The meeting was opened in the unusual manner with a song, prayer and then another song. The lesson in the Secret Place was read and discussed by Mr. Louis Ewing and enlarged on by the group. Ice cream and cake were served by the hostesses. After the business the group adjourned for the next meeting. A picnic was planned to take place at Baldwin Farm.

Officers of the club are as follows: Mrs. Beatrice Noel, President, Mrs. Ora Fitzgerald, Vice-President and Mrs. Rosetta Southerland, Recording Secretary.

DeCosta-Sugarman Marriage Joins Two Prominent Families

ORANGEBURG, S. C.

Two prominent and old-line southern families were joined here Saturday evening, June 25, when Miss Miriam Delores DeCosta, only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank A. DeCosta, became the bride of Russell Bertram Sugarman, Jr., of Memphis, Tennessee.

The double-ring ceremony was performed in Trinity Methodist Church by the Rev. Matthew D. McCollum, pastor, in an exquisite setting of jade, gladioli and white mums.

Ferdinand P. Abraham and William Owens, both of the S. C. State College faculty, presented a pre-nuptial program of music and words, the latter reciting selections from Shakespeare and Browning from a hidden background.

Musical selections were Goltermann's "Through The Years", by Eugene Pinson of the S. C. State College Department of Music, "Ich Liebe Dich" and "The Lord's Prayer", sung by Miss Myrna Smith of Atlanta, Georgia, a cousin of the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was resplendent in her gown of chintilly lace with low neckline and beaded seed pearls. Her wedding dress had long pointed sleeves, a sculptured bodice with a bouffant skirt that ended in a wide chapel train. Her finger-tip veil of French illusion was attached to a crown of lace and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white orchids with purple throats.

Matron of Honor was Mrs. Georgianna Hunter Price, cousin of the bride. Bridesmaids were Misses Barbara Thompson, Carolyn Webber, Barbara Williams, Patricia Kelly of Washington, D. C., Helen Anita Taylor of Montgomery, Ala. and Mrs. Carolyn Harris Brown.

Attendants wore dresses of blue nylon chiffon, with low draped necklines, and shirred bodices with bouffant skirts. Their blue and pink bonnets were framed with blue and pink forget-me-nots. Each carried a bouquet of pink roses and gypsophelia.

The bridal party was flowered by Little Misses Gail DeCosta and Joy Davis, cousins of the bride, from nylon netting and satin baskets. Each wore a long pink nylon organ-dy dress.

Master Barrie Smith of St. Louis, Mo., a nephew of the groom, was ring bearer. The satin pillow holding the rings was etched in lace from the wedding dress of the bride's maternal great grand aunt.

Best man was Eric Springer of Brooklyn, N. Y. Usher-groomsman were Frank A. DeCosta, Jr. and Robert Higgins, brother and cousin, respectively, of the bride; Monroe Crawford, Frank Staley, Jr., Paul R. Webber, III and Thomas Best.

The mother of the bride wore a gown of embroidered pink nylon organ-dy, with a small pink flowered hat. The mother of the groom wore an ecru lace-over taffeta gown and a hat of variegated flowers.

Following the ceremony some 400 guests were entertained in a reception at the home of the bride. Guests entered a walk line with pink ribbons, and moved beyond the wedding party and the two families to the back lawn where they were entertained with post-nuptial music and were served refreshments. Assisting at the guest registry were Misses Alfreda James, S. B. Henderson and Jane Lamar Dawkins.

Hostesses were Mesdames M. S. Moore, A. L. Nix, V. M. Domna, R. S. Henderson, F. M. Staley, S. W. Daniels, P. M. Harris, E. J. Dawkins, B. F. Williams, T. J. Crawford, A. W. Brown, M. M. Crawford, S. R. Green, V. E. Sheffield, L. B. Best, T. K. Bythewood, H. N. Vincent, E. Ferguson, Marion Capps, J. H. Green, A. L. Sulton, P. L. King, J. B. Washington and C. E. Watermann.

Assisting with the service of guests were Mesdames P. R. Webber, O. S. Jordan, E. G. Dawson, H. J. Jordan, J. W. Nance, L. M. Ward and Misses LaVerte Reed and Mammie Thompson.

Assisting the bride were Miss Anna Belle Williams, Mrs. Gracia Dawson, and Mrs. Kathlyn Moses.

A series of pre-nuptial parties preceded the ceremony. A dinner party for the two families were held the evening before the wedding and a rehearsal supper for the bridal party and special guests, Misses Alexine Clement of Durham, N. C. and Myrna Smith of Atlanta, Georgia.

Following the rehearsal, bridesmaids entertained the bride-to-be at a surprise kitchen shower, in the home of Miss Carolyn Webber; while the groom-to-be was entertained at a stag party of usher-groomsman.

The bride completed her high school work at Westover School, Middlebury, Connecticut, and is entering the senior year at Wellesley College, Wellesley, Massachusetts. An honor student since her freshman year, she was elected a Wellesley College Scholar during her junior year, and has been elected to do the Honor Course in Spanish during her senior year.

The groom holds the bachelor of arts degree from Rutgers College and the LL.B. degree from the Harvard Law School. He is a veteran of the Korean War, and will pursue advance study for one year at Harvard University. He is a member of the Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity.

The young couple will reside at 64 Burbank Street, Boston, Massachusetts.

The marriage united Charleston's old-line DeCosta family, the Huberts of Savannah and Georgia, of which Mrs. DeCosta is a member, and Memphis' realtors and bond brokers, the Sugarmons.

Among out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. George W. Cox, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Clement, Miss Alexine Clement and Wesley Clement of Durham, N. C. Mrs. Charles D. Hubert, Mrs. Mable Hubert Warner and Miss Myrna Smith of Atlanta, Ga. Mrs. Sidney Smith, Barrie and Craig Smith of St. Louis,

KID'S SOCIETY

JUNE ROSSER - Editor - Phone 4-5806

ASSOCIATE EDITOR: BETTY JO GOODLOE

Doris Barnes of Washington, D. C. is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Mae Barnes, and Jeanie Holloway of Hamlin Road. Jeanie entertained for Doris on Saturday, July 16, with a weiner roast. Others present were Barbara Jean Morrison, Jackie Glenn and Mary Lipscomb.

David and Logan Cook are spending the month of July at Camp Lakeside in Connecticut, near Norwich. They motored to Washington with their parents, where they boarded the camp train. Dr. and Mrs. Cooke will go to Connecticut to bring them home at the end of July.

LeEtta Smith has returned from her vacation in East Hampton, Long Island and New York City. She and her parents spent a night at Boys Harbor in East Hampton and then returned to New York City. They saw the Dodgers and Giants play, and also visited Coney Island.

Boys Harbor is the camp operated by Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Duke. They are hosts this summer to ninety boys of all nationalities, two of whom are boys from the Boys Club of Durham.

Sandra Allen of New York City is visiting relatives here.

Elaine Lambeth of Pekoe Street and Majorie Lennon of Alston Ave. are at Girl Scout Camp Douglas Long, Greensboro.

Betty Jo Goodloe returned from Baltimore Friday. She spent a week with her cousin.

James Pippin has gone to New York to visit his aunt. James traveled alone.

Eric and Michael Myers, sons of Dr. and Mrs. Earl Myers of Fresno, California, are visiting relatives in the city. They are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leathers of Ferrell Boulevard. Mrs. Myers is the former Miss Kate Burton of this city.

Nathaniel (Bud) White of Alston Avenue spent the Fourth of July week in Baltimore visiting his grandmother. Nathaniel was accompanied to Baltimore by his mother but remained a week longer and returned unaccompanied.

Pedia and Tony Ford have gone to visit their grandmother in North Wilksboro.

Noma Alyce Bennett is confined to her home on account of chickenpox.

Jennifer Engram of Tallahassee, Florida was guest in Miss Marie Faulk's Sunday School class at St. Joseph A.M.E. Church.

"Jan" and "Jimmie" Stewart left Wednesday for Cape Cod, Massachusetts. They were accompanied by their dad and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Stewart.

Clem Grandy is leaving for Camp Bricks this week end.

Joyce Ann Smith attended the Flower Garden Club picnic Sunday in Prince Edward Park, Virginia.

Claudia Young of Washington, D. C. is the house guest of Joyce Ann Smith.

Robert and Chatty Perry have returned from a very delightful eight-day trip with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. W. Perry. Their trip included visits to New York City, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, the Shenandoah National Park and Richmond. While in the "Big City" they saw the Giants walloping the Dodgers 6-1. The chief interest in Philadelphia was to see the Liberty Bell. Chatty was disappointed when he put his finger in the crack. He said, "Davy Crockett didn't patch the crack, he just put two screws in it."

Robert and Chatty are leaving this week end for camp at Bricks, N. C., sponsored by the P.T.A. They will take their cousin, Kenneth Turpin of Richmond, to share camp life.
