A banquet in honor of the 34 years of service given by Gideon E. Smith, retiring physical education instructor and coach from 1921-53, was given prior to the assembly. Mr. Smith, well-known in CIAA circles, is a 1910 Hampton graduate, and gained national fame as a great football player at Michigan State College. From 1913-15, he played sixty minutes of every game.

Yanks Forced To Recognize Elston Howard As Real Ball Player

NEW YORK Yanks were trailing 6-4 going into the ninth inning and look-like goners. Eddie Robinson got a pinch-hit single with one out. But Hank Bauer made the second out. With Joe Collins on first via a pass, Mickey Mantle delivered and one run came in. A new pitcher came in for Detroit—Al Aber. Howard connected on the second pitch—driving in two runs with a triple.

Elston had tripled previously in the third inning causing the Yankees to go ahead. Hitting a neat .400, it's a mystery to most how Stengel will contrive to keep him out of the lineup. Howard doesn't have to replace Berra. He played left field against Detroit and handled "it most capably.
