White-Stuart Nuptials Said In Thanksgiving Rites At Greensboro

GREENSBORO
Miss Alberta Raye White became the bride of Dr. James L. Stuart in Thanksgiving Day ceremonies on Thursday, Nov. 24, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Manuel, 1012 Ross Ave., Greensboro.

The Reverend Julius T. Douglas, Pastor of the Saint James Presbyterian Church, performed the double ring ceremonies before an open fire place flanked with white flowers. Familiar wedding music was played prior to the wedding.

Given in marriage by C. O. Howell, the bride wore a champagne street length coat dress of celeste satin with insets of chantilly lace. Petit velvet flowers, which clustered her hat were accented by several rhinestone centers and she carried a white prayer book topped with a lavender throated orchid.

Mrs. Nan Manuel was matron of honor and Calvin Irvin was best man. Hostesses for the Thanksgiving nuptials were, Misses: Julia Ruth Morrison and Catherine Truesdale; Mesdames: Betty Harris, Carolyn Humphrey, Eula Vereen, and Ann Watts McKlaney.

Among the out-of-towners attending the event included: Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Burton, Annapolis, Md.; Miss Annie L. Mangum, E. Pratt Wright, Zora Walker, Cary, Wilson, Boykin, Mitchell, Bullock and Walker.

Gist, Hampton, Va.; Herman Gist, Nashville, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. William Hayes, Annapolis, Md.; Lawrence Davis, Florence, S. C., and George Bonner, Kannapolis, N. C. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. White of Lawrence, Kansas and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Mary Stuart and the late William Stuart of Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Flower Lovers Feted By Mrs. Margaret Marsh

On Sunday, November 27, The Lyon Park Rose Garden Club climaxed Flower month. November was designated as Flower Month, for planting of bulbs, and planting and moving shrubs and pansies. The group met at the Harriet Tubman Branch YWCA on Umstead Street.

Gardener N. J. Curry presided over the meeting. The program opened with the club song, "God Bless The Roses." Prayer was offered by Gardener Elnora Smith. A solo was rendered by Gardener Elizabeth Bullock and presentation of the speaker, J. W. Flowers, Horticulturist at A&T College at Greensboro. His subject was "The Garden Story," which ended with a movie that was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Members of the various clubs brought greetings. Remarks were made by Gardener Alice Jones, president. Other guests present were Mrs. T. W. Flowers and son, and J. C. Hubbard. A social hour followed, which carried out the Christmas motif.

Garden Club Closes Project For November

The Azalea Garden Club met Monday night, November 28, at the home of Mrs. Margaret Marsh, on Linwood Avenue. The Garden Gate was opened by Mrs. Rebecca Clark, who presented a lovely reading to the club. The business session was entirely consumed with perfecting plans for the forthcoming "Holiday House," an annual Christmas project of the club. This impressive project may be enjoyed by the public on December 18, from 5 to 8 o'clock at the beautiful home of Mrs. Cornelia Johnson, 1901 Cecil Street.

The hostess then served a delicious repast to the following members and guests: Miss Ella Britton, guest, Misses Geneva Richardson, Cleo Russell, Mary Baines, Mesdames Rebecca Clark, Cornelia Johnson, Sallie Harris, Julia Lucas, Roxie Davis, Lena Richardson, Effie Cotton, Banetta Peele, Janie Wheeler, Charlotte Miller, Amanda Long, Maryland McCollum, Thomasine Register, Gladys McNeil, Annie Perry
