Chromium Buffet Tables Acclaimed By Editors' Jury

An attractive buffet is created by the use of gleaming chromium ware. The well and tree server, in the center, laden with delicacies, offers a complete service for all occasions.

CLEANING chromium ware is the newest note in what the well-dressed buffet table will wear. This is the opinion of a jury of home magazine editors who recently declared that wire hostesses will find products made of this sleek enduring metal certain to enhance the attractiveness of buffet settings.

A boon to every hostess is the Coffee Robot, an ingenious electrical coffee maker, entirely self-reliant once you have connected the electric current. It brews the coffee, turns the current off automatically when it is done, stirs it constantly, and keeps it perpetually hot and delicious—all without the slightest bit of human attention.

The well and tree server, by Farberware, deserves a supreme position on the buffet, for, in addition to its smartness, it performs a complete service.

From pure facts found through research and general study, certain amazing truths that we should know have never been related to us as a whole, hence the Negro has not been given the proper CREDIT for his place in the world.

Benjamin Banneker, Negro astronomer, made the first clock and helped to survey and lay out Washington, D. C.

In 1817, a group of Negroes in Richmond, Va., met to oppose colonizing Negroes in Liberia, West Africa.

John M. Langston was permitted to practice law before the U. S. Supreme Court.

Richard Allen Founder of the A.M.E. Church was born in Philadelphia, 1790.

A Negro slave first conceived the idea of a cotton gin.

In 1770 the first blood shed for independence of colonies from England was by a Negro, Crispus Attucks.

1870 Thomas Peterson was first Negro to vote in the U. S., the day after 15th amendment had been ratified.

1898 N. C. Mutual Life Ins. Co., organized by John Merrick and Dr. A. M. Moore in Durham N. C.

There are only four Negro graduates of West Point Military Academy. They are Flipper, '87; Alexander, '87; Col. Young, '89; and Davis, Jr., '85.

The above mentioned are not all. There are millions of other facts that we should know. But you must find these out for yourself. No one will ever tell you and the only way to get the proper CREDIT for these facts is to go back into the dim dismal past and bring them to light. When this has been done you can say "Well done, my good and faithful servant!"

Everyday Cooking Miracles

BY VIRGINIA FRANCES, Director Hoopnet Electric Cookery Institute

Homemakers, we've got a real double-barreled scoop for you today. It concerns an all-of-a sudden chocolate cake and a quick-as-a-flash broiled butterscotch icing. No, that's not a mistake—the word really is "broiled." And as their names lmply, these two delicacies can be made in three shakes of the well-known larab's tail. It almost seems as if this cake were thrown together without rhyme or reason. But just wait until your family pass their verdict. They'll probably sentence you to a lifetime of making this cake with its wonderful broiled icing. Of course, we must give credit where credit is due and in this case a lot of credit goes to the miracle oven of the Hoopnet electric range where this cake blossomed into feathery-lightness, and reached lofty heights under the magic of the oven's heat-and-moisture control. Of course, in a way, you can't call this successful baking "magic," because magic works only once in a while, but the modern electric oven can always be depended upon to turn out a glorified "something-to-eat."

The versatile broiler of the electric range finds a new use in this delicious broiled butterscotch icing.

- Here is the cake recipe: Quick Chocolate Cake: 1 cup sugar, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1/2 cup milk, 1/2 cup cocoa, 1 egg, 1/2 teaspoon soda, 1/2 cup general purpose flour, 1/2 cup boiling water. Into mixing bowl place sugar, shortening, milk and egg (in beaten). 2. Stir into above mixture (but do not mix) flour, salt, baking powder, cocoa and soda.
- As you see, you can bake your cake in a cold or preheated oven, according to your preference, for there are no "musts" in electric cookery. Of course, you will set your automatic timer clock for the required baking time and let the chef's brain, as it is called, clock your cooking period for you.
- And now for the broiled icing. You can put the cake right on the plate on which you are going to serve it and spread the icing over the top of the warm cake, while it under your smokeless-spatterless, even-browning electric broiler for a few seconds and there you are! Here's the recipe for a deliciously different icing: Broiled Butterscotch Icing: 3 tablespoons butter, 3/4 cup light cream (acidulated), 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 cup shredded cocoanut. 1. Cream the butter. 2. Add sugar and blend thoroughly. 3. Add cream and shredded cocoanut. 4. Spread on cake while still hot. 5. Place on broiler rack. 6. Turn switch to BROIL or ON and heat until glowing red. Set temperature control to 550. 7. Set broiler pan under unit. Temperature Control: 550°. Simmer a few seconds.
