Miss Seward, Mr. Moore Say Troth In Ceremony

Vows Were Spoken At 7:00 o'clock at the Home of Bride

DURHAM — Beautiful in its charming simplicity was the late afternoon home ceremony in which Miss Kathryn Seward of this city and Louis Moore of Cary were united in marriage Thursday April 10.

The vows were spoken at 7 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents before the pastor Bishop B. Johnson in the presence of the two families and intimate friends.

Prior to the beginning of the ceremonies the tapers were lighted by the sister of the bride, Miss Minnie Seward.

The wedding music was furnished by Harold Williams, of Baltimore, Maryland.

The brides only attendant was Mrs. Mary Louise Johnson, maid of honor whose costume was gold with light green accessories. The bride chose for her nuptials a white slipper satin gown with matching accessories. Her flowers were yellow jon quils with gadiidious with light green ribbon.

After the ceremonies the bride and groom were escorted to their new apartment by the groom's parents to redress and return to a reception given at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Katie Snead.

Nearly every person, who breaks into the press, is afraid of something besides his own ignorance.

Marie Downing BEAUTY AND ROMANCE

SPONSORED BY LARIEUSE BEAUTY BUREAU

The Larieuse Beauty Bureau was established by the Godefroy Manufacturing Company to study methods of preserving woman's natural beauty, and to make the results of this research available to the public.

Faces are but the outward expression of the soul! We all know of exceptions to that rule... know of wrinkled and even scowl-appearing countenances which mask personalities brilliant in their warm sunlight of happiness they create for others.

But, the rule can, and should be remembered by all women anxious to maintain their beauty as they approach the autumn of their lives. So, let us beware of constant scowls and frowns, of grim mouths. They some day will produce lines and wrinkles which will be difficult to erase—lines and wrinkles which will rob us of our youth, whatever our age.

Most worry-lines are unnecessary. Here's my proof of that statement: The other day I tried to make a list of all the "big" worries I had a year ago. Strangely enough, the list died being born. I simply could not remember of a single major worry which had gnawed at the cheerfulness of my life a year ago. I had worries, of course. But what were they?

You can do the same. Try to make a "worry list" for 12 months ago. You will be amazed at the few items you can enter. Then, make a list of today's worries. Study them. One by one remove them from the list, as you see their solution or as you realize that they aren't worth worrying about.

The entire experiment will do this for you... it will cause you to smile at yourself. And rather than worry-lines and wrinkles, you'll develop laugh-lines—happiness lines which add to beauty! If lines already are beginning to appear around eyes or mouth, a good cream, especially made for the purpose, may help you. Obtain such a cream and massage it gently into your skin. Do this twice each day.

Poor eyesight can be causing you to frown or squint. If this is both ering you, you, of course, want to immediately see a good optometrist.

If you simply feel that you cannot smile, there is something the matter with you. You probably are weary, and weariness easily shows in one's face. Early to bed for a few nights will help. And fresh air and sunshine will add new enthusiasm to your spirits.

Spring is upon us, exemplified by the budding freshness of all growing things about us. Spring is a "new" season, when the earth awakens after its winter's sleep. We too can awaken... can gain for ourselves a new lease on our lives and present cheerful, happy faces to the world and to our families and friends. A new and different hair style may be your magic. Or perhaps your hair needs more care to restore its natural appearance. Beautiful hair... a happy face—these are two elements which can attract life and love to any woman, regardless of her age.

Remember this: Spring is here. You, too, can change and freshen and abandon the darkness of unhappiness. Be cheerful, be gay—enjoy life!

What are your beauty problems? Write: Marie Downing, Larieuse Beauty Bureau, 3509 Lindell Blvd., St. Louis, Mo., and she will be glad to answer them. Be sure to enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.
