friends, being a song-and-dance man and high living, he says, "People seem to think that if I had a second chance I'd hang on to more money and make wiser investments. Maybe so, but it's easy to look back and say he did this or that wrong after everything has happened. But even though I can see where I made mistakes I often say to myself: 'Joe, you didn't do too badly!'" When writing about being free with his money Joe says, "I figured, I wasn't wrong sharing with my friends. It wasn't that I was a soft touch. It was just that I enjoyed having them around. I believe that if things had been the other way around, my friends would have done the same for me." Joe reveals that he has four incomes which make the chances slim that he will ever be down and out. The incomes are $15,000 as boxing director for the International Boxing Commission; he earns two percent of the gross at the Moulin Rouge in Las Vegas; he is a partner in the Joe Louis Milk Co. in Chicago; and he is vice-president of a Detroit insurance company.

Annual Trade Week Starts With Gala NCC Homecoming Day Parade

Plans for a gala Homecoming celebration at North Carolina College on October 29 are taking shape here with students, alumni, and local citizens sharing in the promotion. Highlight of the day will be a football game between NCC's defending CIAA football champions and the Shaw University Bears of Raleigh. The game will be played on the NCC campus' O'Kelly Field at 2 p.m. W. Sherman Perry, SG head has named Miss Clara Wertz of Charlotte, Reginald Spaulding and Alfred Fisher of Durham to head the campus Homecoming Day Committee. They have enlisted the support of William Marsh, local alumni head; I. R. Holmes, National alumni president; N. B. White, president of the Durham Business and Professional Chain, and Miss Sarah Dotson, president of the Durham Chapter of the Housewives League. Among the activities planned are a parade, special bonfires and pep rallies, a homecoming dance, band recitals, tours of the campus, and gala reunions.

The group heard plans for the annual Statewide Trade and Industrial Contests to be held here at the college in April, 1956 and worked out final details for the event. The group also planned a talent program to be held in connection with the contests. W. D. Bryant, Wilmington, president of the Trade and Industrial Teachers of North Carolina, is advisor to the group and J. R. Taylor, assistant supervisor of Trade and Industrial Education for the state was in charge of arrangements.

South Africa Threatens U. N.

UN, N. Y. The Union of South Africa brazenly announced last week that if any United Nations debate got underway on the Union's flagrant race problems, then the Union would boycott the meeting. The Union claims that for nine years other nations have been trying to attack it for its treatment of Negroes and Indians. This year, however, the Union says it will not even discuss the problem. India has led in the attacks for India argues that those Indians now in South Africa went there as laborers under (Continued on Page Seven)

Farm Agents Of Durham County Plan Expansion Of 4-H Club Work

A meeting planned by the Negro Farm Agents of Durham County at which a discussion will be held with reference to expanding more fully 4-H Club work that it might be of greater benefit to the Negro citizens of the County, has been set for 8:00 p.m. on Tuesday, October 11. It will be held in the Agricultural Building on Foster Street. The meeting is being held especially with the end in view of contacting as many members as possible, who are urged to attend. The invitation, included all interested citizens.

J. C. Hubbard, Durham County Farm Demonstration Agent, in announcing the meeting stated that the objective of the sponsors is "to perfect an organization that will serve at least three purposes: To secure a better understanding, knowledge and appreciation of the 4-H Club program; to help older youth to do something to help themselves; to lend its support to a bigger and more effective 4-H Club Program in Durham County."

Hubbard stated that these objectives realized "and efficiently executed" will give Durham County the best 4-H Club program in the state.

The request is made of all former members to send the Durham County Farm Demonstrations Agents a list of persons they know to be former 4-H'ers, or and who they feel might like to attend this meeting. A written invitation will be sent all the persons whose names are given.

Any such communication should be directed to J. C. Hubbard at the Agricultural Building, Foster Street.

Scholarship Grant Of $21,000 For A&T Nurses

GREENSBORO The A&T College School of Nursing has just received a $21,000 grant from the Richardson Foundation, Inc., of Greensboro and New York.

The out right gift, provided for the purpose of advancing financial aid to student nurses, is to be used during the next three-years. Junior and Senior students in nursing are eligible for this aid, granted to worthy enrollees on the basis of financial need, scholarship, reliability and earnestness of purpose. It is the largest scholarship gift ever received by the college.

The announcement of the gift, made this week by Dr. F. D. Bluford, president of the college, also listed the first winners, all juniors in the School of Nursing which was opened first at the college in 1953. The winners will receive aid to cover their entire expenses during the current academic year.

Included in the list were:

'I'd Do The Same Thing Again,' Says Joe Louis

CHICAGO Joe Louis, reminiscence over his ring career in the November EBONY, says, "I'd do the same thing over again without changing any part of my past life." There would be no changes in his life, says Joe, he would not divorce his ex-wife Marva, who is now married to a Chicago physician. Joe, writing for the 10th anniversary issue of EBONY, states that his divorce is the one thing he will always regret.

As for his bad investments, spending lavishly on his
