HYDE PARK, N. Y.—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt was thanked for her long, devoted interest in the cause of Negro Americans last Thursday when Hampton Institute gave the premiere performance of a new color motion picture on its program of "Education for Life" before the First Lady and approximately 100 of her friends in the Library of the summer White House in Hyde Park.

The Hampton Institute Quartette presented a program of spirituals before the motion picture showing and Charles H. Flax, baritone soloist from Hampton, presented Mrs. Roosevelt with the first edition of "Swing Low," a new Victor album of spirituals by the quartette.

Mrs. Roosevelt, in introducing the program, praised the strides being made in all fields by Negroes and told of her experiences in flying recently with Negro pilots. She said that she hoped that there would soon be an executive discrimination order for the armed forces, similar to the President's recent proclamation against discrimination in defense industries. Robert Ogden Purves, vice-president and treasurer of the college, also spoke.

The picture, produced by Hampton in cooperation with the Harmon Foundation, was directed and photographed by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Garner, who won the 1940 award for the best educational short on 16mm. film. The picture was accompanied by a narrative by Lorenzo White, of the Hampton Institute staff.

a SALAD to pack for a PICNIC

by Dorothy Greig

A PICNIC salad, according to my notions, should be easy to make, simple to pack and, most important of all, should still boast of fine zesty flavor when eaten several hours later. Maybe that's a lot to ask of any picnic-going salad. But there's really nothing to it if you see just careful about one or two little points.

Ham-Vegetable Picnic Salad
 2 cups diced celery
 2 cups diced ham
 1 can condensed vegetable soup
 6 tablespoons salad or mayonnaise dressing
 Combine the diced celery, diced ham, vegetable soup and mayonnaise. Mix and chill thoroughly. Pack into paper cups and garnish with strips of pimiento or sliced hard-cooked eggs.

This Month's STAR RECIPE

By BETTY BARGLAY

Ridiculous bread pudding as much as you please but here is a bread pudding recipe that is entitled to "star" rating for the month. Try it once and you'll have an entirely new viewpoint on bread pudding as a dessert. Today is an excellent time to make this pudding, for the market is well supplied with those juicy Valencia summer oranges.

Sunny Bread Pudding
 3 eggs, beaten
 1 1/4 cups sugar
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1 1/2 cups orange juice
 4 cups cubes from day-old bread
 1/2 cup grated coconut
 2 tablespoons raisins
 Combine eggs, sugar, salt and orange juice. Pour over bread. Stir in raisins and coconut. Bake in buttered baking dish (350° F.) about 20 minutes, or until set. Increase heat (450° F.) to brown peaks. Serve with orange sauce. (Serves 6.)

Orange Pudding Sauce
 1 tablespoon cornstarch
 1/2 cup sugar
 1 teaspoon grated orange peel
 1 cup orange juice
 1 tablespoon lemon juice
 2 tablespoons butter
 Mix cornstarch, sugar, peel and orange juice. Boil 5 minutes. Remove from fire. Add lemon juice and butter. Serve hot. (Serves 4-6.)

Decline

The 1940 census shows that the number of farm tenants declined slightly during the 1930-40 period, a development probably associated with the decrease of sharecroppers in the South.

Same

Milk production per cow on July 1 was about the same as in 1940, whereas on June 1 it was 3 percent larger than in 1940, reports the U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

Exquisite Decorative Doilies are Crocheted

THE final, exquisite touch to any decorative scheme, and one that you can contribute yourself, is found in dainty needlework. Hand crocheted doilies are part of our American tradition, and here is a set of those which will enhance the beauty of your buffet or lend charm to an occasional table. These gossamer, web-like doilies crocheted in mercerized, crocheted cotton will look crisp and fresh after repeated tubbings—and will cost you just 20¢ to make. Doilies may also be entered in a special class in this year's Nation-Wide Crochet Contest and will be judged for national honors and cash prizes. Directions for making these doilies and details of the Contest may be obtained by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Department of this paper, specifying design No. 7254.
