

Refers Joe-Marva Suit To Master, She Gets $100 Weekly

Neither Party Present For Hearing

Chicago, (ANP) — The divorce suit of Marva Trotter Barrow against her husband, Joseph Louis Barrow, reached the courts Friday morning. Mrs. Barrow was awarded $100 weekly as temporary alimony.

Attorneys for the two principals appeared before Judge Michael Fineberg of the circuit court, explained that attempts at reconciliation and out of court agreement had failed and sought the settlement of certain details. Mrs. Barrow was represented by Atty. Binkley Cyrus and Brown who asked for solicitor's fees and temporary alimony.

Atty. William H. Temple, representing Joe Barrow, demurred to both suggestions. He explained to the court that the sums sought suggested in terms of settlement during the conferences held here out of all reason. Temple contended that the actual financial ability of Barrow was much exaggerated and that it was impossible for him to meet the demands set forth.

Judge Fineberg accepted Atty. Cyrus' offer to postpone the solicitor's fees and granted Mrs. Barrow $100 per week temporary alimony. This is in addition to the $100 per week which Marva already receives from her husband.

The judge said that the case was an important one in which the public was interested and in order that a reasonable study might be made of the merits, he was referring to a master in chancery for hearing as to the financial aspects. The hearings will probably begin next week. Neither Mr. Barrow or Mrs. Barrow were in court.

Wealthy New York Youth Ready For Draft If Put In A Negro Service Unit

New York (NNS) — Roger Starr, 23, of 270 Park Avenue, New York, thinks it's about time for the people of the USA to start practicing the democracy they preach.

He is concerned now about the discrimination against Negroes in the National Defense program and determined to do something about it.

He started by notifying his draft board, No. 20, that he is willing to be inducted into the army if he can be assigned to a Negro unit. In his letter to the board, he said:

"Faced with history's most ominous threat to world domination, America stands with one hand tied. One eleventh of our population (the Negro) is denied the right to participate fully in this country's activities, and the right to share in its responsibilities."

"As a white, the Army wants to place me in a unit with white troops. Perhaps you can help me achieve something that I prefer. I should prefer to be placed with Negro troops, for then they would become mixed troops: American troops."

Mr. Starr's reason is that he does not want to be a party to discriminatory practices. Furthermore, he feels that his example that they are not prejudiced against their fellow Americans whose skin happens to be a different color.

Mr. Starr lives in a spacious six room apartment. He has led a pretty comfortable life. But he is aware that not all Americans have been as fortunate.

"For this reason," he said, "I feel a certain necessity to integrate my life with what is going on around me."

He is a graduate of Lawrenceville School $1500 a year tuition, and Yale '39.

"Only recently," he said, "I became aware of the extent of the prejudice against Negroes in this country, and the really disgraceful manner in which they are being discriminated against in the defense program."

"I am convinced," he said, "that Negro segregation in the armed forces and the anti Negro policies of many defense manufacturers question the sincerity of our talk of democracy and threaten the efficiency and success of our entire defense effort."
