

PICTORIAL REVIEW OF 1939

HELD THREE TITLES

SUNNY SIDE SOCIAL CLUB CELEBRATES ANNIVERSARY AT ALGONQUIN CLUB HOUSE

Henry Armstrong, holder of three pugilistic crowns during 1939. "Hammering Hank" is the only man in prize history to do so.

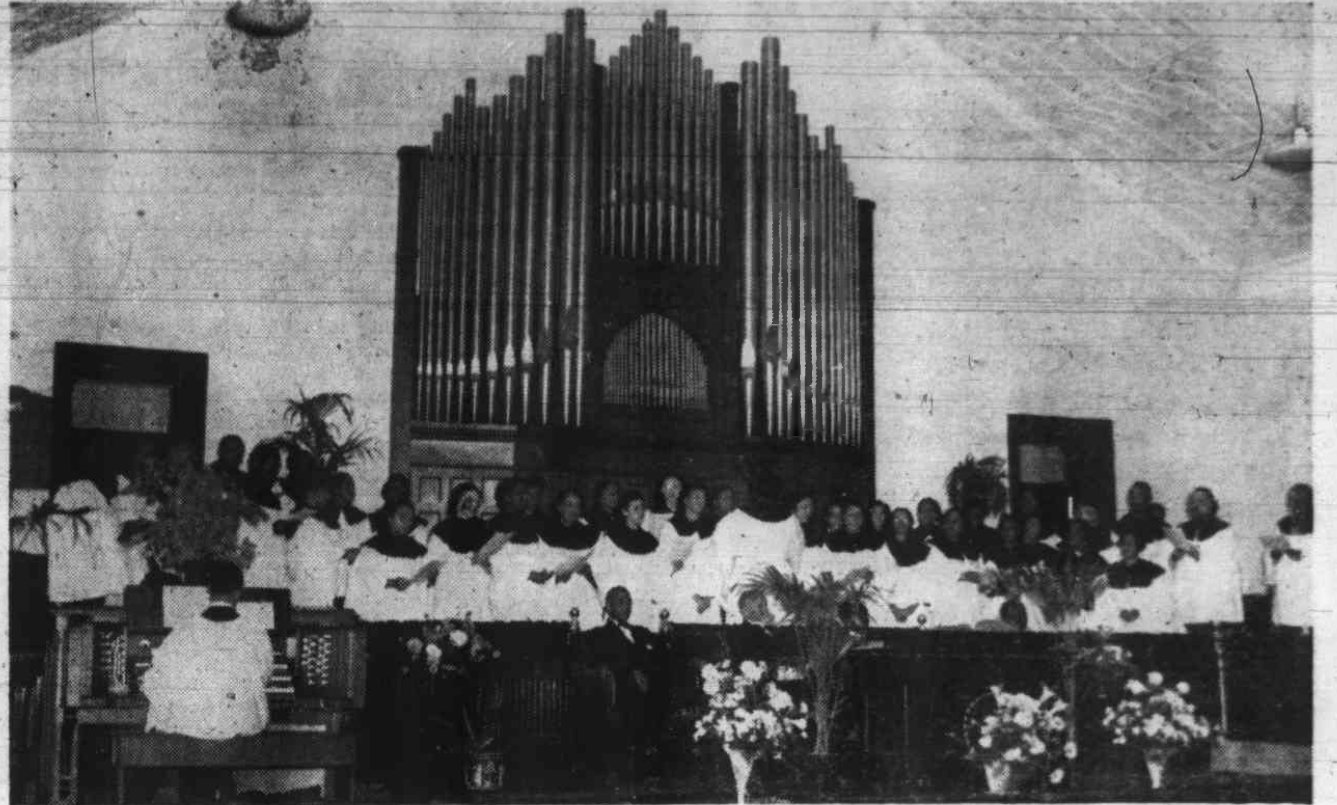

These shots were made in the midst of the SUNNY SIDE SOCIAL CLUB'S gaily celebration of its third anniversary at the Algonquin Club on Friday evening, June 16. It was a lively party from beginning to end and whistles and caps were given as souvenirs.

AMEZ CONFAB IN NOV.

The Central North Carolina Conference of the AMEZ Church, presided over by Bishop L. W. Kyles, was one of the most successful in session at Southern Pines meetings in the history of the under the progressive leadership of the church.

WHITE ROCK GETS NEW $10,000 PIPE ORGAN

Above is a scene at White Rock Baptist Church, Durham, during the dedication of the new three Manual Moller Pipe Organ with 33 stops. Dr. James E. Shepard, President of N. C. College, delivered the dedicatory address on October 22.

HOMECOMING DAY AND THE PARADE IS ON

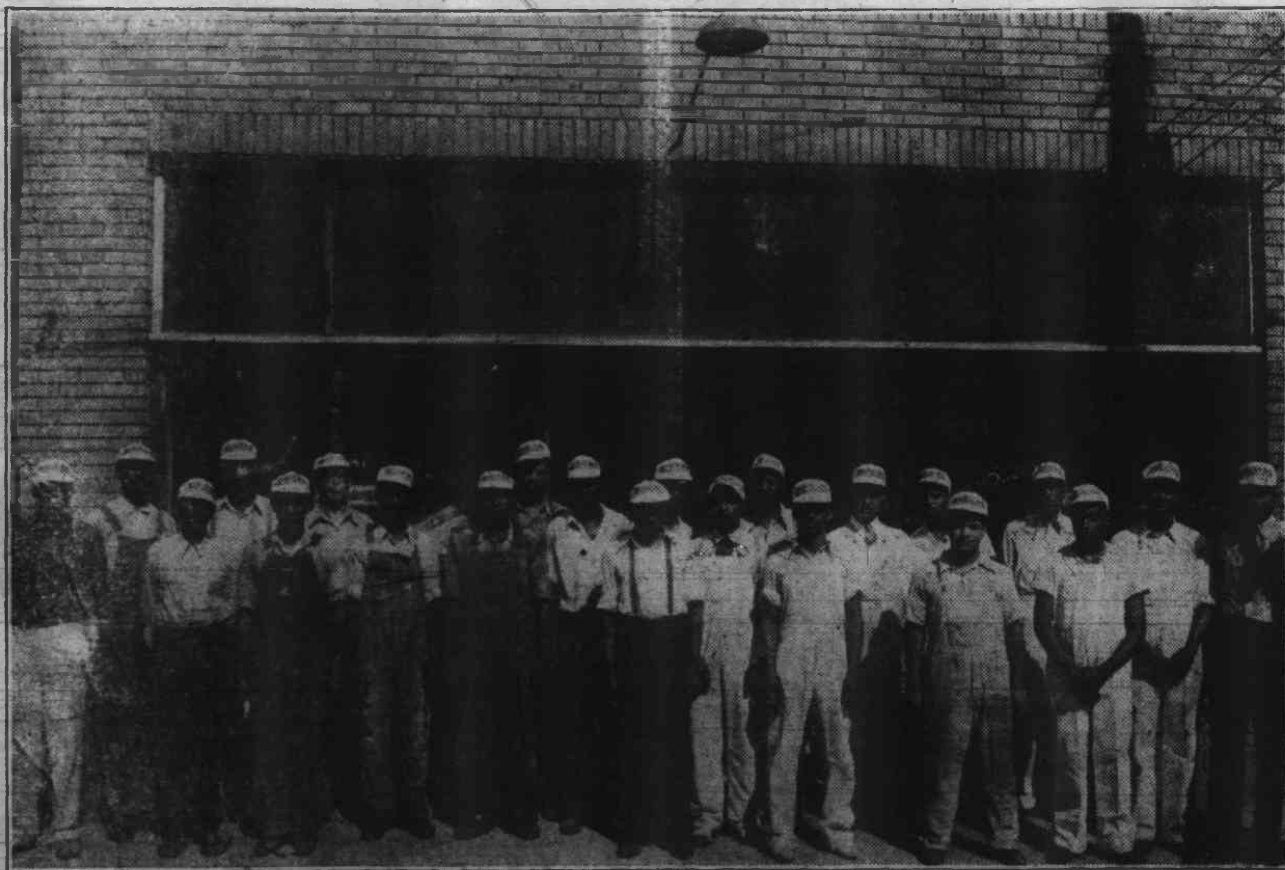

The above photos of the Hillside Park High School's third annual homecoming parade which was the longest and most colorful of any previous years. Hillside won yet their unscored-on record was broken by allowing the Smith team of Fayetteville to penetrate their goal line.

THE EAGLES AND AGGIES WERE BATTLING

MAGNATES MET IN MARCH

GAVE EFFICIENCY AND SERVICE IN 1939

Shown above are the efficient Home Modernization and Supply Company, located on Fayetteville Street on its customers with satisfaction. workmen of the Home Moderns who opened its new establishment June 21 and since has served

Miss Zora Hurston, director of the famous Br. Dr. So Stagers of N. C. College and famous playwright attending the annual Turkey day classic. Seated in front of Miss Hurston is Dr. J. A. Valentine, pastor of Saint Joseph AME church and Valentine at his left. Third from Mrs. Valentine's left is Mrs. C. C. Amey.

During the good will tour of Dr. Williams, who is also president of the National Baptist Convention, Dr. L. K. Williams, president of the Mutual Life Insurance Company and Dr. C. C. Spaulding of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company. The above photo shows Dr. Williams shaking hands with Dr. Williams.