Evelyn Goodwin of 1009 Carroll Street celebrated her twelfth birthday at her home with the following friends: Jessie McQueen, Donald Brown, Frank Brown, Carolyn Watson, Lola Brown, Marie Brown, Linda Cockerham, Christine Cockerham, Charles Cockerham, Claudine Daye, Carolyn McGhee, Patricia Boling, Barbara Boling, Nathaniel Fuller, Harvey Harris, Margo Davis, Rosetta Davis and Marilyn Davis. Games were played and ice cream and cake were served.

Grade 6-2 of Walltown School gave their teacher, Miss Ruby Grissom, a surprise birthday party. The children made their plans in great secrecy and succeeded in completely surprising Miss Grissom. While she was out for lunch preparations were made, and when she returned everything was ready for the party.

Christine Caffey was four years old on January 27 and had four little friends share her birthday cake and ice cream with her. They were Jane Johnson, Nancy Tapp, Tuffy Blue and Thomasine Bass.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lambeth celebrated their forty-fifth wedding anniversary at their home, 1004 Third Street, on Thursday, February 10. Their granddaughter and grandson, Elaine and Perry Lambeth, were hostess and host for them on the occasion.

Carol Ann Morgan was the week-end guest of Chubby Miller at her home on Fayetteville Street. On Friday evening they played Scrabble with neighborhood friends.

Celebrates Birthday

Noma Alyce Bennett was six years old on Tuesday, February the eighth. A number of her friends and schoolmates helped her celebrate with a birthday party at her home on Masondale Avenue. Games and television were enjoyed with Miss Annie Lee Cobb, Miss Catherine Alford, and Mrs. Thelma Bass supervising.

Attending the party were

Carriella and Godfrey Benjamin Herndon, Linda McClinton, Paul Peddy, Deborah Watts, Arthur John Clement, Anne Marie Bibby, Ronald Reed, Janetta and James Stewart, Harrah Green, Bonnie Dale, Logan Weston, Morrison Candy Cordice, Chattry Perry, Thomasina Bass, and Aubrey Hubbard.

The Misses Cora Mae Cole, Barbara Wade, Mildred McKiever, Nancy and Cecelia Steppe assisted Mrs. Bennett in serving the guest hot chocolate ice cream, cake and candies. Horns and hats were given as favors.

Noma Alyce received many lovely gifts.

St. Joseph Nursery School

The St. Joseph Nursery School was given a Valentine Party on February 14th by the P.T.A.

There were sixty children present. The pupils in Mrs. Amey's and Miss Jenkins' room made baskets and decorated them with hearts. These baskets were filled with assorted candy hearts and suckers in keeping with the Valentine Cards. All the children were given Valentines by their teachers.

The pupils in Miss Jenkins' room exchanged Valentine Cards. The children enjoyed playing games and singing songs they knew.

Mrs. Burton, one of the parents, furnished a beautiful cake for the children decorated with hearts. Teachers—Miss Bettye Atwater-Nursery School.

to education as embodied in a resolution adopted at its 45th annual convention in Dallas last summer. "The acceptance of federal aid in any form," the resolution declared, "must require a positive pledge that all activities, programs or construction made possible out of the affected region, the officers and members of our organization stand ready and eager to participate in such conferences with local school authorities. They will not, however take part in or yield to any schemes devised to evade or circumvent the clear meaning of the Court's unanimous decision."

The Lincoln Day program, sponsored by the NAACP, was broadcast over the ABC network at 8:00 this evening. Readings from Lincoln's speeches were given by Frank Silvers, stage and film star. A Negro spiritual was sung by Robert McFerrin of the Metropolitan Opera Company.

The program was produced by James P. Terzian, and was a public service broadcast.

The Asbury Temple Methodist Church. The ministers spoke briefly of the cooperation which they are receiving from their respective congregations and from local citizens. Chain officials said both ministers are making constructive contributions to community living.

As a follow-up to the director's meeting with the ministers at the Jade Room, the chain's general membership met last Sunday at the Algonquin Club House to hear a discussion and to see slides of Durham County's participation in the state-wide "Challenge to Better Rural Living Program." Participants in the rural living program included J. C. Hubbard, county farm agent; Mrs. E. T. Nixon, home demonstration agent; J. L. Moffitt, vocational agriculture teacher at Little River School; R. D. Locust, veterans' teacher; Mrs. E. R. Tuck, home economics teacher; J. D. Lennon, vocational agriculture teacher, Merrick Moore School; and Mrs. E. Bernice Johnson, home economics teacher, Merrick-Moore.

Chain members learned that a successful implementation of the program would be a positive contribution toward developing more diversified occupational skills. Also, it was said, the program promised to remedy the ills of single crop cultivation and to promote all-round improvement in the farm economy as well as in the areas of day-to-day family living.

A consensus of the discussants' views was that human resources are still the area's most NORTH CAROLINA DURHAM COUNTY Notice of Administratrix HAVING QUALIFIED as administratrix of the estate of ROSA HUNTER, deceased, late of Durham County, North Carolina, this is to notify all persons having claims against said estate to exhibit them to the undersigned at 203 and one-half East Chapel Hill Street (P.
