Mrs. Leila Bradby, Aiken, also the first Vice-President ever to serve the Association presided over the Assembly and heard reports from Committees which included The Credential, Research, Policy, Finance, Building, Executive, Membership, Teacher Education and Professional Standards, and many others.

W. E. Solomon, Columbia, Executive Secretary, at the close of sessions made his report and announced the time and place for the district meetings which will begin the second Saturday in December.

The annual sessions of the Palmetto Education will be held in Columbia March 25-25.
