PE—Will the things that took place the other night lower me in the estimation of my friend? I am so ashamed.

Ans: No, but I advise against repeating this again. There are certain privileges that cannot be indulged in without dangerous complications. Stop this foolishness right now.

IBR—I want to know if it best for me to stay here and pay all the bills or leave? Has anyone crossed me with an evil influence?

Ans: Running out will only get you into a bigger jam than you are in now. Stay and cooperate with your friend in getting out of this hole and I am sure everything will work out for the best. Your fears are foolish, for no one has any evil intentions toward you. Your whole trouble is due to the fact that your appetite is bigger than your pocketbook.

A C—Will I ever be able to build back on my home lot again? What is the hitch?

Ans: You couldn't build a chicken coop let alone a house on the lot right now because it takes money and that something that you ain't got. Get your financial affairs in order before you even think of building. Once you get a little money ahead you will find your plan will go thru without a hitch of any kind.

QT—I will appreciate it very much if you will help ease my mind of this worry. The boy that I think I love went away to college without saying goodbye to me. I sent him a Christmas card. He said it was the best present he received. He came back from college and did not come to see me. Do you think he cares?

Ans: He doesn't think you are good enough for him. Since he has been away at school he's gone "highhat". Friends of his sort aren't worth having in the first place and you should congratulate yourself in finding him out for what he is before your affair with him took a serious turn. My suggestion is to forget him.

TC—I have been renting in this duplex for several years and the man that owns it rented it to some new people who built a fence around the back yard and that just leaves me the driveway for my kids to play in. The man that owns the house does not live around here and I have told the real estate people about it and they didn't say anything. Please tell me what to do?

Ans: Next time your rent falls due give them $5 per month less than you have been paying. Tell them to collect the $5 from the party on the other side of you as you rented the back yard too and since your new neighbor has taken it over its only fair that he pay the rent on it. The fence will come down in short order. Mark my words.

GSW—Have been in love with this man for more than a year. I like him very much and he is

Mrs. Fausett Not To Quit

PHILADELPHIA, (ANP)—Mrs. Crystal Bird Fausett, who was the first Negro woman elected to a state legislature and later resigned to be assistant state director of the WPA, denied this week that she will quit WPA in order to direct a section of the Roosevelt campaign.

With the Hatch act acting like a hatchet perverting persons on the federal payroll from political activity, rumors were rather consistent that the silver-tongued New Dealer would have to make a change. "I contemplate no change," she told the ANP this week. "When there is a change to be made, I'll see that the public knows it. However, I can say very frankly that I hope Mr. Roosevelt will be reelected because I feel that the best interests of the Negro race is tied up with the Democratic party."

so affectionate to me. Should I consider him? Asking your advice?

Ans: He loves you dearly. He is steady, sober and has a pretty good job what more do you want lass? Consider him by all means, he is a mighty good catch. However if you think you can do better there is no harm in trying.

NJC—I have had a bad break in life, altho I am the cause of it. Tell me in your own words what would be best for me and my family to do?

Ans: My advice is to leave TEXAS. You and your family are getting exactly no where amid your present surroundings and I strongly recommend a change of scenery. All of us have to get a new lease on life at some time and when nothing else will do the trick a change of states works. Pack up and see you can't lose.

Bar Association Reelects Redmond

COLUMBUS, O., (ANP)—The National Bar association held the largest and most interesting convention in its history here August 1-3. Lawyers from 21 states, the District of Columbia and the Virgin Islands were present.

The association went on record condemning lynching, peonage, the failure and refusal to make a pro rata distribution of educational funds, the poll tax, discriminatory practices against Negroes in the armed forces, disfranchisement, the jim crow car, and the exclusion of the Negro from the state and federal judiciary.

Attorney Edwin F. Kensil of St. Louis, chairman of the committee on time and place, reported that six cities requested the next convention. This was the largest number of invitations the association has ever had. After much discussion Little Rock, Ark., was selected for the next convention which will be Continued from Page 9

Many Attend Anniversary Of N. C. Orphanage

OXFORD — Approximately 1,000 colored citizens of Granville and adjacent counties assembled here Wednesday for the Annual Anniversary Celebration at the Colored Orphanage of North Carolina.

Although the massive crowd filled about the grounds of the institution all day, there was a note of sadness in the gathering, occasioned by the absence of Superintendent T. K. Borders, who has been granted a leave of absence for six months while he regains his health.

C. A. Alston, who is acting superintendent, presided over the program, which took place about noon. Dr. E. E. Toney, of the Board of Directors of the Orphanage, introduced the principal speaker, Rev. P. B. Bynum, pastor of New Zion Baptist Church, Greensboro.

After paying tribute to Supt. Borders and expressing regrets for his absence, Rev. Bynum took his text from Ezekiel 2:1-3 and used as his theme "Stand on Thy Feet." He developed his text from the spiritual, finance and educational angles as he sought to encourage the children and workers of the Orphanage and all others to bend their efforts so that, when the time comes, they will be able to "stand on their feet" to assist themselves and others. He closed with the song "It's My Desire," explaining it was his or's Court, in existence since 1788 when the city of Philadelphia operated under a charter, hears all cases concerning violation of city ordinances.

Presides Over Phila. Court

PHILADELPHIA — For the first time in the history of the Mayor's Court in Philadelphia, a Negro has been appointed to sit on the bench. He is Magistrate Edward W. Henry, prominent judge, who was chosen from 84 eligible city magistrates by Mayor Robert E. Lambertson to serve in this honored capacity for the month of August.

Judge Henry's appointment to this position, according to authoritative sources sounds a note of high regard and recognition for the Negro race on the part of Mayor Lambertson. The Mayor's Court, in existence since
