

Knoxville Bulldogs Enjoy One Of Best Seasons

With their win over Talladega here Thanksgiving day, the Knoxville College Bulldogs closed the books on one of their most successful seasons on the gridiron in recent years. During their 1937 football wars, the Knoxville gridgers lost only 3 games, won five and tied one in a nine-game schedule.

The Bulldogs opened the season with a 38-0 win over a weak Morristown eleven. Rough spots shown in this game became more evident as the season wore on and the K. Cans lost two in succession. One of these was at the hands of the "Mad Magicians" down in Memphis by a 19-2 score and the other was a humiliating defeat in their own back yard by a lucky Alabama A. & M. eleven 6-3.

Suddenly coming to life against Fisk in Nashville, the Bulldogs started a victory march that resulted in three successive triumphs. The bowled over Fisk 23-6, smothered Louisville Municipal 20-0, and gave Homecoming fans their first taste of a Homecoming victory in six years when they turned back Lane, 14-13.

Morehouse halted the march of the K. Cans in Atlanta when they tied them 0-0 before a large Morehouse Homecoming crowd in Ponce de Leon Park. Then the most defeat of the season was handed them in Tallahassee by those Florida A. & M. 'Gators, 31-0. The "Men of Hawkins" returned home and spanked 'Dega 20-14 to write "finis".

Coach W. O. Hawkins will miss the services of six seniors next year. Wood, fullback; Davis, half back; Roach, half back; Ramseur, half back; Ward, and Elligan guard, will receive their diplomas in June. The Bulldogs will be feted in their annual banquet Tuesday evening, at which time this year's lettermen will be announced, and the captains for 1938 will be elected.

CIAA TO HOLD ANNUAL MEETING AT LINCOLN UNIVERSITY

The 1937 meeting of the Colored Inter-Collegiate Athletic Association will open here Friday morning at 10 o'clock with a welcome address to be delivered by Dr. Walter L. Wright, president of the university, according to the program just released for publication by the secretary of the organization, J. L. Whitehead of St. Paul Normal and Industrial of Lawrenceville, Va.

Addresses and talks on various athletic subjects will be delivered by coaches of the association and other persons interested in the development of athletics in Negro schools.

The annual address of the president, Charles H. Williams of Hampton Institute, will follow the reading of the minutes of the last meeting.

Addresses and talks on various athletic subjects will be delivered by coaches of the association and other persons interested in the development of athletics in Negro schools.

Dr. James E. Shepard, president of the institution, who began the school 28 years ago as a private institution and built it into a college with a fine record of achievement, will be the featured speaker.

DEDICATORY PROGRAM—

lature of a state which a few dante of men, many of whom felt that Negroes could not be educated years ago had slaves; they have been placed here by the descendants and that we belonged to an inferior race; they have been put here for the most humble element of the population so that in giving a liberal arts education we might learn the mysteries of world economics, politics, and social forces. They represent the profound significance of the Christian religion and the Democratic significance of faith in God.

"Equal opportunity for education should not depend upon the section of the country, nor of the race to which one belongs," said president Graham of the U. of North Carolina. "Every human being has a spirit personality equal in the sight of God. The education of the whole child is precious above either race color or creed. There is one Father of us all, and if we follow His spirit truly with these educational instruments which are here at our hands, we shall make of this region one of the spiritual centers of the world."

into so effective an organization that the state of North Carolina took it over. It is recognized as one of the outstanding college administrators of the country. Messages of congratulations poured in on him from every section and visitors were here for the occasion from educational institutions in a number of states.

Others who spoke were Dr. R. L. Flowers, vice president of Duke university and who is chairman of North Carolina Colleges' trustee board and who presided; P. M. Grant, vice chairman; legislator Victor Bryant; president David D. Jones, Bennett college, Greensboro; president Robert P. Daniel, Shaw university, Raleigh; President F. L. Atkins, Teachers' college, Winston-Salem, N. C.; who because of illness sent his greetings in the form of a paper which was read by his brother Jack Atkins. Mrs. Hoey, wife of the Governor Claude A. Barnett of Chicago; Dr. C. C. Spaulding, and Dr. W. G. Pearson of Durham.

Invocation were given by Rev. H. C. Smith of Duke Memorial M. E. church and Dr. Miles M. Fisher, pastor, White Rock Baptist church. Effective music rendered by the college choir under the direction of Mrs. C. Ruth Edwards. The reception committee included Alphonso Elder, George Kelly, A. Hohnburg, J. T. Taylor, I. E. Knox, and C. C. Amey.

WEAVER-MCLEAN POST TO HELP NEEDY CHILDREN

The Weaver-McLean Post 175 American Legion is sponsoring the empty stocking club for Negro children who are on relief, both in the City and County. The Committee has completed its plans. Sunday, Commander W. W. Hardy and his committee will collect tops from different sections of the city. The ministers have been asked to collect what money they can from their congregations to help the 400 Negro children who are on relief in City and County.

The Post appointed a committee headed by Levy Harris to canvass the Negro business sections and ask for aid. Toys will be assembled at the White Rock Baptist Church center and E. W. Midgette, recreational worker has offered his assistance. The Boy Scouts and the Knott Hole Club boys are offering their services. Letters will be sent to all clubs as well as individuals.

The Post is using every ounce of energy to put the program over. Each member realizes how important it is to make these 400 Negro children who are on relief happy on Christmas Morning.

NEW WHO'S WHO IS OUT

ROOKLYN, N. Y. —(C)—The Who's Who in Colored America, covering from '35 to '37, Thomas Yassar, 2317 Newkirk avenue, editor and publisher, is out. The book has gained increasing popularity as a biographical dictionary of notable living persons of African descent in America, and is now a standard reference work in many of the white universities of the North and South the public libraries, daily newspapers offices, and government bureaus, federal, state and municipal, according to the editor. Printed by the photo-offset process, the book contains 608 pages and carries about 400 pictures.

with the verdict of "unjustifiable homicide." Bowlin was placed under $2,000.00 bond and suspended from the force. The case is now before a grand jury.

The fine courage and determination of the colored citizens of Charlotte had resulted in a partial victory for justice and civic decency. They as well as many white people are convinced that just punishment for the Miller of William Connor will mean a big step forward towards stopping police brutality and protecting the civil rights of the people.

LOCAL CITIZEN RESENTS PEARSON'S SPEECH

December 6, 1937
Mr. L. E. Austin, Editor
The Carolina Times
Durham, North Carolina
Dear Editor:
Please publish the following in your newspaper of December 11. A number of friends and myself heard the speech of Prof. W. G. Pearson over the radio on Sunday December 5, from North Carolina College. We enjoyed the speech until he got to the part of saying "black niggers"—we did not like that. We do not like that. We do not think much of a Negro Business man of Durham, and supposedly an intelligent leader referring to a member of his own race as a nigger. How can we expect them to respect us if we do not respect ourselves?
