Daughters Of Dorcas

Mrs. Ada Leach was hostess to her "Dorcas Sisters" and friends on Thursday evening April 12th. This was an "Anniversary" day for Mr. and Mrs. Leach and she entertained in this "Festive Style." The scheduled program was on "Health" and after the important reports on the club's work of "Love and Cheer" Mr. William Barbee gave an excellent and informative address on his work in the health department of the city. Mr. Barbee charmed everyone as he first told of the determination and courage he possessed and used in securing his position. He explained the term "Health Education" did not apply solely to health of body, but one's whole being—physical, mental, and spiritual. He said there must be cooperation, best results come through organization—everyone must be "community-wise" in fact his talk was well worth anyone's consideration and all appreciated the opportunity to hear him. Mrs. Leach was most gracious and everyone received hearty welcomes in helping her two-fold celebration.

Woman's Fellowship Service

On Sunday afternoon April 15th at 5 o'clock, the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Titus held an unusual and very inspiring service. The church was full and everyone enjoyed the very splendid rendition of choice music by the excellent choir from St. Augustine's College, Raleigh. This choir of forty voices is directed by Mr. John Moore, who showed evidence of a real master of music. Mrs. Elizabeth D. Kountz of Salisbury—the Diocesan Interracial Choir and who was an official delegate to the General Convention at Honolulu last Sept. was guest speaker-showing slides of that wonderful assembly of church people, not only from America, but from around the world. Mrs. Kountz is an excellent speaker and held everyone's attention. The choir was served a delicious supper in the "Parish House" and enjoyed immensely. The auxiliary is grateful to all who share in helping make this service a grand occasion.
