

Hillside High School News

SEVENTH AND EIGHTH GRADES HOLD P. T. A. GROUP MEETINGS

(By Edith A. Parham)
The seventh and eighth grade of Hillside High School held Parent Teacher meetings Tuesday Nov. 30 at 7:30 o'clock.

The eighth grade elected the following officers: President - Mrs. Hattie Leak; Vice President - Mr. Douglas; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Doome. The president plans to call meetings once a month. At the next meeting committees will be appointed and plans to raise money for free lunches for under-weight children will be presented.

Mr. Scholer spoke to the parents and offered to answer any questions they might have concerning any phase of school work. Discussions in which parents and teachers participated followed: A solo, "Since You Went Away" by Geraldine Williams and a recitation "Encouragement" by Hattie Morris ended the program. The seventh grade parents donated 30 cents toward the fund for free lunches. They plan a banquet to be given before Christmas in order to bring the parents together.

HOME "E.C." DEPARTMENT PRESENTS PLAY

Stresses Good Manners

The Home Economics Department presented a play "Pleading the Game" at Junior Assembly Wednesday December 1. The play was designed to encourage the students to improve themselves in the social amenities. The play dealt with a boy who shamed his best girl in public because of his undesirable manners. He was reformed by her little sister and some other friends who offered timely suggestions.

The characters were as follows: the boy, Harry - Lillie Dickerson; the girl, Nell - Lavinia Dixon; the little sister, "Lil" - Arabella Brown. The friends were portrayed by Mildred Watkins, Charlotte Gilmore and Lula Graham. Harriet Amey acted as mistress of ceremonies.

The play was written and directed by Mrs. Wynella Peddy, head of the Home Economics Dept. It was admirably carried out by the girls in the department, and was thoroughly appreciated by the student body.

BOOK WEEK PROGRAM PRESENTED WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 17

(By Edith A. Parham)

A Book Week Program was held in Junior Assembly Wednesday November 17 at activity period. The program was designed to encourage the students to read and appreciate poetry.

The speakers were Miss Dixon, Mrs. Harvey, and Miss Hicks, all of them North Carolina Mutual employees. The musical selections: "River River", and "Goodnight Goodnight" were rendered by the Junior chorus. Thelma Patterson, a 9-3 student, was mistress of ceremonies.

Miss Dixon's poems were "The Highwayman" by Alfred Noyes, "Life goes Round" and "The Life of a Mutual Girl." The last two were original poems. Mrs. Harvey recited "Dan Mc-Grew" and "Romance in a Hammock." Miss Hick's selections were "Tommy's Prayer", and "Tunk". All of these were greatly enjoyed by the students.

These young women graciously consented to come back to the school on Thursday; they presented the same program before the Senior assembly. Several rounds of applause indicated the students' pleasure and appreciation.

At the end of the program prizes of $100 were awarded to the students who won the poster and poetry contests. Clementine Amey, an 8-1 student, received the prize for the best original poem. James Cuffie, a 9-1 student, received the prize for the best poster.

THELMA BEATTY CROWNED QUEEN OF HOME-COMING HELD AT N. C. COLLEGE

(By Lillian Dickerson)

Thelma Beatty, Hillside's charming newcomer, was crowned queen of the Homecoming at the N. C. College when Hillside played its Homecoming game with Dudley High from Greensboro. At the end of the first half, the queen was escorted out on the field by her attendants, Helen Jones, Ernestine Watson, and Norma Thomas who carried the crown. The Hillside patrol boys and girls then marched out

Durham Usher's Union Holds Twelfth Annual Anniversary Celebration

The Durham Usher's Union branch of the North Carolina Inter-Denominational Usher's Association held its twelfth anniversary celebration at the Second Baptist Church here Sunday afternoon at 2:30 with possibly the largest attendance in the history of the organization. A delegation from Raleigh, consisting of around 35 ushers, were in attendance at the local celebration and motored to Durham in the new bus of the First Baptist church of that city.

Music for the occasion was furnished by the Junior choir of the Second Baptist church. The welcome address was delivered by Mrs. Arcelia Greenwood and the and formed the letters "D" and "H" for Dudley High and Hillside High respectively. Norma Thomas placed the crown on the queen's head and a loud cheer rose from all the spectators.

response to the address was made by C. C. Cobb founder of the Durham Usher's Union and past president of the organization. The remainder of the program consisted of a reading by Mrs. Minnie Sanders of the Mt. Vernon Baptist church; solo Miss Lois Hester, Second Baptist church; reading Miss Eva Merrieth; Solo Mrs. Pantha Pratt both of Second Baptist Church. A mixed quartet of the West Durham Baptist church sang Deti's "Listen To The Lamb".

The sermon for the occasion was delivered by the Rev. Thomas Moore of the Congregational Christian church. It was inspiring and full of spiritual uplift as well as thought. Rev. G. E. McLester, pastor of the church also gave a short talk. The anniversary meeting was presided over by J. R. Mitchell, president of the local union.

We Furnished The Heating and Plumbing Fixtures For The North Carolina College Library Auditorium And Cottages No. 1 and 2

Modernize Your Heating System
The Boiler Is The Heart Of
Any Heating System
Insist On NOLAND CO.

Heating and Plumbing Equipment

NOLAND CO. Inc.
Wholesale

Plumbing & Heating Supplies

DISTRIBUTORS FOR STANDARD SANITARY MFG. CO.

Foster And Morgan Sts.

Durham, N. C.

We Are Proud To Say To The Public
That We Were Chosen To Furnish
The Hardware For The New Buildings of North Carolina College

SEE US FOR YOUR

Hardware & Building Materials

W. C. LYON

INCORPORATED

Durham Dial L-947

Chapel Hill Dial 6981

Values never higher - Prices never lower - Prices drastically cut - Free Delivery - All merchandise advertised is new Unusually low prices on all used furniture, etc. Again we urge you to buy now while our stock is complete

GENUINE FELT BASE
LINOLEUM RUGS
SMART DESIGNS
LOW PRICES
SIZES 9 x 12 WITH BORDERS
SALE PRICE FOR ONLY
$4.99

HOOSIER KITCHEN CABINETS
WHITE & BLACK OR WHITE
AND RED $28.95
OTHER CABINETS
$16.95 up
SHEET IRON HEATERS
$1.49

LOOK WHAT PRICE
BED ROOM SUITES
As Low As
$34.95
DINING ROOM SUITES
Full Size - Well Made
$59.45

IRONING BOARDS
With Padded Tops
Only $1.00

IF YOU WISH
SOMETHING FOR LESS MONEY
SELECT FROM OUR
USED FURNITURE

THE R. E. QUINN CO.

215 E. Main Street - Opposite Court House

DURHAM, N. C.

Through the block to Parrish St