Mrs. Josephine Hoskin Hostess To The Lyon Park Rose Garden Club

The Lyon Park Rose Garden Club met Monday evening at 7 o'clock at the home of Gardener Josephine Hoskin as hostess. The house was decorated beautifully for the occasion and in keeping with the Valentine season.

The garden gate was opened by gardener Fannie Tapp; the club song was led by gardener Elizabeth Bullock, after which gardener Tapp read a poem entitled "Whoever Makes A Garden." Prayer was offered by gardener Pearl Brown. This was followed by the last verse of the club song.

At this point, the president—Mrs. Alice Jones, turned the meeting over to the chairman of the program committee, Gardener N. J. Curry.

A brief memorial service was held for Gardener Thelma Allen. It consisted of a song "Come Ye Disconsolate," led by Gardener Hoskin. A candle was lighted and then the 23rd Psalm was read by Gardener Helen McDade McClain. Gardener Tapp offered prayer. A song "When I've Gone the Last Mile of the Sunshine Chairman, Gardener Pearl Brown, also Gardener Louise Foushee who has been out on the sick list.

The president made Mrs. Catherine Shaw welcomed to her first meeting with the club.

The hostess invited us into the dining room where a tasty menu was served buffet style. Gardener Elnora Smith thanked the hostess for an enjoyable evening, on behalf of the club.

Present at the meeting were two guests, Mrs. Louise Thorpe and Mrs. Mary L. Stephens.

Members present were: Gahdeners, Fannie Tapp, Elnora Smith, Lottie Foushee, Alice Jones, Pearl Brown, Elizabeth Bullock, Catherine Shaw, Helen McClain, Mary Hardy, Mable Freeland, N. J. Curry, Josephine Hoskin, Alene McBane, Fannie Cozart, Beatrice Robertson Joyner, Daisy Green, and M. W. Webb.

Pictured above is the demolishing of the old Speight's Auto Service Station to make room for a new and modern Pure Oil Station to be located on the same spot at the corner of Fayetteville and Pettigrew Streets. The new establishment is fast becoming a reality with the builders now putting on the finishing touch. Plans for a Grand Opening will be announced in this newspaper during the early part of March.
