

-Association-

(Continued From Page One) this group that should be brief filed by Attorney General Brownell, be followed and the responsibility entrusted to officials on the local level, that proper safeguards be set up to guarantee the good faith of the local officials and to guarantee reasonable progress toward attaining the goal of the Supreme Court decision.

In another resolution the Association took note of "the rapid progress being made to integrate professional organizations" and reaffirmed "its deep desire that the members of this Association may become members of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools." Heads of institutions maintained for the education of Negro youth are not permitted membership in the Southern Association which is an accrediting agency for southern colleges and secondary schools.

For a period of time the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools has had in cooperation with the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools a liaison committee which has worked on matters of mutual interest involving the two bodies of southern educators. The ACSS commended its committee members on their efforts to foster the integration of the two associations.

Two years ago, the two associations held a joint meeting in Memphis at which time the ACSS was host to the SACS, however, no such meeting has since been held despite the fact that the two associations have met in the same cities. Members of the ACSS noted, however, that there has been rather free visitations between the two conventions by members from the respective associations.

Dr. C. Y. Troup, president of Fort Valley (Georgia) State College was elected head of the Association, succeeding Paul L. Guthrie of Lexington, Ky. The Association's two vice presidents are C. W. Seay, principal, Dunbar High School, Lynchburg, Va., and Dr. Hardy Liston, president of Johnson C. Smith University, Charlotte, N. C., Dr. L. S. Cozart, president of Barber-Scotia College, Concord, N. C., was reelected secretary-treasurer for his 22nd term.

The new members were added to the Association's executive committee for terms to expire in 1957. The officers are F. A. Tolliver, principal Stephens-Lee High School, Asheville, N. C., and Dean J. H. Hanberry, Benedict College, Columbia, S. C. The Association did not select a convention site for 1955.

-NAACP-

(Continued From Page One) first film was released. The revival of the unshamed and undisguised racial animosities of that era in the middle of the twentieth century following two world wars and unparalleled progress in race relations can do little except to inflame the still uninformed.

In the present climate of American and world opinions such a film in color and on wide screen would be a throwback. In the light of the May 17 decision of the United States Supreme Court in the school segregation cases and its impact upon our country and the world, the new film version of this inflammatory novel cannot escape being regarded as an effort on the part of some group or groups to encourage the 1876 rather than the 1955 view of Negroes as American citizens and as a roadblock to the orderly and just attainment of rights. The NAACP is as uncompromisingly opposed to this film today as it was when the picture was first released in 1915. We accordingly urge you to reconsider your present proposal.

This was the same answer given the delegation that asked for immediate implementation of the High Court directive several weeks ago.

Hillside High School Hornets Win Doubleheader From Little River

The Hillside Hornets successfully opened their hardwood season this week by taking away with a 58 to 12 victory, although they were without the services of their star forward, Ethel Chestham. The top scorer for the Hornets was their scrappy little forward, Barbara "Speck" Blackwell, who hooped 12 points. The leading point marker for Washington High of Reidsville on Friday, December 3.

The Hillside Lassies, sparked by the 25 points of their giant forward, Ethel Chestham, rolled to a lopsided 68 to 14 victory over the Little River girls in the preliminary game in which they led all the way. They had a 31 to 8 advantage at intermission.

In the main event, the Hillside boys completely outclassed the Little River boys and coasted to an 88 to 31 win after having a 35 to 12 halftime lead. The boys were led in scoring by their lanky center, James "Turkey" Satterwhite, who pumped in 18 markers in the two quarters that he played. He was followed by his able replacement, Ed Jackson, a six foot two inch sharpshooter, and Henry Valines, a towering forward who scored 13 and 15 points respectively.

For Little River, the chief threat was Lornie Harris, their agile pivotman who poured nine points through the hoop. In their second tilt this week, the Hornets again romped the opposition in a very convincing style. The girls team walked away with a 58 to 12 victory, although they were without the services of their star forward, Ethel Chestham. The top scorer for the Hornets was their scrappy little forward, Barbara "Speck" Blackwell, who hooped 12 points. The leading point marker for Washington High of Reidsville was Bernice Morehead with 9 points, who usually ranks higher in the scoring column but was stopped by the superb work of the Hillside guards.

The boys team was given a scare in the opening thirty seconds when the Reidsville quint scored three quick baskets on three consecutive shots, but the amazing "Turkey" Satterwhite put the Hornets back in the contest with four consecutive hook shots and the Hornets were never headed again. The Hillside boys led at halftime by a score of 37 to 15. After intermission the Hornets coasted and coach Higgins cleaned the star-studded Hillside bench. The final score was 83 to 34. The Hornets were led by Satterwhite, who netted 24 points in just two quarters of play. His understudy, Ed Jackson, poured 16 points through the nets in the limited time that he played.
