GARDEN CLUB TOUR

The Azalea Garden Club held its annual Spring Tour, April 18. The group met at the home of Mrs. Banette Peele on Dunbar Street and upon viewing her garden went on to tour many other lovely gardens.

On entering Mrs. Effie Cotton's Garden, the group was served with drinks and sandwiches. Climaxing the tour was a visit to the estate of Mr. John Sprunt Hill.

On Saturday, April 25, the Azalea Garden Club gave a Garden Bazaar, featuring the auctioning of numerous plants and flowers. It was a real opportunity for those attending to get much desired additions for their respective gardens. Delicious homemade cake and fancy tidbits were also available.

Gates prizes were awarded those holding lucky numbers. The next regular meeting will be held with Mrs. Travis Free.

COSMETOLOGY CLUB

The Cosmetology Club, Chapter One held its monthly meeting on April 20, with Miss Sarah Dotson, at the Vanity Fair Beauty Salon, on Fayetteville Street. Mrs. Pauline Love, Vice-President, presided over the business session, at which time plans were made to attend the North Carolina Beauticians' Association in Charlotte, April 26-29. Officers were elected for the year.

Miss Lois Burroughs were reported much improved. Rev. R. D. Rogers was reported very ill at home, 700 Milton Avenue.

Miss Moore was present to represent the Institute to be held in June.

The hostess served a delicious repast to the following members: Mesdames P. F. Love, M. Jeffries, E. Pugh, B. Fowler, L. Coleman, E. Burnett, L. Johnson, B. Moss, M. Bluunt, G. Washington, C. McCloud, F. Harris, E. Brown, C. Horton, P. Hart, M. Minor, M. McMillan, N. J. Curry, L. Well and Sadie Pitts.

NEW ARRIVAL

Linda Linda Merle Cooke is the latest addition to the D. B. Cooke household.

MRS. BENNETT IS HOSTESS

The Year-Round Garden Club met Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Bennett on Masondale Avenue. The Garden Gate was opened by Mrs. Bennett. Business deliberations were presided over by the president, Mrs. Pearl Cordice. Leroy Frazier gave a report on the trip by Year-Round Gardeners and members from other Garden Clubs in the city to Wilmington to attend the Azalea Festival and tour the Orton Plantation and Greenfield Park. Plans were perfected for the tour of Club members' gardens on April 25 and May 2. Mrs. Felice Holmes was guest. Several gardeners who had been absent for one reason or another for sometime were welcomed back.

Mrs. Bennett, assisted by her little daughter, Noma Alice, served ice cream, cake, mints and nuts to the following: Mrs. Felice Holmes, Mrs. Pearl Cordice, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Frazier, Miss Edna Mason, Mrs. Ada Leach, Mrs. Mary Henderson, Katie Love, Rosa Suitt, Mary Kennedy, Marie Spiegner, Berta Davis, Mary Green, Ann Webb, Ethel Perry, Roxie Rowland, Josie Rich, Hattie Meadows, Gertude Long, Grizzle, Bailey, Allie Dick, Carrie Burah, Flossie Torraine, and Plassie Harris.

MRS. ETHEL PERRY ENTERTAINS "UTOPIA" MEMBERS

Mrs. Ethel Perry proved a delightful hostess Friday evening when she entertained the Utopia Club in her home on Linwood Avenue. Beautiful assorted flowers from the Perry Garden were arranged throughout the home. Mrs. Sallie Harris led the devotions which were inspiring and uplifting. Business was presided over by the president, Mrs. Mabel Mabry. Guest speaker for the evening was Mrs. Alice Farrison and in her charming way brought a most interesting and helpful talk on "Home Beautification." The club members and guests enjoyed Mrs. Farrison. Guests of the evening were: Mesdames Lola Solice, Stella Alston and Thelma Hill.

Mrs. Perry invited guests and members into the dining room where they were served buffet style. Utopia members present were Mesdames Mable Mabry, Elnora Smith, Hattie Meadows, Marion Alston, Rosa Farrington, Rada Prince, Freeland Price, Sallie Harris, Wilma Milum, Lena Richardson, Nellie Williams, Matilda Townsend, Ann Webb, Bessie Pratt, Laura Burnett, Minnie Forte, P. Grace Williams, Dora

OUT-OF-TOWNERS VISIT LOCAL GARDENS

The Spring Hope Garden Club spent Sunday afternoon in the city, coming especially to visit the garden of Mrs. Hattie Meadows. The group was indeed delighted with the beauty of the Meadows' garden. Mrs. Meadows carried the visitors to the gardens of her neighbors, Mesdames Grizzle Bailey, Wilma Milum, and Ethel Perry. These gardens were greatly admired by the group.

Miss Melvyn V. Weeks is the advisor to the Spring Hope Garden Club. Others making the trip and enjoying the gardens were Mesdames Ora Evans, Dorcas Williams, Lency Wiggs, Betty Gay, Thelma Ohree, Sudie Dickens, Addie Perry, Wynonia Wiggins, and Irene Harris.

MRS. PLASSIE HARRIS ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. Plassie Harris was hostess to the Merry Wives Bridge Club and guest players at her home on Formosa Avenue, Saturday evening. Before play a delectable repast was enjoyed. Guest players were Mesdames Louise Elder, Elizabeth Pratt, and Isadore Michaux.

Merry Wives playing were Mesdames Fannie Roberson, Josephine Clement, Olivia Cole, Thelma Perry, Selena Wheeler, Sadie Hughley, Alice Farrison, Ethel Berry, and Francis Schooler.

Guest prize was won by Mrs. Elder. Club prizes went to Mesdames Clement and Schooler.

NEW YORKER ON TOUR

Dr. Lou La Brant, professor of English at New York University, was guest speaker at Hillside High Assembly Friday. After the lectures Mesdames Selena Wheeler and Margaret Shearin carried Dr. Lou La Brant on a sightseeing trip to North Carolina College, Duke University, and other places of interest in the city and then over to the University of North Carolina.

SURPRISE PARTY

Mrs. Badie White and children entertained their husband and father Reverend J. Lee White at a surprise Birthday Party on April 19. It was indeed a high day for Rev. White. Special services were held honoring him at the Covenant Presbyterian church. At home for the gala affair were his daughter, Mrs. Melba White Martin and children, James, Jr. and Michael, his son, Harold and family of New York, Martin White, his brother of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Shady White, brother from Winston-Salem, sister-in-law, Mrs. Mattie High, of New York.

Home folk helping in the celebration were: Mrs. Sarah White Fogg, and children Wilmer White, Jr. and Paulette Fogg, Mrs. Penny Mitchell, Miss Ozebel Mitchell, Mrs. Fazovo Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Spaulding, Mrs. Thelma Spaulding, Prof. and Mrs. Lloyd Spaulding, Mrs. Jane Spaulding, and Mrs. Maggie Lennon.

CALIFORNIAN IS GUEST HERE

Miss Josephine Stewart of Berkeley, California, was the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonso Stewart the past month. She was extended many courtesies by friends in Durham. She was entertained by Mrs. Dora Green, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Alston. The Stewarts honored her at a card party. Miss Stewart was also guest of Mrs. Bruton and Mrs. Julia Farrington at the meeting of the Needlecraft Club.

ATTEND MUSIC FESTIVAL

Miss Mildred Jones and Mrs. O. M. Phifers directors of the Central High School Choral Club motored with the group to Fayetteville, N. C. on April 23 to participate in the State Music Festival along with other top ranking Choral groups from over the state of North Carolina.

The Central Choral Group won the honor by receiving A-1 ratings at the District Festival held at Rocky Point recently.

Upon their return they will continue to prepare for their annual recital which is to be held in the very near future.

Sylvester Mack is accompanist.

MOTHER GOOSE RIDES

Miss Louvena Brown's first grade presented the Modern version of "The Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe" in chapel recently.

The very colorful and entertaining program displayed a variety of talents among the First Graders.

This character of the old woman was played by Miss Brown with the entire class in the cast.

The Baptist Training Union of the First Baptist Church of Oxford sponsored a speaking contest recently on the general subject of the value of a movie projector in church work in connection with the BTU's project of purchasing a movie projector. The above four members of the BTU were winners in the speaking contest. Left to right they are Alice Marion Parker, Arnell Skipwith, whose speech, "The Work of the Projector in The Church," won first place; Dorothea Hamme and Hazel Purcelle. The First Baptist Church of Oxford is pastored by Reverend C. A. Atkins.

sponsibility in sponsoring constructive programs to elevate the masses declared W. J. Kennedy, Jr., of Durham, president of the N. C. Mutual Life Insurance in the keynote address launching the "Bigger and Better Business Week" observance sponsored by the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity at the Manly St., Christian Church, Sunday night. "We cannot accomplish this by isolating ourselves as soon as we have achieved a higher personal standard for ourselves. We must assist in elevating other individuals and families to similarly high standards," he continued.

Don't spend more than you can afford. This is the advice we give to all those we serve, and we really mean it. Like you, we think the moment of parting should be tender, spiritual and beautiful, but such an atmosphere need not be lavish. In our home the prices are plainly marked, "Total cost depends on the merchandise selected," and each family makes it's own decision.
