Aunt Ruthie give you a nice hint—Since plaid is "tops" this season, why not purchase a pretty plaid woolen dress for the game. It is necessary to select a color that will harmonize with your coat and hat, and if possible your shoes. Remember when buying your dress, that they are a bit shorter this year.

For the 'Home Coming Dance' we girls want to be outstanding to "catch the eye" of the "big broad team men", so let's fall back on the ever popular black velvet. Purchase a plain velvet evening dress and then buy a couple yards of metallic material; design and make a stunning jacket to go with the dress. Buy your accessories to match the jacket. You do this and believe it or not you will be as popular as 'The lady in red' with the big team men."

With the return of autumn and its crisp, chilly nights, your thoughts might be turned to hot drinks.

A brilliant new shoulder fashion of non-crushable rayon velvet. There is an Empire touch in the graceful drop of the back and more than a touch of old world grandeur in the bold scroll of metallic embroidery, gold on black, silver on white.

PRIZES FOR BEAUTY HINTS

All beautiful women, and all women who aspire to be beautiful, have their own ideas concerning the best methods of improving their appearance.

All of us should share our knowledge of beauty improvement with our friends, and for that reason I'm again announcing this week the second annual contest for the most original letters on ways in which women can increase their loveliness.

The contest will be even more worthwhile this year than the one held last year, which was won by you may recall, by Mamie Lee Pitts of Cleveland, Ohio. Prizes—worthings $100 will be given; with the first prize $50, second $30, third $15 and fourth $5.

Doubtless you use some trick to enhance your attractiveness, some hint that would be of benefit to others. Perhaps it is a method of applying cleansing cream to the skin, perhaps a way to bring out the full natural sheen of the hair, perhaps an exercise to improve the figure. Maybe it's a combination of many things.

Tell me about it in a letter not longer than 500 words. Address it to Marie Downing, Larieuse Beauty Foundation, 511 Locust Street, St. Louis, Mo.

If you win a prize, in addition to the money you will receive, you will have the fun of seeing your letter printed in this column.

Send in your letter with a copy of this column or a coupon clipped from this newspaper. Letters will not be considered unless you follow these instructions. They must be mailed before midnight, November 30, 1937.

It isn't necessary for you to be a cosmetologist or beautician in order to win a prize. I've met glamorous women everywhere, whose very developed their own beauty secrets. Some of these women are in business, some are housewives who realize the advantages of being well-groomed.

I met a woman at a cooking school recently whose graceful figure, polished manner and modish appearance at once struck my eye. I guessed she was about 30 and one of those fortunate women whose wealth permits them to spend hours each day in beauty salons. Just out of curiosity I asked her about herself.

You can imagine how astounded I was to learn that this woman was many years older than I thought, and that she was a widow supporting two children by working in a very modest job.

Later I'm going to tell you some of the things she told me about how she achieved her breathtaking loveliness. Her hints were really very simple and I feel sure many of my readers have similar interesting methods for preserving their youthful charm and beauty.

Your letter will be judged by a committee of leading men and women whose names will be announced later. I do hope you'll write because I want to hear from you.

Awards will be announced just before Christmas in your newspapers.

Watch Your Step...

Some people fear passing under a ladder, while others dread a black cat crossing their paths. That's SUPERSTITION.

Others fear the possibility of an unavoidable accident or being struck by a careless motorist. That's APPREHENSION.

Whether it's superstition or apprehension, the wise thing to do is to be prepared with a sufficient amount of life insurance. That's FORESIGHT.

See a NORTH CAROLINA MUTUAL agent today. It's better to have life insurance and not need it than to need it and not have it. More than 37,800 people were killed in automobile accidents last year. DON'T TAKE CHANCES.
