Durham Citizens Take Part In Celebrating National 4-H Club Week; I. F. Y. E. To Visit Local Institutions

Citizens of Durham, City and County, joined others of this state and nation in celebrating National 4-H Club Week. The National Theme was "Improving Family and Community Living."

Some of the purposes and objectives of this nationwide observance were as follows:

To encourage 4-H Club members to take inventory of themselves and their project work and set higher goals of achievement for 1955.

To inform the general public as to the objectives and activities in 4-H Club work.

To give 4-H Club members an opportunity to develop a working knowledge of their 1955 theme, "Improving Family and Community Living."

To acquaint parents in every community with what 4-H members are already doing.

To give recognition to the far-reaching results for 4-H Club work from the standpoint of the nation, state, county and local community, through the press, magazines, radio, and television.

On Tuesday March 1, a Leaders' meeting was held to discuss and formulate further plans for the occasion.

Miss Maxine Young and Mr. Raphael Cuthbertson, who visited Europe with other delegates from various sections of the United States under the sponsorship of the International Farm Youth Exchange I.F.Y.E., were here to visit all of the schools and other institutions.

The following schedule was observed Tuesday March 8, 11:00 a.m. Little River School; 2:00-3:00 p.m. Pearsonsonton Schools No. 1 and 2; 7:45 p.m. Stanford L. Warren Public Library.

Wednesday March 9: Durham Business and Professional Chain Directors meeting and Luncheon of 12:30 p.m. Merrick-Moore School 4-H Assembly at 2: p.m., WDTV for a Tele-cast at 3:45 p.m.

At many of the meetings slides of various events, activities and scenes were shown.

The Merrick-Moore School 4-H Council conducted again this year a Project Workshop on March 9 for all club members, leaders and parents.

Theme: "Improving Family and Community Living."
Motto: "Theme Make The Best Better."

Films Available To The Public

The Stanford L. Warren Public Library has the following film titles available for public use until March 18:

BETTER STORY, based on the book, "How I Raised Myself from Failure to Success in Selling" by Frank Bettger.

JAVA - TROPICAL MOUNTAIN LAND, a portrait of a modern seaport.

ANTIBIOTICS, defines antibiotics and shows how they have been used successfully in medicine.

NEIGHBORS, a parable about two people living side by side.

BRONCO BUSTERS, a Canadian film, describing the Calgary stampede.

Mothers Of Jack And Jill Club In Meet At Richard B. Harrison Library

RALEIGH
Mothers of the Raleigh Chapter of the Jack and Jill of America Inc. club met Monday night, February 28, at the Richard B. Harrison Library.

Each club member brought clothing to be sent to needy children of Haiti, which is a project of the organization all over the country.

A final report of receipts and disbursements for the Pollo Fund drive was made by Mrs. Susie V. Perry, chairman of this event, which indicated gross collections of almost $500.00.

Plans were announced for March activities of entertainment for Jack and Jill children as follows: Four to seven year old group, March 12, an event titled "Nina and Hans Dance in Holland," at the Tuttle Community Center, March 16, a kite party (place pending), supervised by Mrs. Harveleigh White.

Scheduled for the 8-11 age group, on March 13, a trip to the Morehead Planetarium at Chapel Hill, directed by Mrs. Ethel Lytle, and on March 19, a party to include a game hour, at the home of Mrs. Susie V. Perry, who is also chairman of this activity.

Twenty of the children are pupils of a weekly dance instruction class, which is offered by the club, and taught by Mrs. Ruth Boulware at the Tuttle Community Center.

Hostesses for this meeting were Mrs. Margaret Capehart, Mrs. Gladys Turner, and Mrs. Ella Williams.

Home Economics Day Set For Friday, March 18

North Carolina College will observe its sixth annual Home Economics Day here on Friday, March 18. Three scholarships worth nearly $300 will be awarded some lucky high school girls at the meet.

The new Home Economics Building will be the scene of day long activities high lighted by the traditional Home Economics competitive test, during the morning of the meeting. First prize is $130 scholarship award, second prize is cash award of $100, and third prize is $50 toward tuition and fees at NCC.

The afternoon part of the program will feature demonstrations, movies, slides, and exhibits.

As a part of the social activities of the day, the Home Economics staff and the Home Economics club will award souvenirs, serve refreshments, and entertain at an informal affair.

Miss Mayme McIntosh is serving as chairman of the program which is expected to attract some 500 high school girls from the Carolinas and Virginia.
