

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Harris Hayes

Miss Barbara Spaulding And Mr. Roland Harris Hayes United In Garden Rites August 19th

DURHAM Miss Barbara Spaulding, charming and talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Fuller Spaulding of Durham, became the bride of Roland Harris Hayes, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hayes of Winston-Salem, in a beautiful double-ring ceremony performed in the garden of the home of the bride's parents, at six o'clock, Wednesday, August 19.

On the terraced lawn, an improvised altar with trellised back-ground decorated with green huckleberry fern, arrangements of white pedestal baskets filled with white gladioli and white plumosa ferns interspersed with palms and white tapers in branched candelabra, centered by the white satin prieu, blended in exquisite taste with the landscape and the house to form a setting for the ceremony.

Preceding the ceremony nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. Minnie Gilmer, organist, and Mrs. Margaret K. Goodwin, who sang, "I Love Thee" and "Because."

Dr. Miles Mark Fisher, pastor of the bride, performed the ceremony. He was assisted by the bride's uncle, Asa T. Spaulding, who offered reverent petitions to God for guidance and happiness for the young people.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz length, embroidered, imported white organy with fitted bodice, low neckline, outlined with embroidered scallops of the same material and long sleeves with cala points over the wrists. The full skirt with scalloped hemline was accented by the taffeta with scalloped edge. She length veil of illusion fell from a cloche applique with white embroidered organy on white taffeta with scalloped edge. She carried a colonial nosegay of white rosebuds and stephanotis centered with a white lip orchid.

Mrs. Gloria Edwards of Durham, sister of the bride, attended as matron of honor. Mrs. Velma Friende of Winston-Salem, the groom's sister, attended as bridesmaid. Their gowns, also of imported embroidered organy, were of mint green and canary yellow fashioned like that of the bride, but with cap sleeves. Each wore a cloche of matching embroidered organy. They used matching accessories and carried a nosegay of yellow roses and stephanotis with ribbons matching each dress. The flower girls, Willa and Barbara Edwards, nieces of the bride wore off-the-shoulder dresses of white embroidered organy and carried baskets of mixed flowers and pink rose petals. Roy Phillips of Winston-Salem was best man, and Reginald Spaulding brother of the bride served as usher.

Mrs. Spaulding, mother of the bride, wore a street length gown of pale pink shantung taffeta with matching accessories. The low round neckline of the dress was trimmed with rhinestones and pearls. She wore an orchid corsage. The groom's mother, Mrs. Juanita Hayes, wore a light blue lace street length gown with dark blue accessories and an orchid corsage.

A reception on the side terrace of the garden followed the ceremony. The bride's table on the center of the terrace, covered by a white madras cloth, decorated with green fern and baby's breath, centered with a four tier wedding cake, with an arrangement of mixed white flowers and white tapers in branched candelabra, was flanked with green fern and white grapes and centered by a crystal punch bowl. The bride's aunts, Mrs. E. L. Hughes of New York City and Mrs. Lula S. Jackson of Durham presided at the punch bowls. Mrs. Elva Spaulding, Mrs. Ruth S. Boyd, Mrs. Ethel Tapp, Misses Geraldine Crane, Andrea Burnett and Dolores Williams, served as hostesses. Miss Bobbie Berry and Miss June Gilliard presided in the gift room.

Mrs. Hayes is a home economics major at North Carolina College. She fashioned and made her own wedding gown and traveling suit, her attendants' gowns and her mother's gown used for the wedding. Mr. Hayes, an honor graduate of Winston-Salem Teachers College is employed as teller in the Wachovia Bank and Trust Company of Winston-Salem, North Carolina. He is also a member of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity.

Out-of-town guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hayes, Mrs. Velma Friende, Mrs. Laura Harris, grandmother of the groom, Mrs. Willie S. Brown, Mrs. Lottie Gwynn, J. Madison Vestal, Jr., Norman King, William Hinson, Bowman Ray Williams, and G. Elroy Phillips, Jr. all of Winston-Salem; Mr. and Mrs. John Spaulding of Greensboro, and Miss Octavia Parks of Greensboro; Mrs. Cecil Spaulding, Miss Doris Spaulding and Miss Elizabeth Spaulding of Clarkston; Mrs. Minnie Anderson, grandmother, Mrs. Roy Tyler, Misses Juanita, Minnie, and Brenda Anderson, Mrs. Sallie Forman, Roger Anderson and A. J. Anderson of Oxford, North Carolina; Mrs. E. L. Hughes, aunt, Mrs. Bessie Johnson, great-aunt of New York City; Miss Josephine Tyler of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Amos and Mrs. Heru of Boston, Mass.

The couple left for a wedding trip to Mark-Haven Beach in Tappahannock, Va. For traveling, the bride wore a two piece powder blue suit with black velvet accessories.

Dear Friend:

As you know, we have had many years experience with burial and funeral plans. Everyone realizes that the Burial Association is not enough to properly cover funeral expenses. So since we have had so many requests from our people, we are proud to announce that there has been perfected a funeral expense plan that is believed to be the best and lowest in cost ever offered by anyone anywhere.

All benefits are paid in cash to the beneficiary you name. Small premium payments can be made quarterly or annually. The usual amount of insurance is $500 for each member of the family but can be for a larger amount in certain cases. There is also a $250 plan.

Recently legislation was passed which permits us to write $200 in the Burial Association or add $100 an old burial certificate. This can only be done at your request, and the $100 is still good if you do want to add to it.

All we ask is an opportunity to send rates and full information. Just call the above numbers. Sincerely yours, W. A. AMEY

Miss Barnetta Juliet McGhee And Lieut. Richard Vernon White United In Military Rites August 20

Midst a setting of woodwardia fern, blue cathedral tapers, and baskets filled with white asters, gladioli and pompons, pretty Barnetta Juliet McGhee and Lieutenant Richard Vernon White pledged their vows at Antioch Baptist Church of Oxford on Thursday, August 20 at 5 p. m. The Rev. G. E. Cheek of Raleigh performed the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white waltz length gown of imported French lace and tulle over satin. The full skirt of lace with inserted panels of tulle was attached to a strapless bodice with long-sleeved matching bolero and caught at the neck with sequins and pearls. Her two-tiered veil of illusion was attached to a seeded pearl tiara and she carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

The bride's attendants were her sisters, Mesdames Marion Lane and Ellan Brooks. These wore identical ballerina length dresses of Capri blue nylon net over taffeta. The strapless gowns with shove-sleeved matching bileros had blue satin cummerbunds. Matching tulle bandeaus, mitts, and satin pumps complemented the gowns. The brides carried bouquets of yellow majestic daisies tied with yellow satin and nylon.

Ushers were Lieutenants Clyette, Williams, Griffin, and White who wore khaki in contrast to the dress white army suits of the groom and his best man, Lt. Benjamin Primm. At the close of the ceremony, these formed an arch of sabers for the bridal couple first inside, then outside the church.

Prior to the ceremony music was rendered by Mrs. Delphine
