

NCC Eagles Whip Jackets 40 To 13 To Bid For Honors In C.I.A.A

North Carolina College's Eagles continued their upward flight toward the CIAA's 1954 championship here today by defeating West Virginia State College 40-13 before some 3,500 fans at O'Kelly Field.

It was NCC's fifth conference win against one tie with Maryland State and West Virginia's sixth loop loss.

The game was the season's last for the Yellowjackets. NCC winds up regular season play here on Thanksgiving Day with A. and T.'s Aggies.

After NCC quarterback Al Montgomery's first period TD on a 12 yard jaunt around left end, the Yellowjackets roared back to a two yard TD push that tied the score. Bob Cashwell kicked the extra point to give the Yellowjackets a brief 7-6 lead.

Albert Lewis, West Va., freshman halfback from Tuscaloosa, Ala., scored the Jackets' second TD on a 100 yard return of Deral Webster's fourth quarter kickoff.

Six Eagle backs running behind a hard charging line highlighted by the versatile and aggressive play of Matthew Boone, Hampton, Va., junior tackle, and Henry Lewis, Williamsburg, Va., sophomore, end, ripped the thinly manned Yellowjackets to shreds.

Playing inspirational ball for their injured co-captain and regular right halfback, Jerome Evans, Goldsboro senior ex-GI who sustained a fractured collarbone in practice last week, three Eagle fullbacks joined Montgomery and one substituted halfback and a reserve guard to score for the NCC eleven.

Evans, the squad's leading groundgainer, averaged better than 7.8 yards per carry in 55 tries in NCC's first six games.

Fullbacks Fred Ponder, Leon Holley, and John Baker, Jr., and reserve halfback Ralph Curry, and Robert Adams, junior end, marched in NCC's TD parade.

Deral Webster, frosh guard from Raleigh and point after touchdown specialist, made four or five conversion tries.

Tennessee State Almost Sure For National Classic

GREENSBORO Coach Keene's powerful Tennessee State College Eleven with 25 straight wins and rated No. 1 in the nation, appeared this week as one of the probable opponents in the National Football Classic to be played here on December 4.

The Classic will feature the champions of the CIAA and the Midwestern Athletic Conference of which Tennessee is a member.

Who will represent the CIAA is still unforeseen due to the present muddled conference flag race. Only Delaware State has an undefeated and untied record. Maryland State and North Carolina College, still undefeated, but tying in their encounter, figure prominently as representatives.

It looks now as if the CIAA representative will have to be chosen late in the afternoon on Thanksgiving Day.

The National Classic Game will begin at 2:00 p.m. here at Memorial Stadium with the usual extra fanfare.

MORGAN STATE BEARS CLAW HAMPTON 39 TO 6

BALTIMORE, MD. November 13—With fullback Donald Patterson, turning in a superlative job of ball-carrying by personally scoring two TD's and playing a leading role in a third, the Bears of Morgan State bounced back from their defeat by Virginia Union to roll over Hampton Institute's Pirates, 39-6, in the last home game for the Bruins this season.

For Patterson, whose fumbles had proved so costly in the Virginia Union reverse, his last appearance in the Morgan stadium was doubtlessly his most dynamic. With co-captains Walt Moseley and Roland Cropper sidelined with injuries, the hardrunning senior from Sparrows Point sparked a versatile attack that kept the visiting Pirates on the defensive throughout most of the sixty minutes of action.

The contest was hardly underway when Bear quarterback Gary Freeman kicked out of bounds on the Hampton 5. Left tackle Tillman Henderson, the huge lineman from Texas, broke through the Pirate forward wall on throw halfback Bob Crawford for a 4-yd. loss on the visitors' one-yard ribbon. On the next play, Henderson led a Morgan charge that trapped fullback Dan Winston behind the line of scrimmage for a safety.

Near the end of the first quarter, after working to the Hampton 5-yard line, the Bears scored when Patterson ran through practically the whole Hampton team for a touchdown.

His kick from placement made the score 9-0 in Morgan's favor.

Morgan scored early in the second quarter when Patterson on a break-away dropped the ball at mid field, but an alert teammate, Arthur Dean recovered and raced to a score. Minutes later, the Bears marched 76 yards to lead 21-0.

The Bears scored once in the third quarter and twice in the fourth to boost the home team's touchdown total to an even half dozen.

Livingstone Bears Defeat Morris Town Knights

SALISBURY Senior halfback Charles Aldrich ran for three touchdowns and intercepted two passes to set up others as he led the Livingstone College Bears to a 46-0 football victory over the winless Morristown College Red Knights here Saturday afternoon at Livingstone College Park.

In turning in the superb performance, Aldrich ground out 120 rushing yards in 9 carries and a healthy 13.3 average to boost his running yards in six games to 517, and put him on top as the Bears' new rushing leader.

It was a day for seniors. Carl Adams, also playing the last home game of his college career, added two touchdowns on end-around plays of 25 and 34 yards. And fullback George Allen, held in check most of the way, ran 39 yards with an intercepted pass for another Bear score.

Allen was previously Livingstone's rushing leader, his 26 yards boosted his total in six games to 464 yards, even though it allowed Aldrich to take over top spot.

Livingstone's other touchdown was made by second string halfback Theodore Evans from 19 yard out.

Bear scores came in every quarter as the locals made it their fourth win against two defeats for the season. The Livingstonians pushed over three in the first, one each in the second and third and two in the final quarter to average a 38-18 loss at the hands of the Morristown College Red Knights last season.

Va. State Defeats A & T Aggies 21-6

GREENSBORO A sparse crowd of less than 3,000 spectators saw a powerful Virginia State College eleven from Petersburg unleash a brilliant running attack and capitalize on breaks coming their way to defeat A and T College Aggies 21-6 here Saturday at Memorial Stadium.

Virginia State scored twice in the second period and once in the third to put the game on ice. In the same period the Aggies scored their only touchdown.

Despite what the score indicates, the Aggies put up a stiff battle and had the spectators standing in the final two quarters. In fact A and T dominated the play during the final quarter.

Standouts for the victors were Nathan Smith, Donald Munford, backs, and defensive aces, guard Charles Williams and end John Nash.

Starring for the Aggies were Frank Johnson and Lawrence Payne, half backs; and on defense Henry Joseph and Rueben Phillips played outstandingly.

Broncos Edge Saint Paul 19 To 20

FAYETTEVILLE Snapping back into the win column after a series of consecutive set-backs in CIAA competition, the Gaines-coached Fayetteville Broncos started late but got down to business to rack up tallies in the second and third periods and to close out their season with a 20-19 victory over Head Coach Madison N. Robinson's hard-charging "Tigers" from St. Paul's Polytechnic Institute in Lawrenceville, Virginia. From the outset, it was a vicious, last-ditch affair for a pair of victory-hungry CIAA competitors, each out for the other's scalp.

After a scoreless first quarter, both teams scored in the second period. The half ended with the Broncos leading 7-6.

final Bronco TD of the game. The Broncos led 20-6.

St. Paul, however, came back to score two touchdowns on scores by wingman, Willie Underwood and back Robert Pettice. With the score 20-19, "Big" Harold Ford, Bronco guard, blocked the visitors' effort to connect and tie the score. It was curtains for two Bronco seniors-Co-Captains Johnny Jiggette of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Earl Garrett of Montclair, N.J.
