

Evans-Morrison Nuptial Vows Spoken In Home Ceremonies

On Tuesday night, December 25 at 7:30 o'clock, Miss Kathryn Evans, daughter of Regie and the late Mrs. Iar Evans and Nelson Malone Morrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Malone Morrison of New Hill, were united in marriage in a formal candlelight service at the home of the bride, 1101 Pine Street. The ceremony was officiated by Rev. James Stewart, before an improvised altar arrangement of palms, floor baskets of white chrysanthemums, white gladioli and three seven branched candelabra with burning white tapers.

The covenant vows were sealed with a double ring ceremony and prayers were said before a white satin bride.

Prior to the ceremony a program of wedding music was rendered by Miss Mary Stephens and Mrs. Ruth Reid sang "because" and as a benediction, the "Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white bridal slipper satin, terminating in a long cathedral length train. The design of the neckline was the sweetheart with tiny self covered buttons down the front to the pointed fitted bodice. The sleeves fell to calla points over the wrists. Her finger tip veil of imported tulle edged with chantilly lace was arranged from a halo of tiny seed pearls and studded with glittering sets. She carried a white prayer book covered with a purple orchid. The brides only ornament was a string of pearls, gift of the groom.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Ernestine Davis Boyd as matron of honor. She wore a gown of baby blue net over taffeta, followed by the same design of the bride with a sweetheart neckline with a stole. Her only ornament was a string of pearls given by the bride. She carried a bouquet of mixed flowers. Charlie Morrison of Apex was best man for his brother. Miss Gertrude Cobb lighted the candle tapers and received the guests.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held. The table was covered with an imported lace cloth and centered with a three tiered wedding cake, with a miniature bride and groom and wedding bells on top. The cake was encircled with maiden hair fern. Silver candelabras held tall white burning tapers.

Miss Alice Haywood presided over the punch and cake. Misses Margaret Noel and Marjorie Norris presided in the gift room. Other hostesses were Mrs. Parrie Lee Bailey and Mrs. Alma Harris.

After the reception, the couple left for a honeymoon in Washington, D. C. The bride wore a three piece of blue wool bolero suit, dark blue coat and dark blue accessories. She lifted the orchid from her prayer book for her going away corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Hillside High School and attended A and T College in Greensboro and North Carolina College at Durham. The groom attended the Wake County Schools and is at present employed with his father.

Out of town guests were: Rev. and Mrs. Connor, Concord; Mr. and Mrs. James Moore, Creedmoor; Mrs. Rice, Chicago, Ill.; Rev. Colonel Stewart, New York; Charlie Morrison and family; Mrs. Lethia Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Buddie Morrison, Miss Ruth Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Burnett Morrison, Mrs. Florence Morrison, Hoover Powell, Mrs. Sara Morrison of New Hill.

Courtesies shown the bride before the wedding was a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Ernestine Boyd, 704 Linwood Avenue.

Altamai Johnson Becomes Bride Of Lt. Cannon In Church Rites

HARTSVILLE, S. C. — a beautiful twilight wedding of much interest throughout the state was solemnized on Saturday, December 29, at Centenary Methodist Church in Hartsville, South Carolina when Miss Altamai O. Johnson became the bride of Lieutenant Jack Vernard Cannon of Savannah, Georgia and Fort Jackson, South Carolina.

The impressive Double Ring Ceremony was performed by the Rev. B. F. Bradford, former pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. J. F. Pearson, present pastor-in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends.

For the occasion, the church was beautifully decorated with handsome wrought iron candelabra, bearing tall white gladioli and fern.

The family pews were marked with white horseshoes, tied with white satin bows.

A program of wedding music was rendered by Mesdames Musa West of Fayetteville, North Carolina and Lenora D. Gallman prior to the ceremony.

The tenor soloist, Eugene Pinson sang "Through the Years" and the soprano soloist, Miss Melva Johnson sang "Because" and "Ava Maria" (Shubert's). At the close of the ceremony, Mr. Pinson sang Malotte's "The Lords' Prayer".

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her cousin, Miss Minnie M. Staten of Wilmington, North Carolina. Miss Staten wore a deep green nylon net over green taffeta, fashioned with a full ankle length skirt and stole. She carried a bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums tied with matching satin ribbon and gold slippers.

Miss Bertie Ervin of Brooklyn, New York, was the only bridesmaid. She wore pale green nylon net over green taffeta, ankle length skirt and matching stole. She also carried a bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums tied with matching satin ribbon and gold slippers.

Little Marguerite Bradford, the flower girl, wore a beautiful green nylon net fashioned similar to that of the maids.

The ring bearer, Little Burnett Gallman, Jr. wore a white suit, and carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Leroy W. Poole, of Washington, D. C. was lovely in her wedding gown of exquisite nylon trimmed with chantilly lace panels in the buff skirt extending into a lengthy train.

The fitted bodice with a rhinestone studded berth, fastened with tiny self covered buttons down the back; with long sleeves tapering to points over the hands. Her finger-tip veil of bridal illusion was trimmed with a border of matching chantilly lace and was attached to a taura of rhinestones. She carried a white satin prayerbook tapped with a purple throated orchid with a shower bouquet of tiny white carnations and satin ribbon streamers.

The groom had as his best man, Lieutenant Thomas P. Carr of Fort Jackson, South Carolina. The ushers were Lt. Ernest Bradford, Lt. Lloyd Brown of Fort Jackson, Messers James O. Jackson, Raymond Henderson, Charles W. Manning and Belton James, all of Hartsville.

Mrs. A. L. Johnson, mother of the bride, wore a gray chantilly lace over dusty rose satin with long, silver mittens and an orchid corsage.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Annie L. Johnson and the late Dr. G. Webb Johnson of Hartsville. She is a graduate of Butler High School and North Carolina College at Durham, N. C. She received her master's degree from Indiana University. For three years, she was employed in the Columbia City School System. She is a member of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

Lt. Cannon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Clayton Cannon of Savannah, Ga. He is a graduate of South Carolina State College.

Gate City Senior Ushers In Meeting

GREENSBORO.— The Senior Usher Board of Bethel A. M. E. Church met at the home of Mrs. Ovella Anthony, 473 Cole Street. The devotion was led by Mrs. Beatrice Reid, after which a short meeting was held to complete the unfinished business. The vice president, Fred Wilson, thanked the ushers for their splendid cooperation during the past year.

The meeting was then turned over to the pastor, Rev. G. W. Larkin for the election of officers. The following officers were elected: Fred Wilson, president, Mrs. Beatrice Reid, vice president, Mrs. Margaret Pennix, secretary; Miss Rose Jackson, assistant secretary, Wm. Kessler, treasurer and Mrs. Adel Barkley, chaplain.

The new president was presented and he asked that all ushers attend the next meeting at Mrs. Pennix, 2137 E. Market Street on January 18.

Members present were: Mrs. Willie M. Verble, Miss Marion Berble, Mrs. Florence Kessler, Mrs. Geneva Hamilton, Glenn Capps, James Gobson, Miss Christine Hooks, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Nance, Mrs. Willie Withers, Mrs. Ida Bell Wilkins, Miss Geraldine Glenn and C. R. Craig.

The roll was called with exchange of gifts and the group was served a delicious repast.

WEEKLY GIRL SCOUT GLANCES

Dr. James T. Cleland, Professor of Homiletics, Duke University, was speaker at the annual meeting of Durham County's Girl Scout Council, held at Camp Williamson, site of a new Girl Scout Cabin.

Dr. Cleland mentioned that perhaps Durhamites interested in the continued growth of the Julia Warren Girl Scouts could help establish a similar Camp.

Previous years Julia Warren Girl Scouts have held sessions at Camp Whispering Pines and a Day Camp on the lawn of Pearson School; however, with the rapid growth of the Julia Warren Girl Scouts and Brownies, additional facilities and space are needed.

Julia Warren representatives present were: Miss A. L. Cobb, Mrs. N. P. Grigsby, Mrs. E. L.

Dunlap, Mrs. Lula Booker, Mrs. M. A. Goins and Mrs. C. R. Stanback.

A mid-winter training session for new leaders and old leaders who have not completed their sixteen hour Basic Leadership Training Course was begun at the Girl Scout Office on Mangum Street, Wednesday, January 16th at 7:00. Other dates are to be announced.

Investiture services will be held this month for Troop No. 27, Pearson School, Mrs. E. D. Boyd, Leader, and Troop No. 21, Stanford Warren Library, Mrs. Lula Booker, Leader. It is hoped that Rev. E. T. Brown of Mt. Vernon Baptist Church will show a movie depicting life in Africa as a result of his travels with the Lott Carey Missionary Society.
