talk. The Board of Directors of the Community Boys' Club of which Doctor D. C. Roane is president, considered having Jackie as an honorary member of the Board a distinct honor. Those in the picture left to right are W. E. Bass, executive director; Robinson and Daniel C. Roane, president of Board.

of the Calvary Baptist Church was observed on last Sunday and Monday. A conspicuous figure was pastor emeritus, Dr. G. W. Goode, who served the church for over 56 years. The anniversary sermon was delivered by Rev. E. D. McCreary Sr. pastor of the Ebenezer Baptist Church in Charlottesville, Va., and father of the present pastor.

Mrs. Adaline R. Reynolds of Atlantic City, N. J., the sole remaining member of the forty organizers was in attendance. Hugo Grasty gave a vivid description of the history of the church. Mrs. Carrie Coleman sang. At the Vespers music was furnished by the Camp Grove Chorus and the Ebenezer Choir. The church was organized on December 9, 1892, on the present site. The first pastor was the late Rev. A. S. Thomas. The present pastor, Rev. C. B. McCreary came to Danville in 1953.

trists from the five boroughs come to observe its staff at work. But another reason for the interest of "professionals" in the center's operation, may be its "melting pot" flavor. In its present enrollment are to be found European, Irish, Puerto Rican, American Negro, Oriental and Greek children. The Center's Director is a Negro, its teachers, American Negro, Puerto Rican and Chinese. Its Secretary is of the Jewish faith. Its Board of Directors is Anglo-Saxon, Puerto Rican, Negro and Dutch. In its enrollment, on its teaching staff, and on its Board of Directors are to be found members of a variety of religious faiths, including Jewish, Protestant and Roman Catholic. But for whatever reason the Center is the object of clinical study, those who visit the Open Door come away with an understanding of the miracles that can be wrought with a small budget, a minimum of equipment, make-shift play materials, resourceful teachers, and lots of love.

To accomplish this the Reds are employing new tactics which are described by Alfred Baker Lewis, a member of the NAACP Board of Directors. Mr. Lewis warns that any cooperation with Communists "is financially and practically foolish

N. Y. Do-Nothing Attitude Blasted

NEW YORK The case of a 14 year old Negro boy, who shot and killed a 16 year old friend on a three day pass from Warwick State Training School, has served to highlight the "do nothing" attitude of New York State toward its problem children. For the delinquent youngster, Theodore Glenn, a homeless child, was merely sent back to Warwick after the killing for as well as morally wrong."
