

Mrs. Herndon Host To Dunstan Street Club

The Dunstan Street Neighborhood Club met at the home of Mrs. Cornelia Herndon, Dunstan Street, last Monday night at eight o'clock. The president, Rev. H. A. Smith, presided.

A brief devotional service opened the session. The songs used in this service were "Saviour More Than Life To Me" and "There's Not A Friend Like The Lowly Jesus." Mrs. Josephine Perry gave the prayer.

The president made a short talk praising the members for their continued enthusiasm and their apparent loyalty to "the ideals of neighborliness to which we have dedicated ourselves as an organization and which our name implies."

Mrs. Cornelia Herndon, the club's secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting which were adopted.

Mrs. Branch reported the sending of cards last week to the following sick persons: Mrs. Daisy Nevels, Mrs. Fannie McKinney and Nathaniel Fogg.

Sick persons in the community were reported as follows: Nathaniel Fogg, Frank Jeffries, Mrs. Lannie McKinney, Mrs. Clara Leonard, Mrs. Roberta Johnson and Sam McKinney.

An acknowledgement from the family of the late Floyd McKinney was received by the group.

A brief program was introduced by Mrs. Rosa B. Branch. It consisted of three numbers: An Easter poem by Mrs. Leona Smith, a solo by Mrs. Josephine Perry and a brief address by the Rev. Eli Thompson.

Rev. Thompson used the words Faith, Hope Charity, found in the 13th verse of the 13th Chapter of I Cor. as the basis of his remarks. In kingdom work "such as we are doing," he said, "We need all three." He pointed out that "our good works should have roots in love. Love is eternal and is the greatest of virtues."

After payment of dues and an expression of appreciation by Mrs. Rosa B. Branch to the hostess, Mrs. Herndon, the meeting ended with the song "Bless Be The Tie" and benediction by the Rev. Mr. Thompson.

Mrs. Mebane, Mrs. Kornegay Entertain Club

Mrs. Sadie Mebane and Mrs. Margaret Kornegay were joint hostesses to the Lyon Park Rose Garden Club, Monday evening, March 28, at the home of Mrs. Kornegay on Nelson St. Spring flowers were arranged throughout the beautiful home. In the dining room, the table was covered with a beautiful white Iris linen cloth and held a center piece of carnations, snapdragons, chrysanthemums and greenery. The meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. Alice Jones, who brought the devotional message. Each member recited her favorite Bible verse and the Lord's prayer was said in unison. The meeting was then opened for business. The secretary read the minutes of the last meeting, which was followed by reports from various committees. The group discussed future projects and plans for raising funds.

The president welcomed Mrs. Louise Thorpe, a new member, Mrs. A. L. Thompson, Mrs. Ora Foster and Miss Mary L. Stephens, visitors, to the club.

The members discussed the Spring Garden Tour of the club, which was held March 20. The tour opened at the Joyner home at 2411 Morse Street. During the course of the afternoon twelve gardens were visited and they were beautiful.

At the close of the business session all were invited into the dining room where punch and other refreshments were served to the following guests and members: Mrs. A. L. Thompson, Mrs. Ora Foster, and Miss Mary L. Stephens, guests and Mesdames, Pearl Brown, Elizabeth Bullock, Alice Jones, Mable Freeland, Victoria Joyner, Mary Hardy, Fannie Tapp, Grace Frazier, Alene Mebane, M. W. Webb, Sadie Mebane, Notie J. Curry, Helen McDade, Josephine Hoskins, Elizabeth Hester, Fannie Cozart and Catherine Shaw. Miss Helen Coppate assisted the hostesses in serving.

Mrs. Webb thanked Mrs. Mebane and Mrs. Kornegay for a wonderful evening, and all departed happy and gay.

To Name Five For N. C. Citizens N. C. Citizens

RALEIGH Plans are being completed to name five new buildings in honor and memory of several North Carolina citizens who have made outstanding contributions to the fields of child welfare and correctional institution development at Morrison Training School for Boys, Hoffman, and three at the North Carolina State Training School for Negro Girls, Kinston, announced Mrs. Rose D. Aggrey, Chairman, Advisory Board of the North Carolina Federation of Negro women's Clubs.

The principal addresses in connection with these events will be delivered by W. J. Kennedy, Jr., President, North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company, at Morrison Training School on April 24; and Dr. Ellen Winston, Commissioner, North Carolina State Board of Public Welfare, will do the same at the State Training School for Negro Girls on May 22.

CONFIRMS COUPLE AT GREENVILLE CHURCH

Mrs. Ella W. Brown, charter member of the Beta Zeta Chapter of the National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa and a member of the Charmalette Social Club, was recently confirmed along with her husband at St. Andrews Episcopal Church of Greenville, N. (Continued from Page One) Contest as a big step forward in Durham's constant efforts to improve the health of our most precious citizens, our babies. Healthy babies have been Carnation's first concern. To assure uniform high quality in every can of Carnation Evaporated Milk, it is guarded every step of the way . . . at the famous Carnation Farms near Seattle, Washington, where world-championship Holstein cows are raised—to Carnation's 35 evaporated milk plants throughout the U. S. and Canada—to the famous Carnation research laboratories—and finally, to the baby's bottle.

The same nourishing richness and better blending qualities that make Carnation so safe and digestible for baby, also make it a favorite for creaming coffee, and for every recipe that calls for milk. No wonder it's the world's leading brand of evaporated milk.

Previous to coming to Hampton he served on the faculties of Loomis Institute, Windsor, and Taft School, Watertown, Conn., and Dartmouth College, Hanover, New Hampshire.

During Dr. Howe's administration Hampton Institute received the rating of "Class A" from the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools; the Trade School curricula were raised to the college level; nursing courses were first offered; and the George P. Phenix High School was built. Hampton received $815,000 in bequests which enabled it to make additions and improvements to its buildings and plant. The Student Council and Women's Senate were organized and alumni chapters increased from 19 to 50.

queried. "I'm not kidding," snapped the tough guy. As a customer approached, the lady politely said, "One side, please, you're holding up the line." The gunman fled.

The Jackson College Choir began its spring tour April 3, when it appeared at the Mississippi Rural Life Center, Lampton, Mississippi. Under the direction of Rogie Clark, the Choir has become one of America's great choral groups. The April 3 appearance was sponsored by the Jackson College Club of Marion County. The accompanist is Allen Johnson.

POOR FELLOW

Clifton, New Jersey Clyde Goete, a legless panhandler (beggar), makes begging pay off which fact was demonstrated recently when Goete was brought into court and fined $80. He promptly peeled off $80 and handed it to the clerk. And when ordered out of town, by the judge, the poor beggar nodded humbly and departed in his chauffeur driven, 1955 model car.

Hodges-

As introduced, the resolution contained the word "throughout" instead of "within" the state.

The House beat down two amendments, one by Rep. Phil Whitley of Wake and the other by Rep. Thomas White of Lenoir. Whitley proposed that the secretary of state forward copies of the resolution to each member of the U. S. Supreme Court.

Rep. W. B. Rodman of Beaufort, questioning the "propriety" of Whitley's amendment, said, "I am certain that the attorney general will present it in a manner with which they (the court) can take no exception."

Whitley declared, "If the whole intent is to apprise them of our feelings on this matter . . . the best way to do it is to send them a copy of it . . . if they want to be insulted, let them be insulted." Whitley voted alone for the amendment.
