"Quality Of The Heart, Mind And Spirit The Measure Of A Man," Rev. H. Albert Smith Tells Graduates

The sixty-second commencement exercise of the B. F. Person High School of Franklinton began Sunday, May 15, in a service held at the First Baptist Church at 3:00 P. M.

The service featured the annual baccalaureate sermon which was preached by the Reverend H. Albert Smith, the minister of the First Baptist Church of Apex and the Managing Editor of the Carolina Times.

The service opened with the processional, and the invocation was given by the Reverend J. P. Mangrum, the principal of the Person School.

Following the singing of "God of Our Fathers, Whose Almighty Hand", Reverend Smith read the scripture and gave the prayer.

The school choir then rendered "Sanctus" (from "St. Cecilia Mass") by Gounod after which Rev. Mangrum introduced the Rev. Smith who spoke on the topic "The Measure of a Man."

Rev. Smith stated that "the measure of a man is to be found in nothing external or material. It is not a matter of race, color, social position, family status, wealth, physical attractiveness, or even education. Rather, the measure of a man is the quality of his heart, mind and spirit. It is his character plus the ability to do and get things done. It is that quality of character that enables one to get along with his fellow men.

Other commencement activities were held during the week. On May 16, at 8:00 P. M., Attorney F. J. Carnage, a member of the City School Board, Raleigh, delivered the Commencement address.

To these proposals, Eisenhower is said to have been most interested. Powell thought the President recalled the idea of going to Asia "very warmly."

COOKING HINTS by Mary Blake Carnation Home Service Director and her staff So many people have asked me for my favorite "Cooking with Carnation" recipe. Of course, there's no limit to cooking ways with this double-rich, better-blending milk... I always tell people "no other form of milk has so many uses as Carnation." When my recipe calls for milk I just mix Carnation with an equal amount of water... pour it from the can to my cream pitcher for coffee or cereals... and whip it for children pies or frozen desserts. From family breakfast to Fudge Sauce, it's Carnation for my family. CARNATION 1-2-3 FUDGE SAUCE (Makes 2 1/2 cups sauce) 1 large can (1 1/2 cups) undiluted CARNATION EVAPORATED MILK 2 cups sugar 3 squares (3 oz.) unsweetened chocolate Combine Carnation with sugar and chocolate in saucepan over low heat; cook about 15-20 minutes, stirring occasionally. Remove from heat. Add 1 teaspoon vanilla and beat briskly until smooth. Four hot or cooled Carnation 1-2-3 Fudge Sauce over ice cream, cake or cream puffs. Now after more than 50 years, Carnation Evaporated Milk has a new "sister" product - Carnation Instant Nonfat Dry Milk. Not like the flaky or powdery brands you may have used... but truly instant-dissolving magic crystals of delicious, flavorful nonfat milk. Be sure to look for Carnation Instant at your market... the red and white box with the handy pouring spout!
