

MRS. DORIS MARIE MITCHELL WILLIAMS

Doris Mitchell, Clarence Williams Vows Spoken At Mt. Gilead Church

A candlelight ceremony solemnized at Mt. Gilead Baptist Church here on Saturday Feb. 12th united in marriage Miss Doris Marie Mitchell and Clarence Freeman Williams, both of Durham. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harold Roland, pastor of both the bride and groom.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Mitchell of Durham, and Mr. Williams is the son of Mrs. Lillie Williams of Durham, and Mr. James Williams of Chicago, Ill.

A program of pre-nuptial music was presented by Charles Alston. Vocalist for the occasion was Miss Edna Earl Cooper, friend of the bride, and the bridal chorus was rendered by the Mt. Gilead Young People's choir of which both the bride and groom are members.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz length dress of nylon tulle and chantilly lace, designed with a fitted lace bodice with folds of tulle across the front, and full tulle skirt, over which was worn a lace redingote with Elizabethan collar and long fitted sleeves ending in points over the wrists. The front of the lace redingote was scalloped, showing a panel of the tulle skirt. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was attached to a cap of matching lace and tulle. She carried a white prayer book topped with a purple orchid, showered with green fern tied with white ribbon.

Miss Bernice Audrey Mitchell, sister of the bride, served as maid-of-honor, and Mrs. Ann Malone Lunsford, friend of the bride and her family, served as matron of honor. They wore dresses of gold antique silk, fashioned in princess style, with V necklines and three quarter length sleeves set with rhine stone buttons. They wore matching bandeaux and carried hand bouquets of white gladioli and red carnations, tied with red and white satin ribbons.

The bridesmaids, who wore dresses of rose fashioned to match the maid and matron of honor were: Misses Geraldine Vivian Barbee, Zelma Josephine Holloway, Barbara Jean Adams, and Kitty Willet Sneed.

Roosevelt Weeks, Jr., friend and comrade of the groom was best man. Ushers were: Stephen Alexander McLeod, Henry Clay King, Willard Perry and Ronald Jones.

Little Gaynelle Samuels was flower girl and Master Floyd Linder was ringbearer.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Mitchell wore a full length dress of navy chiffon and lace, with matching hat and shoes, and white gloves. Her corsage of pink rose buds was a gift from the groom. The bridegroom's mother selected a gown of peach chiffon and lace with matching shoes and white gloves. Her corsage was of red carnations.

dent for the year 1955-56. Mrs. Lucille Ray was commended on her excellency as president. She will continue serving through commencement time in June. Additional committee members were named as follows: Mesdames Ben Howie, Margaret Farley, Elizabeth Culp, Olga Henderson, Mamie Robinson, Eunice Howey, Inez McCauley, Blondina Foust, Mable Dykes, Vanessa Crowder, Frances Oates, Hattie Poe, and messrs. ### Mrs. Flonnie Goodloe Hostess To Dorcas Club

Mrs. Flonnie Goodloe was the charming hostess to the Dorcas Club Thursday evening, Mar. 3. Devotionals were led by President Lyda V. Merrick. Mrs. Gazelle Lipscomb presided at the piano, and Mrs. Effie Cotton of the Club's "Songbird" led the songs. The Secretary, who'd been absent for two months, received a heart warming "Welcome" back again. After the important business was transacted Mrs. Charles Amey was welcomed as "guest speaker." Mrs. Amey's subject was "Be Boss of Your Job." Hers was an excellent talk stressing ones future: (1) Financial (2) Use of Physical Strength (3) Making good use of one's talents. (4) Gaining Inspiration-Using Sundays Appropriately (5) Developing Skills and Strengthening Ones Memory. She emphasized not serving for applause-in fact the talk was really worth every one's consideration and every one thanked Mrs. Amey for the help she brought.

Mrs. Goodloe was kindly assisted by her "Glenn Street" sisters and everyone was happy to be present and enjoyed her very delectable menu.

Her many friends in the Church Dorcas Club, are welcoming Miss Constance S. Young "home again" after over two months stay in NYC with her dear friends, the Alston Beardsens. She reports a very pleasant time seeing some shows and other friends after Christmas festivities were over. Miss Young was a guest at "Windham House" also while in New York. Windham House is the Episcopal Graduate Center for Church Workers, and houses students

Utopia Club In Meeting With Mrs. E. Perry

The Utopia Club met Friday night, March 4, with Mrs. Ethel Perry at her home on Linwood Avenue.

Beautiful arrangements of spring flowers were seen throughout her very attractive home. A very inspiring devotion was given by Mrs. Nettie Johnson, whose theme was—"Love and Charity," which is a good motto for the club.

Very fine reports were given by the Sunshine Committee. Mrs. Mabel Mabry, the president, presided and presented the guest speaker, Mrs. Omega Livingstone, who spoke on her recent voyage. She took the group on an imaginary trip abroad to Portugal, Rome, Italy, Sicily, Rock of Gibraltar, France, Algeria, Casablanca and Spain. Not only was Mrs. Livingstone a fluent speaker-her memory was superb. She really had this group of thirty ladies sailing right along with her and enjoying every minute...

The hostess served a palatable salad course and desert. Guests present were: Mesdames, Omega Livingstone, Laura Bruce, Madge Turner, Annie Strickland, Mary Raye, Sara Felder, Stella Alston, Lillian Buchanan.

Members present were: Mesdames, Elnora Smith, Marion Alston, P.
