HAVE A COCKTAIL

By Aunt Ruthie

With the return of autumn and its crisp, chilly nights your thoughts might be turned to hot drinks.

First on the list is that variation of hot toddy. Used every where before prohibition as a remedy for chills and colds. It works like a charm—even without a cold you feel better. Here 'tis—

Hot Scotch

2 lumps of sugar
Several cloves
1 wine glass of scotch
Place sugar, cloves and scotch in tumbler partly filled with water. Mix thoroughly. Add hot water to fill glass, squeeze and drop in lemon peel.

Hot Spiced Rum

2 ounces rum
1 teaspoon powdered sugar
1 teaspoon mixed spices
1 small lump of butter
Place all in tumbler and fill with very hot water.
