

APPOINT MITCHELL

Continued from page one

ville, the adopted home of his parents. He is a graduate of Fayetteville State Normal, now Fayetteville Teachers College, and has a B. S. Degree in Agriculture from A. and T. College, and a Master of Arts Degree from Central University of Indiana, majoring in sociology.

Jeffries was born in Alamance county. He attended A. and T. College in 1913-14, and again in 1926 and 1929. He won honors as a Negro county agent, and in 1927 he organized one of the largest Negro 4-H Club in the Nation, owning registered Jersey calves.

COMPLETE PLANS

Continued from page one

from Selma and Smithfield and other eastern cities will gather at the Richard B. Harrison High school in an interesting program, the climax of which will be an address by the state president, L. E. Austin.

Other officers of the organization are: C. A. Langston, Raleigh, first vice president; W. R. Hawkins, Winston-Salem, second vice president; Burch Coley, Durham, third vice president; J. Wiley Thompson, Goldsboro, fourth vice president; Mrs. Ruth H. Morgan, Wadell, corresponding secretary; Mrs. L. B. Perkins, Salisbury, recording secretary; Miss M. J. Peete, Salisbury, financial secretary; John Nash, Winston-Salem, chairman of the financial committee; J. W. Doss, Greensboro, treasurer. O. G. Donnell of Greensboro is chairman of the Board of Directors. Miss Fannie R. McLead, Raleigh

LAY PROBLEMS

Continued from page one

when a southern white woman told the story of how the Klan in South Carolina had left a disabled Negro war veteran naked on her front porch at night after he had been beaten by the Klan nearly to death.

John P. Davis, national secretary of the Congress, in a statement to the press following the meeting lashed out vigorously at what he termed the "gross negligence of the Attorney General of the United States in refusing to bring instant federal prosecution in these flagrant cases of violations of the federal statutes on peonage and night riding."

The Congress official declared, "The Attorney General of the United States may not escape the responsibility for having having failed even to institute grave charge of violation of federal law brought before the Department of Justice by many individuals and organizations involved in these cases. In the Georgia peonage cases, despite the sworn affidavits of numerous Negro persons who escaped from a Georgia plantation to Chicago, the Federal Bureau of Investigation has refused to conduct an inquiry into the facts and has informed the organization presenting the information to them that the case is closed. In the South Carolina cases, the Civil Liberties Unit of the Department of Justice has declared that there was in most of the cases no federal jurisdiction and that they could not act. But in other cases where the head of the Civil Liberties Unit, Mr. Harry Schweinegar, in the latter case involving a sign of terror by the KKK against Negro children at an NYA camp in Lexington County, South Carolina, the Department of Justice has refused to act."

There was sadness in the home of Rev. Woods' one of our old citizens as two of his children, a son and a daughter were laid to rest on the same day, from the St. John A.M.E. Zion church. The pastor Rev. R. A. G. Foster, conducted the services.

SEMI COMPANY

Continued from page one

or, Jr., W. S. Hines, G. A. Edwards, A. Moore Shearin, R. N. Harris, W. J. Kennedy, Jr., C. C. Spaulding, Aldine Robinson, E. R. Merrick, J. H. Wheeler, Leo G. Bruce, and F. D. Alexander.

Siler City

BY HERMAN SILER

Miss Lucy Marsh, Miss Williams and her friend from Greensboro was in the city Sunday. We girls in Siler City wonder what is going to happen at Miss Lucy Marsh's home. Look out Mrs. L. Jackson I see that some one was down to see you from Burlington. We saw you Sunday riding out with some one.

We are sorry to know that Miss Clarie Glover, a member of the faculty of Fayetteville State Teachers College, is on the sick list and in St. Agnes Hospital in Raleigh.

president of the First Aid department and Mrs. L. A. Foster, Greensboro, director of the Junior department.

Dobbs Pawn Shop

130 EAST TRADE ST.

500 Hats

FINEST STYLES IN SHAGS, SMOOTHS—LATEST STYLES

$1.95 $2.95

FAMOUS DOBBS JITTERBUGS

Suits

$17.50 — $19.50 — $22.50

1000 SUITS OUT OF PAWN

SPECIAL $4.95 UP

Dies

MRS. MAMIE BROWN SUFFERS FATAL HEART ATTACK

DURHAM — Mrs. Mamie Brown, 39, died at her home here 609 Elm street, Sunday morning at 11:15 as the result of a heart attack that came on her suddenly. Mrs. Brown's death was a distinct shock to members of her family as well as her friends.

The deceased was born in Menning, South Carolina, but had lived in Durham for around eight years. She was formerly employed as one of the chef cooks at the Kress cafeteria on Main street, where she was considered of unusual ability.

Funeral services were held at the home Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock with the Rev. Miles Mark Fisher, pastor of the White Rock Baptist church of which she was a member officiating.

Mrs. Brown is survived by two daughters Mrs. Ethel Scott and Mrs. R. J. Bowman, both of Durham and three grandsons. Interment was at the Beechwood cemetery on Fayetteville Road.

Wilson Notes

BY HENDERSON J. COOKE

The Rev. Mrs. Hattie L. Daniel and her nephew, Willis Owens Jr. and Mildred Blakney attended the Youth Conference Sunday, March 17th at Richmond, Va. Rev. Daniels was the guest speaker, Mildred sang a wonderful solo and Willis also appeared on the program.

There was sadness in the home of Rev. Woods' one of our old citizens as two of his children, a son and a daughter were laid to rest on the same day, from the St. John A.M.E. Zion church. The pastor Rev. R. A. G. Foster, conducted the services.

Mrs. Elinor Foster, one of the teachers of Darden High School, gave a wonderful recital in the high school auditorium last week. Mrs. Foster was presented a beautiful basket of flowers by the teachers.

Various churches of the city had wonderful services Sunday, March 17, which was Palm Sunday. The service at the Saint John A.M.E. Zion church was conducted by Rev. Foster. The choir rendered special music.

The Senior choir of the Saint John's A.M.E. Zion church under the direction of J. L. Cooke rendered one of the best recitals of the season Sunday night, March 17. This being a formal affair, the ladies were dressed in evening gowns and the men in tuxedos.

The Ladies Civic Club met Monday night, at the home of Mrs. J. L. Cooke 916 E. Green Street. The hostess served hot cocoa and sandwiches. They are planning to sponsor a Baby Contest.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cooke and son Henderson motored to New Bern and North Harlow to visit their mother Mrs. J. P. Godett.

JUNE MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED

DURHAM — Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Greene, Sr. of 320 Dowd Street are announcing that their daughter, Miss Nellie Flora Greene, was married to James B. Samuels on June 17, 1939 at Halifax, Virginia. Both these young people are popular students of North Carolina College.

TO HOLDS SPECIAL EASTER SERVICE

DURHAM — Kyles Temple A.M.E. Zion church holds special Easter services Sunday at 11 o'clock. Sermon by the presiding Elder W. W. Long, D. D. At 3 o'clock an Easter program will be given, and at 7:30 an Easter Drive with all clubs reporting. Closing Address G. F. Madkins.

We are also sorry to know that Mrs. Herman Siler is on the sick list. Andrew Marsh motored to Bon Lee Sunday accompanied by Mrs. McCadett.

ON MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, & THURSDAY for a limited time we will wash and grease your car for $1.00.

We Do Tire Retreading

We Sell good used Tires

Parrish Pure Oil Service

Fayetteville and Pottsgrove Streets

CONVALESCING

REV. P. R. WASHINGTON

Well known minister of this city and former pastor of the CME church who is convalescing at his home on Pine street after a serious attack of pneumonia. The many friends of Rev. Washington will be glad to know that he is expected to soon be back at his post at Pittsboro after an illness that extended over a period of more than two months.

TEACHERS MEET

CHARLOTTE — The Mecklenburg teachers Association met

Saturday at Second Ward High School, C. E. Moreland, president presided. The meeting was taken up in electing officers. All officers retained their offices with the exception of Mrs. Bessie Jamison, Vice-President who declined her office. The officers for the new fiscal year are as follows: C. E. Moreland, president; Mrs. Wilma Williams, vice president; Mrs. E. M. Stinson, secretary and Mrs. Louise Haywood, treasurer. Mrs. N. B. Dykes, supervisor, brought the association some very timely information. She very beautifully read and discussed freely an article dealing with I. Q. The explanations made by certain authorities reveal that environment has to do with I. Q. thus proving that such is not stable. Mrs. A. Dykes also informed the teachers of the date for the State examination for 7th grade pupils, which are to be held April 16th in the various districts. High schools. She urged the teachers not to excite children by stressing examination marks in the wrong manner. Mr. Davenport who succeeded Prof. I. L. Torrence as Farm Agent of Mecklenburg County, was formally introduced to the body by Prof. Torrence. The new agent made very timely comments. Mrs. Margaret Rogers county Home Demonstrator also made comments. C. E. Moreland was chosen to represent the association at the State association that is to convene March 21-24 at Fayetteville.

Immediately at the close of the teachers meeting the county PTA held their meeting. Mr. Davis, president, presided.

Helping Mrs. Belton serve were Mesdames Lillian Houseworth, Beatrice Teater, Mattie Caldwell, Nellie Lindsey, Messrs James Wilson, Edward McKenzilay and Sam Singleton, Jr.

At 10 the party left for the Athenaeum Ballroom for the Visulite's First Anniversary dance, where they were joined by many other guests. Music was rendered by Jimmy Gunn and his Serenaders. All members of the club were attired in peach colored evening dresses with tulleman roses.

NCC Trounces Fayetteville

BY WILLIAM STRUDWICK

FAYETTEVILLE — NCC and FTC gave to a packed house here March 1 all that could be asked for a championship team and a game fighting challengers.

The game was a nip-tuck affair from the beginning both sides dropping goal for goal for the first quarter—the FTC Cagers playing a heads up inspired game. Coach Burghardt had his "short" team in starting—as the first quarter ended the "tall timber" came into the game Colbert Ennis, Downing, Warwick and Peerman—score 8-9 NCC. Truce to form the first string the NCC Cagers immediately ran the tally to 16-8. Then the NCC defense seemed to fatigue and become listless FTC rallied to run up the tally to 18-15 NCC. Carter of FTC showing best form and accuracy of season scoring 4 points with 3 min. to play in first half—First half ended 20-19 in favor of NCC—Thrills, thrills thrills, the stands were wild, FTC fans lifted from their seats at the unexpected performance of FTC team.

The second half found NCC back in there with renewed vigor a definite return to their old form—Ennis dropped two straight sinkers—Team rallies again with renewed confidence runs tally to 24-19 in 3rd period NCC leading. FTC irrational and less spirited in 4th period—After frenzied nip and tuck passing FTC calls time out with score standing 31-23 NCC with 11 minutes in the 4th period. Then FTC came back inspired fast and accurate and with the sparking speed of Carter, and checking of glove on defense to run up 7 points making score 31-33 NCC. Crowds go wild as minutes fly by but the Eagles stalwarts stop the threat and with 9 points and G. Mack with 9 points—On defense Downing and Ennis.

The FTC girls defeated NCC girls in the preliminary game 33-21 FTC taking lead in early period. The NCC girls were outclassed in every department—floorwork and basket accuracy—outstanding for FTC Vandalia Woods with 18 points and Pearl Mitchell with 12 points. For NCC of Durham Phyllis with 13 points.

Officials—Black of E. E. Smith Umpire—"Pete" Williams of Lillington Referee.

over Hutchinson in the 150 lb. class.

Then Brannon, 155, took the second Aggie victory in a TKO of McQueen, 156 in 1:45 of the second. Sam Bruce edged out a close decision over "Sugar" Dowling in the 160 lb. division in one of the most vicious affairs.

Both men hit the canvas continually in a give and take affair.

"Newt" Curry, 163, retaliated for Smith with a decision over Lima at 160 and then Holley of A and T TKO'd Willis after 159 of the second round. Hal Rodgers, a Charlotte lad and one of the Aggies chief hopes in the coming CIAA Tournament, also edged out a close decision over the Bulls' "Choo Choo" Jackson of football fame.

In the final and feature event, "Hammer" Brooks, king of the middleweight division during the past two years of CIAA activity, decisively out-boxed, out-pointed and outbit the Aggies' Dutch Clark to avenge a previous de-

feat at Greensboro. Brooks staggered Clark continually with terrific lefts and rights, but seemed content with a decision.

Clark, 163, retaliated for Smith with a decision over Lima at 160 and then Holley of A and T TKO'd Willis after 159 of the second round. Hal Rodgers, a Charlotte lad and one of the Aggies chief hopes in the coming CIAA Tournament, also edged out a close decision over the Bulls' "Choo Choo" Jackson of football fame.

In the final and feature event, "Hammer" Brooks, king of the middleweight division during the past two years of CIAA activity, decisively out-boxed, out-pointed and outbit the Aggies' Dutch Clark to avenge a previous de-

feat at Greensboro. Brooks staggered Clark continually with terrific lefts and rights, but seemed content with a decision.

Clark, 163, retaliated for Smith with a decision over Lima at 160 and then Holley of A and T TKO'd Willis after 159 of the second round. Hal Rodgers, a Charlotte lad and one of the Aggies chief hopes in the coming CIAA Tournament, also edged out a close decision over the Bulls' "Choo Choo" Jackson of football fame.

In the final and feature event, "Hammer" Brooks, king of the middleweight division during the past two years of CIAA activity, decisively out-boxed, out-pointed and outbit the Aggies' Dutch Clark to avenge a previous de-

feat at Greensboro. Brooks staggered Clark continually with terrific lefts and rights, but seemed content with a decision.

Clark, 163, retaliated for Smith with a decision over Lima at 160 and then Holley of A and T TKO'd Willis after 159 of the second round. Hal Rodgers, a Charlotte lad and one of the Aggies chief hopes in the coming CIAA Tournament, also edged out a close decision over the Bulls' "Choo Choo" Jackson of football fame.

In the final and feature event, "Hammer" Brooks, king of the middleweight division during the past two years of CIAA activity, decisively out-boxed, out-pointed and outbit the Aggies' Dutch Clark to avenge a previous defeat at Greensboro. Brooks staggered Clark continually with terrific lefts and rights, but seemed content with a decision.

Clark, 163, retaliated for Smith with a decision over Lima at 160 and then Holley of A and T TKO'd Willis after 159 of the second round. Hal Rodgers, a Charlotte lad and one of the Aggies chief hopes in the coming CIAA Tournament, also edged out a close decision over the Bulls' "Choo Choo" Jackson of football fame.

In the final and feature event, "Hammer" Brooks, king of the middleweight division during the past two years of CIAA activity, decisively out-boxed, out-pointed and outbit the Aggies' Dutch Clark to avenge a previous defeat at Greensboro. Brooks staggered Clark continually with terrific lefts and rights, but seemed content with a decision.

Clark, 163, retaliated for Smith with a decision over Lima at 160 and then Holley of A and T TKO'd Willis after 159 of the second round. Hal Rodgers, a Charlotte lad and one of the Aggies chief hopes in the coming CIAA Tournament, also edged out a close decision over the Bulls' "Choo Choo" Jackson of football fame.

In the final and feature event, "Hammer" Brooks, king of the middleweight division during the past two years of CIAA activity, decisively out-boxed, out-pointed and outbit the Aggies' Dutch Clark to avenge a previous defeat at Greensboro. Brooks staggered Clark continually with terrific lefts and rights, but seemed content with a decision.

Clark, 163, retaliated for Smith with a decision over Lima at 160 and then Holley of A and T TKO'd Willis after 159 of the second round. Hal Rodgers, a Charlotte lad and one of the Aggies chief hopes in the coming CIAA Tournament, also edged out a close decision over the Bulls' "Choo Choo" Jackson of football fame.

In the final and feature event, "Hammer" Brooks, king of the middleweight division during the past two years of CIAA activity, decisively out-boxed, out-pointed and outbit the Aggies' Dutch Clark to avenge a previous defeat at Greensboro. Brooks staggered Clark continually with terrific lefts and rights, but seemed content with a decision.

Clark, 163, retaliated for Smith with a decision over Lima at 160 and then Holley of A and T TKO'd Willis after 159 of the second round. Hal Rodgers, a Charlotte lad and one of the Aggies chief hopes in the coming CIAA Tournament, also edged out a close decision over the Bulls' "Choo Choo" Jackson of football fame.

In the final and feature event, "Hammer" Brooks, king of the middleweight division during the past two years of CIAA activity, decisively out-boxed, out-pointed and outbit the Aggies' Dutch Clark to avenge a previous defeat at Greensboro. Brooks staggered Clark continually with terrific lefts and rights, but seemed content with a decision.

Clark, 163, retaliated for Smith with a decision over Lima at 160 and then Holley of A and T TKO'd Willis after 159 of the second round. Hal Rodgers, a Charlotte lad and one of the Aggies chief hopes in the coming CIAA Tournament, also edged out a close decision over the Bulls' "Choo Choo" Jackson of football fame.

In the final and feature event, "Hammer" Brooks, king of the middleweight division during the past two years of CIAA activity, decisively out-boxed, out-pointed and outbit the Aggies' Dutch Clark to avenge a previous defeat at Greensboro. Brooks staggered Clark continually with terrific lefts and rights, but seemed content with a decision.

Clark, 163, retaliated for Smith with a decision over Lima at 160 and then Holley of A and T TKO'd Willis after 159 of the second round. Hal Rodgers, a Charlotte lad and one of the Aggies chief hopes in the coming CIAA Tournament, also edged out a close decision over the Bulls' "Choo Choo" Jackson of football fame.

In the final and feature event, "Hammer" Brooks, king of the middleweight division during the past two years of CIAA activity, decisively out-boxed, out-pointed and outbit the Aggies' Dutch Clark to avenge a previous defeat at Greensboro. Brooks staggered Clark continually with terrific lefts and rights, but seemed content with a decision.

Clark, 163, retaliated for Smith with a decision over Lima at 160 and then Holley of A and T TKO'd Willis after 159 of the second round. Hal Rodgers, a Charlotte lad and one of the Aggies chief hopes in the coming CIAA Tournament, also edged out a close decision over the Bulls' "Choo Choo" Jackson of football fame.

In the final and feature event, "Hammer" Brooks, king of the middleweight division during the past two years of CIAA activity, decisively out-boxed, out-pointed and outbit the Aggies' Dutch Clark to avenge a previous defeat at Greensboro. Brooks staggered Clark continually with terrific lefts and rights, but seemed content with a decision.

Clark, 163, retaliated for Smith with a decision over Lima at 160 and then Holley of A and T TKO'd Willis after 159 of the second round. Hal Rodgers, a Charlotte lad and one of the Aggies chief hopes in the coming CIAA Tournament, also edged out a close decision over the Bulls' "Choo Choo" Jackson of football fame.

In the final and feature event, "Hammer" Brooks, king of the middleweight division during the past two years of CIAA activity, decisively out-boxed, out-pointed and outbit the Aggies' Dutch Clark to avenge a previous defeat at Greensboro. Brooks staggered Clark continually with terrific lefts and rights, but seemed content with a decision.

Clark, 163, retaliated for Smith with a decision over Lima at 160 and then Holley of A and T TKO'd Willis after 159 of the second round. Hal Rodgers, a Charlotte lad and one of the Aggies chief hopes in the coming CIAA Tournament, also edged out a close decision over the Bulls' "Choo Choo" Jackson of football fame.

In the final and feature event, "Hammer" Brooks, king of the middleweight division during the past two years of CIAA activity, decisively out-boxed, out-pointed and outbit the Aggies' Dutch Clark to avenge a previous defeat at Greensboro. Brooks staggered Clark continually with terrific lefts and rights, but seemed content with a decision.

Clark, 163, retaliated for Smith with a decision over Lima at 160 and then Holley of A and T TKO'd Willis after 159 of the second round. Hal Rodgers, a Charlotte lad and one of the Aggies chief hopes in the coming CIAA Tournament, also edged out a close decision over the Bulls' "Choo Choo" Jackson of football fame.

In the final and feature event, "Hammer" Brooks, king of the middleweight division during the past two years of CIAA activity, decisively out-boxed, out-pointed and outbit the Aggies' Dutch Clark to avenge a previous defeat at Greensboro. Brooks staggered Clark continually with terrific lefts and rights, but seemed content with a decision.

Clark, 163, retaliated for Smith with a decision over Lima at 160 and then Holley of A and T TKO'd Willis after 159 of the second round. Hal Rodgers, a Charlotte lad and one of the Aggies chief hopes in the coming CIAA Tournament, also edged out a close decision over the Bulls' "Choo Choo" Jackson of football fame.

In the final and feature event, "Hammer" Brooks, king of the middleweight division during the past two years of CIAA activity, decisively out-boxed, out-pointed and outbit the Aggies' Dutch Clark to avenge a previous defeat at Greensboro. Brooks staggered Clark continually with terrific lefts and rights, but seemed content with a decision.

Clark, 163, retaliated for Smith with a decision over Lima at 160 and then Holley of A and T TKO'd Willis after 159 of the second round. Hal Rodgers, a Charlotte lad and one of the Aggies chief hopes in the coming CIAA Tournament, also edged out a close decision over the Bulls' "Choo Choo" Jackson of football fame.

In the final and feature event, "Hammer" Brooks, king of the middleweight division during the past two years of CIAA activity, decisively out-boxed, out-pointed and outbit the Aggies' Dutch Clark to avenge a previous defeat at Greensboro. Brooks staggered Clark continually with terrific lefts and rights, but seemed content with a decision.

Clark, 163, retaliated for Smith with a decision over Lima at 160 and then Holley of A and T TKO'd Willis after 159 of the second round. Hal Rodgers, a Charlotte lad and one of the Aggies chief hopes in the coming CIAA Tournament, also edged out a close decision over the Bulls' "Choo Choo" Jackson of football fame.

In the final and feature event, "Hammer" Brooks, king of the middleweight division during the past two years of CIAA activity, decisively out-boxed, out-pointed and outbit the Aggies' Dutch Clark to avenge a previous defeat at Greensboro. Brooks staggered Clark continually with terrific lefts and rights, but seemed content with a decision.

Clark, 163, retaliated for Smith with a decision over Lima at 160 and then Holley of A and T TKO'd Willis after 159 of the second round. Hal Rodgers, a Charlotte lad and one of the Aggies chief hopes in the coming CIAA Tournament, also edged out a close decision over the Bulls' "Choo Choo" Jackson of football fame.

In the final and feature event, "Hammer" Brooks, king of the middleweight division during the past two years of CIAA activity, decisively out-boxed, out-pointed and outbit the Aggies' Dutch Clark to avenge a previous defeat at Greensboro. Brooks staggered Clark continually with terrific lefts and rights, but seemed content with a decision.

Clark, 163, retaliated for Smith with a decision over Lima at 160 and then Holley of A and T TKO'd Willis after 159 of the second round. Hal Rodgers, a Charlotte lad and one of the Aggies chief hopes in the coming CIAA Tournament, also edged out a close decision over the Bulls' "Choo Choo" Jackson of football fame.

In the final and feature event, "Hammer" Brooks, king of the middleweight division during the past two years of CIAA activity, decisively out-boxed, out-pointed and outbit the Aggies' Dutch Clark to avenge a previous defeat at Greensboro. Brooks staggered Clark continually with terrific lefts and rights, but seemed content with a decision.

Clark, 163, retaliated for Smith with a decision over Lima at 160 and then Holley of A and T TKO'd Willis after 159 of the second round. Hal Rodgers, a Charlotte lad and one of the Aggies chief hopes in the coming CIAA Tournament, also edged out a close decision over the Bulls' "Choo Choo" Jackson of football fame.

In the final and feature event, "Hammer" Brooks, king of the middleweight division during the past two years of CIAA activity, decisively out-boxed, out-pointed and outbit the Aggies' Dutch Clark to avenge a previous defeat at Greensboro. Brooks staggered Clark continually with terrific lefts and rights, but seemed content with a decision.

Clark, 163, retaliated for Smith with a decision over Lima at 160 and then Holley of A and T TKO'd Willis after 159 of the second round. Hal Rodgers, a Charlotte lad and one of the Aggies chief hopes in the coming CIAA Tournament, also edged out a close decision over the Bulls' "Choo Choo" Jackson of football fame.

In the final and feature event, "Hammer" Brooks, king of the middleweight division during the past two years of CIAA activity, decisively out-boxed, out-pointed and outbit the Aggies' Dutch Clark to avenge a previous defeat at Greensboro. Brooks staggered Clark continually with terrific lefts and rights, but seemed content with a decision.

Clark, 163, retaliated for Smith with a decision over Lima at 160 and then Holley of A and T TKO'd Willis after 159 of the second round. Hal Rodgers, a Charlotte lad and one of the Aggies chief hopes in the coming CIAA Tournament, also edged out a close decision over the Bulls' "Choo Choo" Jackson of football fame.

In the final and feature event, "Hammer" Brooks, king of the middleweight division during the past two years of CIAA activity, decisively out-boxed, out-pointed and outbit the Aggies' Dutch Clark to avenge a previous defeat at Greensboro. Brooks staggered Clark continually with terrific lefts and rights, but seemed content with a decision.

Clark, 163, retaliated for Smith with a decision over Lima at 160 and then Holley of A and T TKO'd Willis after 159 of the second round. Hal Rodgers, a Charlotte lad and one of the Aggies chief hopes in the coming CIAA Tournament, also edged out a close decision over the Bulls' "Choo Choo" Jackson of football fame.

In the final and feature event, "Hammer" Brooks, king of the middleweight division during the past two years of CIAA activity, decisively out-boxed, out-pointed and outbit the Aggies' Dutch Clark to avenge a previous defeat at Greensboro. Brooks staggered Clark continually with terrific lefts and rights, but seemed content with a decision.

Clark, 163, retaliated for Smith with a decision over Lima at 160 and then Holley of A and T TKO'd Willis after 159 of the second round. Hal Rodgers, a Charlotte lad and one of the Aggies chief hopes in the coming CIAA Tournament, also edged out a close decision over the Bulls' "Choo Choo" Jackson of football fame.

In the final and feature event, "Hammer" Brooks, king of the middleweight division during the past two years of CIAA activity, decisively out-boxed, out-pointed and outbit the Aggies' Dutch Clark to avenge a previous defeat at Greensboro. Brooks staggered Clark continually with terrific lefts and rights, but seemed content with a decision.

Clark, 163, retaliated for Smith with a decision over Lima at 160 and then Holley of A and T TKO'd Willis after 159 of the second round. Hal Rodgers, a Charlotte lad and one of the Aggies chief hopes in the coming CIAA Tournament, also edged out a close decision over the Bulls' "Choo Choo" Jackson of football fame.

In the final and feature event, "Hammer" Brooks, king of the middleweight division during the past two years of CIAA activity, decisively out-boxed, out-pointed and outbit the Aggies' Dutch Clark to avenge a previous defeat at Greensboro. Brooks staggered Clark continually with terrific lefts and rights, but seemed content with a decision.

Clark, 163, retaliated for Smith with a decision over Lima at 160 and then Holley of A and T TKO