

N. C. College Dance Group In Performance At Frink High School; Coed Gets Gold Key

LAGRANGE
The North Carolina College Creative Dance Group under the directions of Miss Alaveta Hutson, sponsored by the Commercial Club at Frink High School, gave a unique performance before an appreciative audience, Friday night, March 20, in the High School Auditorium. Miss Hutson, directress of the group, appeared on the program. The audience was especially pleased with the performance of "Spirited" danced by Miss Hutson, and "Hear the Wind" danced by Miss Peggy Morgan.

Members of the Dance Group were: Ira Lassiter, Fred Wilkins, Lois Howard, Peggy Morgan, Sarah Jones, Cloteah Coleman, Delorise Copeland and James James Thompson, accompanist. During intermission, Miss Dorothy Cogdell, member of Frink High Faculty, sang "Because," accompanied by James Thompson. Emily Jean Moye, Frink High Senior, sang "Summertime" and "The Rosary," accompanied by Dennis Coefield, Jr., 7th grade student of Adkin High School, Kinston and Mr. Thompson.

A candle-light pageant is being planned by students of Frink High School in observance of The Parents Teachers Association Founders Day Program, April 14 in the high school auditorium. This pageant is under the direction of Mrs. O. W. Frink, Miss Lydia Malloy and Mrs. M. Lindsay Witten.

Person County High School News

ROXBORO
The Person County High School Glee Club traveled to Yanceyville, on Wednesday, April 1, to participate in the Burlington District Music Contest. The group received an honor rating of two which was very good.

Bessie Smith entered the soprano solo division and with her rendition of Greg's, "I Love Thee," received an honor rating of one, which was classed as excellent.

Hall Johnson's arrangement of "Honor, Honor," was sung by baritone soloist William Brown who received an honor rating of two, which was the highest rating given in that division.

Dr. James L. Dillard of Winston-Salem Teachers College was judge for the contest.

"WORLD PEACE" GOLD KEY
The Forensic Club of Person County High School held the finals of their speaking contest in the high school auditorium, on Friday, April 3, with Fred Whitted, president of the club, presiding. The subject was "Building World Peace: What Have Been The Achievements And What Are The Prospects of The United Nations?"

The six persons who reached the finals were Barbara Harris, Elaine Noel, Annie L. Peirce, Ruth Royster, Lola Womack, and Janice Brooks. The scores of the judges designated Ruth Royster as winner, Janice Brooks as second place, and Barbara Harris as third place.

At the conclusion of the contest S. N. Knight, acting for the principal, awarded the "World Peace" Gold Key to Ruth Royster, who will represent Person County High School in the district contest scheduled at Shaw University, in Raleigh, on April 9.

Hampton Lists Three-Point Summer Session

HAMPTON, VA.
The Hampton Institute nine-week summer session will feature a three-point program for teachers, for dramatic directors, and high school graduates, announced Dr. Hugh Gloster, Director of the Summer Session. The session will open on June 22 and end on August 20, he said.

The nine-week summer program will provide opportunities for teachers-in-service to complete requirements for graduation, courses needed to qualify for elementary-school and secondary-school teaching certificates by holders of Bachelor's degrees, and subjects needed for renewal of certificates of active teachers.

A Summer Theater Workshop will offer training in directing, acting, and play production for dramatic directors. The nine-week workshop will begin on June 22 and close at the end of

W. J. Kennedy, Jr. Speaks To A. & T. Students During Vocational Opportunity Week

GREENSBORO
"Vision, faith and courage" were described as important prerequisites for success in any field of endeavor by W. J. Kennedy, president of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company of Durham, who on last Tuesday, keynoted the 4-day Vocational Opportunity Campaign observed at A. and T. College last week.

"If we are to have vision to see, we must have a working knowledge of history of the past," said the speaker. "The summer session. A special six-week session for high-school graduates will help them with the basic subjects required in all colleges, Dr. Gloster pointed out. The program will provide for orientation in college life and will give the high school graduate a head start toward a degree. Dates for the new program are June 22 through July 31.

history of the 100 odd Negro corporations in the insurance, banking and building and loan associations fields with combined assets in excess of 227 millions of dollars shows that this is small when projected against the national picture but proves that we do have the capacity to organize, develop and manage corporate enterprises." The speaker described faith as the assurance of things hoped for, the proving of things not seen and courage as a quality of mind which enables one to meet danger and difficulty with firmness.

Kennedy paid high tribute to Dr. F. D. Bluford, president of A. and T. College when he said, "The citizens of North Carolina will never be able to repay Dr. Bluford for the services he has rendered the state here at A. and T. The wide offerings of this institution, the fine and efficient training plant and the men and women of leadership which have been produced, all under his able administration, will go down in history as a monument to this outstanding personality."

The program for the afternoon session on Tuesday included an informal discussion on Kennedy's presentation with particular reference to job opportunities in the business corporation field. The discussion was led by Dr. L. H. Robinson, professor of sociology at the college.

On Tuesday afternoon a panel discussion was conducted on "Student Preparation for Present and Expanding Opportunities in the field of Agriculture." Lewis Barbee, of the college staff, presided at the roundtable which also featured; B. A. Hall, farm agent, Guilford County; W. T. Johnson, assistant state supervisor of Vocational Agriculture; A. W. Solomon, field representative, N. C. Farm Bureau and R. E. Jones, state agent, all of Greensboro.

NOTHING-NO, NOTHING-BEATS BETTER TASTE!

"LUCKIES
TASTE BETTER

Cleaner, Fresher. says
ROY CAMPANELLA
Famous Brooklyn Dodger Catcher

You can even see why Luckies taste better—cleaner, fresher, smoother

"I've smoked all the major brands," says Roy Campanella, "and no doubt about it, Luckies taste better."

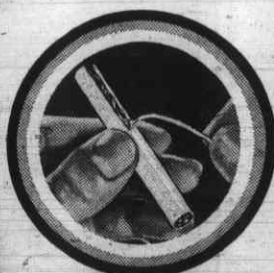

Right, Roy, Luckies give smokers the thing they want most in a cigarette—better taste! You can see why when you strip the paper from a Lucky by tearing down the seam.

First, you see that your Lucky is made better, because it remains a perfect cylinder of fine tobacco—round, firm and fully packed.

Second, you see Luckies' famous fine tobacco itself—long strands of fine, light, truly mild tobacco with a rich aroma and an even better taste. Yes, L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco.

Nothing—no, nothing—beats better taste, and Luckies taste better—cleaner, fresher, smoother. So...

Be Happy—GO LUCKY!
