Now that the New York Yankees have won the World Series, downtown, on Church and Third Streets, things are back to normal. Each day of the first two games, everything was in a frenzy around town. The words, "Brooklyn Dodgers", was on every man, woman and child's lips. Beer was being sold faster than the bartenders could move it across the bar, the soda jerks were kept on the run at local drug stores; the whole town had a bad case of "baseball fever".

The Carolina Fair of Winston-Salem will start October 23-27 at the Winston-Salem Fair grounds. The fair will open with the gigantic "Mark Shows" on the midway, with loads of fun for the children and adults. All city children will be admitted free, October 23rd. The gates will open at 10:00 A.M. each day, and October 24th will be county day for Forsyth, Davie, Davidson, Surry, Yadkin, and Stokes school children.

This fair, which has one of the largest exhibits in this section of the State, has such educational Departments as the Agricultural Department with William N. Knight, Forsyth County Farm Agent Director; J. A. Lowe, manager of Kernersville Division and E. L. Cundiff, As-

GOP Candidates Are Heard In Twin City

WINSTON-SALEM
Joe New, candidate for Congress running against Ralph Scott in the Fifth District, spoke to the United Civic Organization here Thursday evening, October 11th, at 8:00 P.M. Mr. New said his party stood for Peace, Prosperity and Progress. He stressed Christian American representation for all the people regardless of race, creed or color. New said he would work for easier credit expansion for the small business man.

Alderman William R. Crawford, and Mayor Marshall Kurfes were out in forefront, when the Board of Aldermen met Monday, October 15th, to discuss the pay raise plan for City employees. The Mayor recommended that the increase be put in effect October 1. Mayor Kurfes and Alderman Crawford were fighting for the Mayor's recommendation.

Nathan Simms of 1501 Fitch Street was appointed to the Centerville Precinct Committee to serve out the term that was vacated by George Foxwell. Simms, who is a member of the Columbia Terrace Civic Club, which sponsored movement to elect two Negroes to the Centerville Precinct, (Mrs. Margaret Cason and George Foxwell) is a member of the Mt. Zion Baptist Church and one of the chairmen of the Laymans League.

Margaret Dunlap, 1216 East 19th Street, swore out a warrant against Charlie Lawrence, for an alleged assault Wednesday, October 10th. That same night about midnight, a fire swept her apartment causing nearly $1,400 worth of damage. Police investigating the case, were looking for Charlie Lawrence, to question him in connection with the fire.

Wake Forest College had its dedication service last week.

WINSTON-SALEM
Another candidate presented to the United Civic Organization was newspaperman, Alexander Barnes of Durham, running for State Senator from Durham County. Barnes had high praise for the Republican Administration and asked that Eisenhower be re-elected because he had done so many things for suppressed minorities, the working man and peace of the nation. J. L. Lamiter, president of the United Civic Organization, says that on Thursday night October 18, the UCO presented Dr. Helen Edmonds, who seconded President Eisenhower's nomination, and Atty W. Z. Woods, YDC National Committeeman. The speakers will discuss the issues of their parties.

around the campus of Atkins and Carver. This big homecoming event will be held Friday, October 26th at the Bowman Gray Stadium. Atkins barn fire will be held Thursday night, October 25th. It will mark the beginning of our homecoming festivities. With a fire burning high, and the Atkinites leading other Atkinites in many yells, the moral will be raised very high. The question now is who will be crowned "Miss Atkins High"? Will it be Yolanda Miller of the Freshman class? Elmiria Wells of the Sophomore class? Joan Truesdale of the Junior class? or Myrtle Young of the Senior class? Well, fellow Atkinites, I can't school you as yet, but in about two weeks, you'll be able to school yourself—Dig?

TALK OF THE TEENS

BY JUANITA SHELL

CLUB MEETINGS: Another week of exciting happenings around Atkins—so let's not waste time in getting started. With less than a week remaining in the first six weeks of the school year, everyone has been busy with plays, organizing clubs and seeing movies. The Science Club presented a one-act comedy, Wednesday, in the school auditorium. This comedy was presented in regard to The National Fire Prevention Week. The act included Howard Shaw, Gloria Williams, Gloria Fuller, LaVone Jones, and Graham Campbell.

ATKINITES ARE SERIES CONSCIOUS: The World Series seemed to be the main interest of the Atkinites last week. During study hours, you could see them taking off from the gym to the auditorium to watch TV. Atkinites favorite team was the Brooklyn Dodgers, even though they lost. Atkinites would like to wish them better luck next time.
