of assigned personal service to his Church. 6. Show evidence of Christian character and conduct.

The Scout is expected to fulfill all of these standards. The Pastor may substitute equivalent standards for (3) and (4).

There are different standards for Second Class Scouts and First Class Scouts. The first six are for a Tenderfoot Scout in a Unit.

There are ten for the Second Class Scout and the First Class Scout. In all of these the Pastor may substitute the equivalents. Unit Leaders, contact your Pastor and get your boys on the way.

Scouters and Scouts, when you read this article Yours Truly will be attending the 11th National Intermediate Advance Training Course at Cimarron, New Mexico. The Boy Scouts of America owns a 127,000-acre Ranch here. A little learning is a dangerous thing so I think I will try to learn a little more. Until the second week in June, Henry.

Toddlers To Get Diplomas In Special Exercise

Present Alfonso Elder of North Carolina College will award diplomas to graduates of the college's nursery school at exercises in the Education Building Auditorium at 7:30 p.m. Monday. The public is invited.

WATCH THAT BOY

By HENRY W. GILLIS, District Scout Executive

CHURCH SCOUT AWARD... The Boy Scouts of America maintains that no boy can grow into the best kind of citizenship without recognizing his obligation to God.

The Boy Scout Movement stresses the importance of the Scout's religious training is the responsibility of the Church and the home.

The Protestant Committee on Scouting in cooperation with the major Protestant denominations has developed this Church-centered program for Scouts affiliated with Protestant Churches and makes available the God and Country Award to Boy Scouts and Explorers who have fulfilled specific standards involving their active participation in the total program of their respective Church. Any Scout may, with the approval of his Pastor or Unit Leader, participate in this program whether his Unit is connected with his own Church or some other institution.

Each Scout carries on his Scout Program in his Unit, and he carries on the religious program in his own Church under the direction of his Pastor.

The adoption of this Church Award program by any Church is purely optional. It does not involve the advancement personal of the local Boy Scout Council. This is an award of the Church, made by the Church, on the fulfillment of religious standards established by the Church.

Scouting recognizes the basic importance of religion in the process of character building and gives strong incentives toward the attainment of spiritual ideals. At the same time it has avoided any semblance of giving religious instruction because this is the prerogative and the responsibility of the Church and the home.

Following is a summary of the requirements for the God and Country Award. These standards are included in the Service Record Book which Unit Leaders throughout Durham and County have on hand. This book the boy receives when the
