

Sabbath Day Observed

Charlotte — On Sunday morning, November 3, the regular "Sabbath Day Services" were held at the Jane W. Smith Memorial Church at 11 o'clock. The Rev. Algernon O. Steele rendered a most impressive and dynamic sermon which was very rich in content. Rev. Steele's subject was "The Mood of Religion," and the gist of his discourse was what a dynamic force one's mood can be either for good or evil. Countries have been classified according to moods.

Talitarian (Dictatorship) and Democracy is the mood of the French Revolution. The American Revolution is that all men are created equal and free and have the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. This hasn't been fully realized as yet, but in America, we have educated ourselves step by step to this mood and progressed in this direction to being made.

Another highlight in the meaning worship was the beautiful selection rendered by the Glee Club. They sang two selections, "Roll, Jordan, Roll" and "Somebody's Knocking at your Door." Vespers was held at four p. m. under the auspices of the YMCA. The address was given by Harold M. Patrick, Director of Christian Education, Hawthorne Lane Memorial Church. The Glee Club was requested to sing, "King Jesus is a Listen'n."

Charlotte — The Franksters Social Club met at the home of Andrew P. Allen on East First Street, Monday night. Officers and members of the organization are: President, Calvene Fincher; Vice president, Lillian Cunningham; Secretary, Nannie Little; Assistant Secretary, Rachel Duren; Treasurer, Clyde Brown; Business Manager, Andrew Allen; Publicity Manager, Adam Manigo; Social and Program Committee Workers, William D. Baxter, Rosa M. Goodwin, John Freeland, Wm. Roberts, Richard Massey, Mac. shall Pegrum. The purpose of this organization is to bring about a closer cooperation among boys and girls in an organization. The motto: "To strive to be alive, alert, and active."

The Lathers, Andrew Smith, Leon Jones, Robert Williams, Boy Hare, and Contractor Calie Fincher returned to the city Friday afternoon after spending two weeks in Raleigh.

Hyda Roseboro, of Pineville, N. C. spent the week end visiting relatives in Charlotte.

Newcomers to Woods Morgan Barber Collee are Robert Rhue, Conway, S. C.; Roger Simon, Timmonsville, S. C.; and Eugene Reddin, Farmville, N. C.

L. E. Austin Speaks To Oxford Ushers

By Rev. C. A. Atkins
Oxford — The Ushers' Union was held at Penn. Ave. Church, Sunday, Nov. 3. A short program was rendered, after which the chaplain George Luster, turned the meeting over to president Gooch, who in turn presented the guest speaker L. E. Austin, Editor of the Carolina Times, and president of the State Ushers' Union.

Mr. Austin asked the young people of the choir who had rendered lovely music under the direction of Miss Edith Carr, organist, to come down and take seat in audience. This being done, he set for his subject: "Scraps." Going back to the days of our forefathers who from actual experience, sang such songs as: "Nobody Knows The Trouble I See," but with faith in God and themselves were able to say: "Glory, Hal-lu-lu-ah." Though they worked hard and received only cruel treatment, he stressed the importance of writing our names on the floors we scrub, the houses we build, the potatoes we grow and in every thing that we do by doing it so well that our work will speak for us. He said that work is honorable and overalls worthily worn are in much demand. With the thought in mind that behing a dark cloud the is still shining, the speaker gently ushered (in thoughts) step by step, until we found ourselves standing at the Ballot box ready to cast our votes, not to cast our votes, not to build more one teachers schools; not to buy automobiles so big and long that must be driven out of town to turn around but to cast our votes for men who are willing to give the Negro an opportunity to prove that he has ability to think for himself and to help this government of our and at the same time, prove to the world that we desire to help make it a better place in which to live. He said: "Money and the Ballot are the two recognized great forces of today, and if we are not in the money class we should at least use our privilege and vote. Mears W. M. Smith, D. B. Henderson, C. A. Carr, ex president, Mrs. B. H. Rogers, the writer and others commended Mr. Austin for the great message

The Larieuse Beauty Bureau was established by the Godefrey Manufacturing Company to study methods of preserving women's natural beauty, and to make the results of this research available to the public.

There's a difference between beauty and just good looks. Most women are interested in their appearance; they are clean, fairly well groomed and without attractive. But so many of us neglect those little tricks which tell of real daintiness and fastidiousness. Read over the list of questions and score yourself for perfection.

1. Are your elbows soft and smooth?
2. Do you cleanse and cream them regularly to avoid discoloration and roughness?
3. Is the cuticle of all fingers well-trimmed, or do hangnails and overgrown cuticle mar the beauty of your hands?
4. Do you keep your nail polish in good order, or do you let chipped and scratched polish remain on your nails?
5. Do you bathe your throat as often as your face in order to keep it young-looking and lovely; do you use a good cream on it every time you apply it to your face?
6. Do you alter your shade of makeup to conform to the color of your costume, or do you just use the same kind all year round?
7. Do you brush your hair vigorously each day, regardless of a new wave set you might want to preserve?
8. Do you take care to remove unsightly hair from your legs,
