NAACP Embarks On Plan To Complete Emancipation

A 10-year program designed to complete the task of emancipation on the one hundredth anniversary of Lincoln's Proclamation in 1863 was unanimously adopted by the 900 delegates attending the 44th annual convention of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People which closed here Sunday.

The plan was advanced by Dr. Charles H. Tobias, chairman of the Association's board of managers, and approved by the executive committee which opened the gay conference last week. In his closing address the NAACP leader called for the undertaking of "Freedom's Fight For Freedom" to implement the NAACP's 10-year plan. "We need

Over 1500 N.C. Farmers Expected At 4-Day Conference In Gate City

GATE CITY

The 31st annual State Conference of Negro Farmers and Homeowners to be held here at A. and C. Colleges for two weeks beginning July 30, will rank among the finest in the history of the Conference.

The "turn-around this year" said R. D. Jones, state agent of the A. and C. College Extension Service, "will certainly be all previous attendance records, judging by the heavy response received during the past four days."

Some of the nation's top ex-

James Miner, Morgan County, who will be keynote speaker at the opening session of the Conference, announced that the Conference would be held at the A. and C. College campus. The Conference is expected to draw a total of over 1500 delegates from all parts of the state.

One of the main features of the Conference will be the "Fighting Fund For Freedom," which has been organized to raise funds for the NAACP's 10-year plan.

The Conference will be held from July 30 to August 2 and will include a number of special events, including a parade, a rally, and a series of speakers' forums.

The keynote address will be given by Dr. James Miner, Morgan County, who will discuss the NAACP's 10-year plan and its importance in the struggle for freedom.

The "turn-around this year" said R. D. Jones, state agent of the A. and C. College Extension Service, "will certainly be all previous attendance records, judging by the heavy response received during the past four days."

One of the main features of the Conference will be the "Fighting Fund For Freedom," which has been organized to raise funds for the NAACP's 10-year plan.

The Conference will be held from July 30 to August 2 and will include a number of special events, including a parade, a rally, and a series of speakers' forums.

The keynote address will be given by Dr. James Miner, Morgan County, who will discuss the NAACP's 10-year plan and its importance in the struggle for freedom.