Methodists Devote $5,000 to Sending Harlem Youngsters to Summer Camps

Children learning arts and crafts, archery, Indian lore at summer camps.

Harlem Methodist ministers were called into Conference recently by Dr. Fred B. Newell, executive secretary of the Methodist New York City Society. "We have $5,000 we wish to spend for the best interests of your people," he said. "How shall we use it?" "Summer camps for our children," the pastors decided. Mr. Alvin L. Wilks was appointed Methodist Camp Service Director. Applications were received in all of Harlem's seven churches of the denomination. Full or partial scholarships were granted as needed, so that 350 faithful Sunday School youngsters are enjoying a two-weeks stay at one or another of several well-established and equipped camps. In most cases parents defrayed travel costs and the 25c fee for physical examinations.

FORMER SLAVE OPENED GATE FOR GEN. SHERMAN

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 12—When "Uncle" Sandy Hendrix, a slavery born Negro, testified as a witness at a murder trial here, he took time to tell the jury and spectators about the time he opened the old plantation gate for Gen. William T. Sherman to march through.

not germane to the trial, Presiding Judge Paul S. Etheredge permitted him to answer a few questions about himself. Walter Echois, the court reporter, took down these notes: "How long have you been living?" "It will soon be one hundred and one year. I was born July 4, 1840." "You were grown the day Sherman came through." "You might say I was pretty well grown. When Sherman came through I opened our big plantation gate for him." "Were there many folks there?" "I ain't even seen the like of white folks. They were all driving along. They were all driving along. They had old steers—they looked like—hitched to carts and wagons. They was traveling." Later Hendrix elaborated on his war experiences for the benefit of reporters. He said that what Sherman's men didn't take they burned to the ground. The stock had been hidden in the woods and Sherman's men didn't find any of the cows and horses.

Hendrix said he went to work for the old Central Railroad three years after he had been "set free." He worked for the Southern Railroad until 1916, when he retired.

DESPONDENT
I saw a young musing o'er
Some recent woes I had,
I saw at once that he was poor,
Forlorn and very sad.
He sat with head between his hands

And elbows on his knees,
He could not meet the world's demands,
Or pay existence fees.
"Young man," I said to rouse him up,
What makes you seem so sad?
Who on sorrows course fare sup?
Why are you not glad?
He slowly lifted up his head,
And showed a tearful face,
Sorrow's curse upon him read;
His was wretched case.
"Kind sir," the young man said to me,
"I'm in despair's tight bonds,
One cannot so wretched be,
One cannot so wretched be,
When all one has absconds,
I've Vowed this night to take my life,
Thus to end it all.
And free myself from mortal strife,
To dwell in Satan's hall."
"Young man," again I said to him,
"Are you a soul o' flesh?
Your future you sadly dim,
Arise and start afresh.
Your soul is worth far in advance
Of all that's earthly gain,
Let the job of life enhance
You 'til you do not feign!

HAIR WILL NOT GROW FROM A SCAR
There are no sweat glands in sores or scars. The body is given power by nature to make certain outgrowths of skin which we all know very well. Hair is produced by our scalp skin. Each Hair Grows from a special little place in the true skin. If you destroy or mutilate this true skin you may feel all right, but nothing will ever form another true skin.
