

25,000 CHEER DOCTOR BROWN

MAILING
EDITION

The Carolina Times

THE TRUTH UNBRIDLED

7c

VOL. XXIII—NO. 46

Durham, North Carolina, Saturday, November 20, 1943

BUY WAR BONDS

BODY YOUNG BUSINESS MAN FOUND IN LAKE NEAR WILSON

Noted Minister Armistice Day Speaker

Dr. Chas. Stewart, noted A.M.E. minister, was the Armistice Day speaker here last Thursday evening for the Weaver-McLean Post number 175. The celebration was held in the form of a banquet in the beautiful N. C. College dining room and shows Dr. Stewart delivering the address. Seated in the picture is Attorney M. H. Thompson, post commander.

—Photo by Hunter, Staff Photographer.

Principal Speakers Announced For National Bar Association Meeting In Baltimore, Md., November 26-27

BALTIMORE — U. S. Atty. Gen. Francis Biddle and Maryland's Governor O'Connor are listed among the principal speakers at the National Bar association scheduled to meet here November 26-27, announced Chairman William L. Fitzgerald of the Monumental City (Baltimore) Bar association.

Atty. Biddle will address the association on Friday; his speech will center mainly on some of the relations of the U. S. department of justice to the legal profession and the general community. Because of the great public interest in the governor's appearance, it is expected that his address will take place at the public meeting to be held at the Sharp St. church on Nov. 26.

Also the following well known lawyers will appear on the program: Roy S. Bond, Maryland, who will deliver the welcome address; Judge James S. Watson, of the New York Municipal court and director of the New York Munni . . . Region No. 2 of the National Bar association, who will speak at the Nov. 27 session; Judge

Francis E. Rivers of the New York City court and W. A. C. Hughes, Jr., president of the Monumental City Bar association, who will preside over the meeting.

Hughes, son, of the late Bishop W. A. C. Hughes, will occupy the platform at Sharp Street church which was many years pastored by his father.

Charles Anderson of Kentucky, Henry J. Richardson of Indiana and Chester K. Gillespie of Ohio, will represent the state legislatures of Kentucky, Indiana and Ohio. These notable guests will be introduced by Robert P. McGuinn, of the Municipal court and director of the association.

None

There's no fool like a young fool. U. S. S. Canopus Iswas.

Defined

Definition: Mosquito is an insect designed by God to make us think better of flies. —Navy Newspaper Static.

Lake Gives Up Body Of Mitchell Missing Since November 11

WILSON, (Special to The CAROLINA TIMES) — Funeral services for Walter M. Mitchell, age 29, prominent young business man of Wilson, who is alleged to have committed suicide here Thursday night, were held at the Saint John A.M.E. Zion Church, November 15, at 4 p. m.

Mr. Mitchell was a graduate of North Carolina College and at the time of his death was employed in the Real-Estate Department of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company and for the past six years was stationed at Wilson, where he built up an enviable reputation as a public spirited citizen and business man. No reason for his untimely death has as yet been determined, but it is believed he was despondent over the fact that he had been called into the service of the U. S. Army. He left his home Thursday evening, telling his wife he was going in the vicinity of Silver Lake to purchase some turkeys, when he failed to return the next day and his hat was found near the lake Saturday morning, relatives and friends became alarmed and the lake was dragged for his body which was found Saturday afternoon.

The high esteem in which Mr. Mitchell was held was evidenced by the closing of all Negro businesses during the funeral hour and the tremendous crowd which packed the spacious Saint John A. M. E. Zion Church to capacity. Testimony of his loyalty to his church was made by the pastor and several other persons who spoke of his financial support and service to his church and community. Dr. C. C. Spaulding, president of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company attended the funeral and stated that it would be hard to replace Mr. Mitchell as he had made a remarkable record with his company.

Surviving the deceased are his wife, the former Miss Myrtle Lane, his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Mitchell of Clarkton five brothers and one sister. Interment was at the cemetery in Clarkton, the birthplace of the deceased.

About Right

He left his wife $500 to buy a memorial stone after he died, and she thought a diamond would be just about right.—Florida Times-Union.

Ninety Year Old Citizen Of Bricks Passes At Lincoln

George Bullock, age 92, highly respected citizen of Bricks, North Carolina, died at Lincoln Hospital here Tuesday morning at 7:30, following an illness of several weeks. Mr. Bullock was brought here several days ago to undergo an operation, but due to his advanced age, his physicians held little hope of his ability to withstand the ordeal.

Mr. Bullock was born in Edgecombe County, but moved from there near Joseph K. Brick school over 40 years ago where he became a prosperous farmer. His wife the former Miss Martha Johnson, passed several years ago.

Surviving Mr. Bullock are three sons, Prof. Geo. Bullock, a member of the faculty of Louisville High School, Louisville, Ky., Prof. Benjamin Bullock, member of the faculty of Morehouse College and Dr. Joseph Bullock, dentist of Hartford, Conn., three daughters, Mrs. Lula Gay, Mrs. Jessie Thornton of Talladega College, Alabama and Mrs. Pearl Croom wife of Rev. A. S. Croom, of Durham and several grandchildren. Funeral services were held at Bricks, Friday November 19. Interment was at the family cemetery near the home place.

Oxford Girl Scouts Honor Anniversary Of National Body

OXFORD, — (By Mrs. M. T. G e e r) — The Oxford Girl Scouts held its regular weekly meeting Tuesday, November 2. In the celebration of National Girl Scout Week, they had as guest speaker, Dr. E. E. Toney, local physician. Dr. Toney spoke briefly on the qualifications of a good scout. He said if a scout knows how to check the flow of blood from a wound she might save a life. In the education of a scout, first aid is very important.

A BIGAMIST lives three years in the same house with his two wives, says an exchange, and many a man cannot get along peaceably for six months with one wife.

Students, Faculty, Friends Honor Dr. J. E. Shepard

It was a gala day at N. C. College on November 3 when students, faculty members and friends of Dr. James E. Shepard, president of the college celebrated his 68th birthday. The president was showered with flowers and congratulations by the students and friends both on the campus and in the city. The above photo shows a section of the banquet table around which are gathered close friends and members of the distinguished educator's family. Those seated in the picture, reading from left to right are Miss Margaret Shepard, daughter; Jas. T. Taylor, former dean of men of the college; Dr. Shepard, Mrs. Mary Shepard, mother of the president and Miss Ruth G. Rush, Dean of Women. Standing behind Mrs. Shepard is Prof. W. G. Pearson and between Dr. Shepard and Dean Taylor is Dr. C. C. Spaulding, president of N. C. Mutual Life Ins. Co.

Noted Woman Delivers Inspiring Address To American-Soviet League

NEW YORK — Dr. Charlotte Hawkins Brown was called on by the National Congress of the Councils of the American Soviet Friendship League to represent the women of America regardless of race — on the tenth Anniversary program to which this week end meeting of the National Council was dedicated. On this program were the Russian Ambassador, Secretary Harold L. Ices, Senator Claude Pepper, Orson Wells and five or six other notables with Collis Lamont, outstanding Banker and Philanthropist, Chairman.

Dr. Brown said that thirteen million American Negroes join with the people of the darker races of the world in praying and hoping in the pattern of Soviet Russia for solving their problems of racial minorities. Thunderous and long applause which shook the house, followed her declaration that she believed that fighting, conquering Russia has been able to withstand the onslaught of Nazism and emerge victoriously because of the unity of the people of all races within her borders; that Russian mothers challenge American women to train their children to value human personality regardless of color, race or creed.

The Negro race felt the impulse turn to Page Five

Remarkable Record Editor Austin Guest Speaker For Rocky Mount Forum

With only a small membership, the Rev. O. A. Hazel, pastor Congregational-Christian church, located on Beamon avenue of Durham is making a remarkable record. In a little more than a year the church has been cleared of all indebtedness and a new lot has been purchased and paid for in another section of the city on which a new edifice will be erected as soon as conditions in the country will permit.

ROCKY MOUNT, (Special to the CAROLINA TIMES) — L. E. Austin, Editor of The CAROLINA TIMES and President of the North Carolina Interdenominational Ushers Association will deliver an address to the Rocky Mount Civic Forum, Sunday November 28 at three o'clock.

The Rocky Mount Civic Forum is a public spirited organization that has done much to foster better jobs, educational facilities and many other worthwhile projects for Negroes of the city of Rocky Mount. On its membership roster are all of the leading Negro citizens of the city.

Editor Austin is well known to the people of the Eastern Railroad city, and was one of the first persons invited to address the forum when it was first organized several years ago under the leadership of Rev. Wendell C. Somerville, who was then pastor of Mount Zion Baptist church of the city.

Private Alton Levy Freed Transferred To Southern Camp

NEW YORK — (Special to the TIMES) — Private Alton Levy, former organizer for the International Ladies Garment Workers Union, A.F. of L. court martialized for opposing Army Jim Crow, was freed November 12th, at 10 A. M. after serving less than three months of his four month sentence at hard labor, the Workers Defense League announced. He is now on his way to a Southern Army camp.

The fight to restore Private Levy to his original rank of staff sergeant will be continued as part of a campaign against Army Jim Crow, according to statements issued by Samuel Wolehok, President, United Retail, Wholesale and Department Store Employees, CIO, and by Morris Milgram, secretary, and Nathaniel M. Minkoff, discrimination committee chairman, of the Workers Defense League, which led the campaign to free Levy.

The release was hailed by Mr. Milgram and Mr. Minkoff in behalf of the Workers Defense League as "a great victory for American democracy. This shows the power of the thousands of letters that deluged the White House, power of the liberal, labor, Negro and religious press which championed his cause, the power of truth and justice.

The War Department declared that Levy's sentence has been shortened for good behavior. Previously, Brigadier General Early E. W. Duncan of the Lincoln Army Air Base had told the press that Levy certainly would have to serve his term to its end, Dec. 16th.

Rev. M. M. Fisher Morning Devotion Radio Speaker

The Morning Devotions of Durham were conducted Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, November 15-19 from 8 A. M. to 8:15 over Station WDNB by Doctor Miles Mark Fisher, pastor of the White Rock Baptist church. The representative of the Ministerial Alliance for December will be the Rev. S. P. Perry, pastor of St. Mark A.M.E. Zion Church, with Dr. J. H. Thomas, pastor of Mt. Vernon Baptist Church, alternate.

According to an economist, money is the people's servant. Here today and gone tomorrow.—The Humorist, of London.