PAGE TEN

<text><text><text><text> 10 Shown here are, left to right, Mrs. Jocelyn Stevens, who plays the part of Christine Nichols; John Lennon in the role of "Grandma Letty"; and Dr. Ross Townes, who will be seep as Cyril B. Hoskins.

Above is a scene from "MORE THAN MEETS THE EYE," the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority play to be presented at Hillside High School on Thursday evening, Oc-tober 25 at 8:15.

-Eagles-

(Continued from page 7) Another Montgomery aerial,

this one travelling 33 yards to Bill Lewis, set up the Eagles' second touchdown in the second quarter. Cliff Jackson bucked ver from the two for the score. When Moody raced back the October 2.

second half kick-off all the way Rev. D. A. Johnston, pastor of St. Joseph's officiated at the church services and at gravefor Virginia State's first score, it put the Trojans only one church services and at grave touchdown behind the "visitors. side rites at Beechwood ceme But the Eagles struck back tery.

Virginians.

The hard running Jackson raced 34 yards for one of the third quarter scores and Mont-gomery, catching the Virginia Rocky Mount and subsequently defense by surprise, scooted 55 yards on the quarterback yards the third quarter.

man end Ken Easley.

fourth quarter with an insur-ance touchdown, tallying on Tom Johnson's plunge from the two of the extra points for the Eagles, and Curt Camack kicked one of of two extra points for the Virginians.

Bettye Pratt, as well as by Dr. Richard Barksdale, John Bailey,

The presentation of a play has been the chapter's annual scho-

Funeral services for Milton R. Grant, Durham resident, were held at the St. Joseph's AME church in Durham recently. Mr. Grant died suddenly on

FUNERAL RITES CONDUCTED

DURHAM FOR M. R. GRANT

quickly in the third quarter to tally two touchdowns and put the game out of reach of the William and Ada Grant of Edgecombe county, where he was born. He received his early training at the public schools of attended Shaw University and

NEW YORK

or to provide an explanation done it." why the American News Com- More done it." More than 2,000 people view-ed the body according to the undertaker. He stated, "We left the casket open all day all days and proceed that organization in up to the time of the funeral." A proceed that organization in up to the time of the funeral." A proceed that organization and Dr. Hobert S. Jarrett, chair-the parked for a short while, and the tan parked for a short while, and the oany continues its policy of dis-Montgomery's-(Continued from Page One) decision," he said when asked which of the two major parties he felt offered the greatest hope

Dramatic-

lines.

(Continued from Page One)

The tugging was Cpl Wise,

Class Reunion-He admitted that he voted for Stevenson in the 1952 election, but repeated that he was not yet (Continued from Page One) Cox, Jr., is the chain's Grand certain as to which candidate he would support in the coming Marshal for the parade.

NCC's grand marshals are Miss Valeria Powe, Joseph Becton, and William Penn. "I'm not a politician, and l do not plan to enter into active politics," he hastily reminded Alumni Headquarters have been established in Rooms 106 and 108 of the Men's Gymnareal solution to the problems of desegregation in the South fies in increased political activi-

1946's reunion. Ex-Durhamite

(Continued from Page One) ton Lee, Sr. and L. J. Willie. Headquarters for the firm is at 1702, Fifth avenue in the Booker T. Washington insurance company building.

(Continued from Page One) gratitude, with full awarenes of the grave responsibility of the office, and with a firm resolve to devote every resource at my command to bring to fuller fru ition the ideals and purposes for which this college stands." Dr. Karl W. Bigelow, pro unity among them as human beings and less about the differ ences that tend to divide.

APPLE

A/AIH

The dead woman was employ-ed at the University Laundry. Hargraves worked at the Ack-land Art museum project.

LATH ALSTON

After North Carolina College Homecoming was the last he saw of her, he Hargraves said that after he left Mrs. Edwards he walked down the block to Long Meadow Farms Store where he bough an ice cream cone and then went whose parachute had not open-ed. He plunged into Sgt. John-son's lines, and somehow man-aged to thread his way through across the street to choir practice at the First Baptist Church Late Wednesday night, Har-graves was taken from the local been established in Rooms 106 aged to thread his way through and 108 of the Men's Gymna-sium. An 11 member "Ad Hoc Com-mittee" has planned a full calen-dar of activities for the Class of last of activities for the Class of jail to the County jail in Hills boro. He was further questioned there, and on Friday afternoon he broke down and admitted happened so fast, I didn't realize just what had happened. I only Hargraves signed a lenthy con-

Just what had happened. I only knew something was wrong. I thought at first that my re-serve had come open. Then I heard Cpl Wise yelling at me to turn him loose." Cpl Wise, looking up, had seen what had happened. He also saw something else. Sgt Johnson's parachute was full of holes, apparently torn by the jolt of grabbing Cpl Wise. "I told him to turn me loose, when I saw the coultion of his 'thute, thinking we could both pull or reserves," said Cpl Wise. law officers found the woman' body floating at the precise spo body floating at the precise spot than the others, but the danger was that his 'chute might have collapsed, what with the extra weight and the holes in it." If this had happened within said Sgt John-pull or reserves," said Cpl Wise. "We weren't going much faster hundred feet to go, so I decided to try to get rid of Cpl Wise. I new he'd have time to pull his eserve but as it turned out he the ground.

(Continued from Page One) church meeting. She left her daughter at the home of her sister, Mrs. Bumpass on Sunset drive, and told the girl she was "going to pick up Leroy and take him down to Chatham County to get some money."

"We can get court decisions but the real problem lies in their implementation. The recent court decisions in the area of segregation are largely unimplemented because of a lack of political activity on the part of Negroes in the South. "The (southern) States will never do anything to bring about the implementation of court decisions or erasing any of

ribution.

for Negroes.

election.

this reporter.

ty by Negroes.

Rev. King asserted that the court decisions or erasing any of the many racial injustices. This Dr. Playerwill only come about as we are able to wield political power through the national govern-

Turning to Alabama and the Montgomery bus boycott, Rev. King declared that the Negroes of Montgomery were prepared to carry on the boycott until a court decision is obtained.