FAMOUS FISK JUBILEE SINGERS OFF TO TOUR EUROPE AGAIN

NASHVILLE, Tenn. Fisk University's famed Jubilee Singers will set sail next month for an eight-week goodwill concert tour of western Europe, it was revealed here by Dr. Charles S. Johnson, Fisk president.

This will be the second European tour made by the full complement of Fisk Jubilee Singers since 1873, when the original group of ex-slaves and freedom captivated the concert-going public and crown heads of the continent with their rendition of the Negro spiritual.

Besides introducing the spiritual to the musical world, this original group is noted for having raised the funds to erect the first permanent educational structure for Negroes in the world. Named in their honor, Jubilee Hall is a landmark of the Fisk campus.

The contemporary singers are related to the group organized in 1871 by an unbroken line of succession. Their direction since 1949 has been the noted author-arranger-composer, John W. Work, whose father sang with the Jubilee Singers as a student at Fisk and directed the group from 1898 to 1916.

Dr. Johnson stated that the singers, now numbering seventeen, will leave the Nashville campus about Sept. 15. Thirty-seven concerts have been scheduled in England, France, Italy and Spain, as well as several radio performances. If time permits, they will also appear in the Scandinavian countries.

Shirley Taylor Given Colorful Kitchen Shower

GREENSBORO Miss Shirley Taylor, Bride-elect of Henry Frye was showered with gifts at the home of Mrs. Bert Piggott Sunday afternoon.

Gifts for the kitchen were presented to the honoree from a table centered with a miniature cart bearing a colorful umbrella. The refreshment table was covered with a pink cloth and decorated with ivy leaves and gladioli. Crystal candelabra held green tapers.

Among the guests was Miss Janie Goodwin of Spartanburg, S. C., who was a bridesmaid at the wedding on August 2.

Efforts To Save Lad With Heart Holes In Vain

William Henry Taylor, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Taylor, 817 Harnett Street, Wilmington, died Tuesday morning July 31 at 3:20 A.M. in the Recovery Room at Duke Hospital, as a result of a heart operation.

Little William Henry was born November 11, 1948 with a hole in his heart, but not until late in 1945 was it discovered what caused the frequent attacks of pneumonia that he suffered. Twice a year the pneumonia attacks would occur, but in 1945 he suffered three attacks. He was never able to attend school but was taught at home by social workers. In July 1955, little William Henry was taken to Duke Hospital for an operation to remove a tumor from his neck.

William Henry entered the operating room with one hole
