

N. C. Governor

MAKES VICIOUS ATTACK ON NAACP

The Carolina Times Is The Oldest
And Widest Read Negro Newspaper
In The Two Carolinas.

The Carolina Times

THE TRUTH UNBRIDLED

PRICE 10c
PAY NO MORE

VOLUME 31—NUMBER 33

DURHAM, NORTH CAROLINA SATURDAY, AUG. 13, 1955

PRICE: 10 CENTS

Dr. Jones Resigns From Greensboro Board Of Education

ANDERSON ATTACKS ELK HEADS

Ill Health Forces Bennett Head To Quit Post Held For Only One Year

GREENSBORO
Dr. David D. Jones, president of Bennett College, has resigned his post as a member of the Greensboro School Board because of ill health.

REFUSES TO DO BUSINESS WITH NAACP

CHARLESTON, S. C.
Declaring that he refuses to do business with the NAACP, Moultrie School District Superintendent, W. C. Hutchinson, put his vow into practice last Tuesday when he refused to accept delivery of a letter from that organization.

The above photo are successful candidates elected last week to the General Conference of the A. M. E. Church from the Western North Carolina Conference. The meeting was held at the A. M. E. Church in Hillsboro, Monday, August 4. Those in the picture from left to right, front row are: Mrs. Ruth Wadell, Sanford; Mrs. Ethel Anderson, Greensboro; Mrs. Mattie Alston, Pittsboro; Mrs. Julia Cousins, Mebane; L. Drumwright, Roxboro; Vernon Cowan, Asheville; Mrs. Casie Baily, Winston-Salem; E. Austin, Durham; Jessie Williams, Guilford County; Mrs. Mae Hopson, Cary; H. C. Ferrin, Raleigh; Otis Shade, Morganton and Goldie Fulwood, Morristown. The delegates are Messrs. Wadell, Hopson, Anderson, Messrs. Ferrin, Shade, Cowan and Austin. The remainder are alternates. Not shown in the picture is J. C. Pike, Hickory who was also elected an alternate.

Candidate For Secretary Charges IBPOE Official With Political Trickery

T. W. Anderson Says He May Be Ousted

WASHINGTON
As the hottest Elks convention in the last quarter-century draws nearer and nearer, Trezzvant W. Anderson, candidate for Grand Secretary of the IBPOE of W., against 74-year-old William C. Hueston attacked the Elks high command and charged them with "political cowardice."

Pictured above is Wm. A. Marsh, prominent young attorney of Durham who was recently elected president of the Durham branch of the North Carolina College Alumni Association. Under Attorney Marsh's leadership the local alumni of North Carolina College are expected to take on new life.

"Double Cross" Now On In Elkdom

WASHINGTON, D. C.
"The big doublecross is now on in Elkdom," Trezzvant W. Anderson, Candidate for Grand Secretary of the IBPOEW opposing W. C. Hueston, declared this week. Anderson said that the administration had already sharpened its knives and were ready to plunge them into the backs of several Elks big wigs who had hopes of becoming Grand Exalted Ruler in 1956. This being done, the local newsmen charged, "through the effort of Robert H. Johnson and his stooges to eliminate the four-year restriction placed upon the term of office of the Grand Exalted Ruler."

Named to fill out his unexpired term was Dr. William M. Hampton, former city councilman, who was sworn in last week. Dr. Jones, first of his race to serve on the local board, is also the first living person to have a Greensboro public school named in his honor.

N. C. College To Begin 45th Year Sept. 8

North Carolina College, founded in 1910 by the late Dr. James E. Shepard, will open its doors for the 45th year on Sept. 8.

A week-long program designed to bridge the gulf between high school and college for an estimated 500 freshmen will be held through September 13, with Fall quarter classes starting Sept. 14.

Dr. Alfonso Elder, president of NCC since Jan. 20, 1948, and the man who's seen some $8 million dollars in physical expansion develop under his administration will welcome new students and faculty during the orientation sessions.

At NCC last week, President Elder announced receipts of more than $100,000 to add to the college's rapidly growing facilities. High on the list of improvements are recreation rooms for girls and a revamped wardrobe system for young men.

NCC's Student Government President W. Sherman Perry, Langhorne, Pa., senior, will be among the welcoming speakers talking to newcomers on opening day. Perry will discuss, among other things, NCC's program of Student Self-Direction, which is regarded as one of the outstanding accomplishments of President Elder's administration.

Oldtimers returning to NCC will set a redecorated series of buildings, newly landscaped grounds, and an Athletic Field in process of transformation to a great, modern stadium featuring one of the finest outdoor tracks in the area.

Substantial progress also may be observed in the nearly $2 millions worth of buildings to house the areas of commerce, biology, and education. A battery of tests, supplements (Please turn to Page Eight)

Governor's Speech Nets Big Increase In NAACP Membership In State

By L. E. AUSTIN
RALEIGH
North Carolina's Governor

Luther Hodges pulled out all stops here Monday night in an address on the question of "Integration in Public Schools" in an apparent bid for the Democratic nomination for governor. He is at present serving out the term of the late Governor William B. Umstead. The address was hailed by a majority of the state's white press and public officials as a panacea for the so-called ills that have befallen the state since the rulings of the United States Supreme Court on segregation in the public schools. However, several white leaders of the state took the governor to task for the address which was labelled by one, a member of the Greensboro School Board, as "ill-advised" so far as Negroes are concerned.

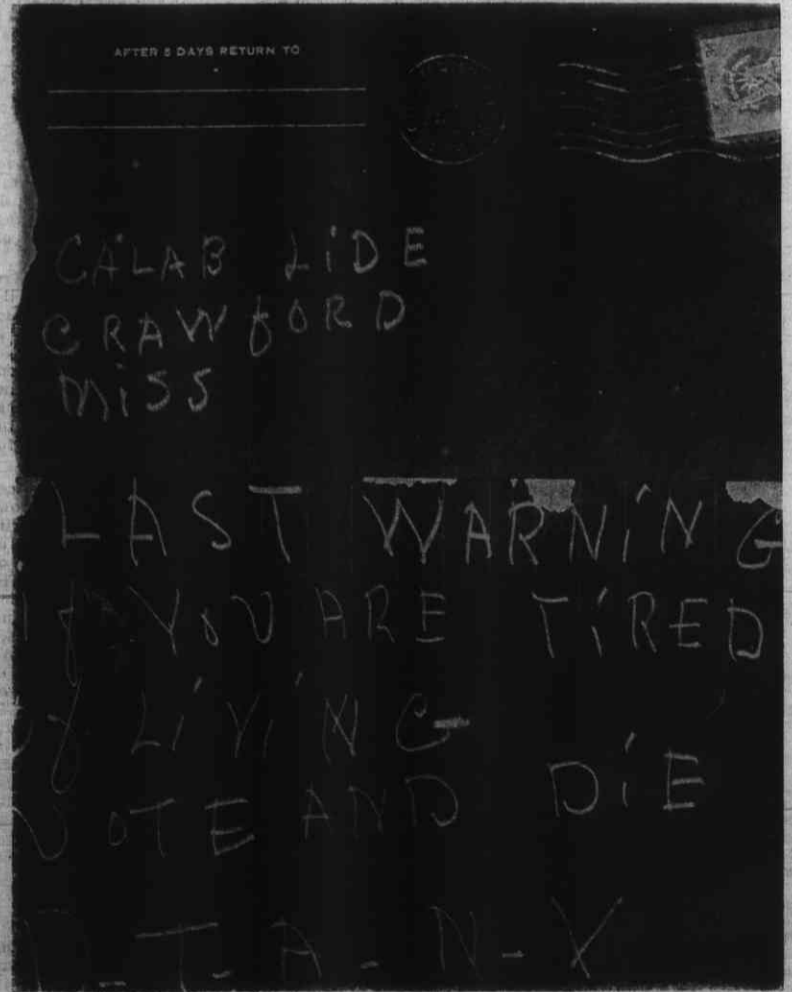

Although the State's Chief Executive resorted to the worn out old play on words about Negroes having "made the most astounding progress of any race in history," his address fairly reeked with attempts at intimidation of Negroes, contempt for the U. S. Supreme Court and veiled threats against the state's one million Negroes who were left no alternative but acceptance of his proposal of a voluntary segregation plan. The Governor stated that if the choice of Negroes is for voluntary separate school attendance, "you can count on at least as good an education for your children as they are getting now. . . . On the other hand if your answer is integration by force of law nobody knows how much education the children of either race will get. . . . Certain it is, however, that the white citizens of this state will resist integration strenuously, resourcefully, and probably with growing bitterness."

VEILED THREATS
Although the State's Chief Executive resorted to the worn out old play on words about Negroes having "made the most astounding progress of any race in history," his address fairly reeked with attempts at intimidation of Negroes, contempt for the U. S. Supreme Court and veiled threats against the state's one million Negroes who were left no alternative but acceptance of his proposal of a voluntary segregation plan.

The Governor stated that if the choice of Negroes is for voluntary separate school attendance, "you can count on at least as good an education for your children as they are getting now. . . . On the other hand if your answer is integration by force of law nobody knows how much education the children of either race will get. . . . Certain it is, however, that the white citizens of this state will resist integration strenuously, resourcefully, and probably with growing bitterness."

ATTACKS NAACP
The brunt of the attack of the vicious speech was borne by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. The NAACP was pointed out as an organization "which seems determined to destroy our interracial friendship and divide us into camps of racial antagonism."

(Please turn to Page Eight)

The above identical letters were received by three members of the Columbus, Miss., NAACP branch—Caleb Lyde and his wife, Mrs. Augusta Lyde, and Mack McCarter. Mr. and Mrs. Lyde are teachers; Mr. McCarter is a farmer. These three persons are the only Negroes in the Crawford community who presently are duly registered to vote. Local white men recently demanded of them they go to the registrar's office in Columbus and remove their names from the registration books. These three Negro citizens have refused to do this.

Highlanders Workshop Bans Gradual Desegregation Plan

Grade by grade desegregation of schools would create grave administrative and psychological problems and would prolong the time when serious friction might develop. This was one of the conclusions of the 48 white and Negro Southerners attending a Highlander Workshop July 24 to August 8. It was pointed out that grade by grade desegregation would in effect set up three school systems—white, Negro, and desegregated.

Plans for desegregating the Oak Ridge, Tennessee, schools were described in detail by T. H. Dunigan, Principal of Oak Ridge High School. The Washington, D. C., story of a year's successful experience with public school desegregation was told by Miss Irene Osborne. (Please turn to Page Eight)

NATIONAL JUNIOR TENNIS TOURNAMENT GETS UNDERWAY

The National Junior Tennis Tournament got underway at the NCC Courts here Monday. Rain interrupted opening-day play, however there were a few matches finished. Willis Fennell of Los Angeles who has been seeded first in both the boys' division, won the opening match in the junior boys' (15-18) division. He got a tough battle from Frank Johnson of Lynchburg, Va., before winning in straight sets, 6-3, 6-4. The feature match of the day saw Joe Williams of Durham score a three-set victory over Robert Watkins of Boston, Mass. (Please turn to Page Eight)

Watkins captured the opening set, 6-2, but Williams came back to take the next two by scores of 7-5, 6-3. No matches had been played in either of the girls' divisions up to Wednesday noon.

JUNIOR BOYS' SINGLES
George Hunter, Orangeburg, South Carolina beat Frank Johnson, Lynchburg, Va. 6-2, 6-3; Willis Fennell, Los Angeles, beat Horace Cunningham, Lynchburg, Va., 6-3, 6-4; Johnnie Scarborough, Durham, beat (Please turn to Page Eight)

STOP CRYING! Register And Vote

250,000
Negro Voters In
North Carolina
By 1956

A VOTELESS PEOPLE IS A HOPELESS PEOPLE.