Visits Mother

Miss Geraldine O. Williams was home this past weekend visiting her mother Mrs. Alma Williams and family of 507 Dunbar Street. Miss Williams is employed with the District of Columbia Public School System, Washington, D. C.

Visited Hometown

Hubert and Lloyd Curtis of Cleveland, Ohio, flew to Durham last week to visit their relatives, and to attend the homecoming of North Carolina College.

Mrs. Gladys McNeill of 1604 Fayetteville St., and Mrs. Flossie E. Dunston of 716 Glenn St., are patients at Lincoln Hospital.

Visited Howard University
Dr. and Mrs. Howard E. Wright and son visited Washington, D. C. recently. They were accompanied by Mrs. Carlotta Holmes. The occasion for this visit was the Coronation ceremonies of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity at the Rankin Memorial Chapel on Howard University's campus. For their queen, the Omegas chose Miss Beverly Ann Wright, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Howard E. Wright of Durham. Following the coronation, the queen and her court, the Wright's and Mrs. Holmes attended a reception at the Omega House. The reception was given in honor of the Queen and her Court.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry White and children Michael and Sharon of Roanoke, Va., were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Thompson and daughter Lynette of 302 Lawson St., the weekend of the 19th. Mr. White is superintendent of the Burrell Memorial Hospital there. While here they attended the NCC's homecoming activities.

Mr. Amos Norwood of Philadelphia, Pa., was week-end guest of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Moses R. Norwood of Cecil Street. President of the Philadelphia Chapter of Saint Augustine's College alumni, Norwood was in this area attending homecoming activities in Raleigh on last Saturday. Accompanying him to Durham was their mother, Mrs. Temple A. Norwood of Oxford.

The O. P. Beautifiers

During the month of October, the Oakwood Park Beautifiers held their regular meeting at the homes of Mrs. C. Sanders, and Mrs. G. Stone with the president, Mrs. C. Sanders, and vice president, Mrs. C. Blunt presiding. Reports were heard from the following committees: Program, Touring and Recreation. Mrs. C. Tucker won a blue ribbon for her flower arrangement at the Flower Show given by the Lyon Park Rose Garden Club. Refreshments were served at each meeting and members attending were Mesdames C. Tucker, G. Carter, M. Favors, C. Blunt, G. Frazier, O. Brown, C. Sanders, R. Fulton, E. Sumpster, J. Perry, L. James, C. Robertson, R. Pridgen. The next meeting will be held at the home of E. Sumpster, 2602 White Oak Street, November 14.

Mrs. Royal Entertains

On Saturday night, October 20, Mrs. Lula M. Royal entertained the 6-W Social Club in her new apartment on E. Pettigrew Street, which was beautifully decorated with colorful fall flowers. A delightful party plate was served by the hostess. After a period of games and fun, club prizes were presented to Mrs. Swannie Wilcher and Mrs. Pauline Boxley. The meeting ended with a surprise Birthday party for the vice president, Mrs. Marie Penny. She was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts. As the jolly evening ended with "Happy Birthday" the hostess presented each with a Turkey apple and a slice of the birthday cake. Visiting guests were Mrs. June Wilcher, little Miss Pat Campbell, Messrs Roosevelt Campbell, Ed. Boxley, and Wallace Royal. Other members present were Mesdames Annie Mitchell, Pearl Spearman, Ruth Campbell Irene Hall, Ann Goods, Elizabeth Edwards and Virginia Pitchford.

Azalea Garden Club

On Monday, October 22, the Azalea Garden Club met with Mrs. Harris on Rosewood Avenue, the home was beautifully arrayed with many kinds of fall flowers. After short opening activities Mrs. Effie Cotton, the president, presided over the business session. During this period flower arrangements were discussed, five of which received blue ribbons at the flower show sponsored by the Lyon Park Garden Club, the preceding day. Dates were set for the Holiday House December 18 and the Christmas Party December 27. Mrs. Harris served her guest and club members a delicious repast. Mrs. Gladys McNeill closed the garden gate as she expressed the club members' thanks and appreciation to Mrs. Harris for being such a gracious hostess, although convalescing from a multiple fracture of her right leg. Enjoying Mrs. Harris' graciousness were Guest:

Golden Age Club Anniversary

The W. D. Hill Golden Age Club held its fifth anniversary on October 28, at the W. D. Hill Recreation center on Fayetteville Street. Mrs. Kitola Curtis was mistress of ceremony. The supervisor, Mrs. C. G. Hargrove gave words of welcome. The history of the club was given by the president, Mrs. M. B. Robbins. Mrs. D. A. Johnston was guest speaker and used as her subject—"The Butterfly", which was beautifully done and was thoroughly enjoyed by the group. Other participants were Miss Annie Futrell, Mesdames Marie Judd, Mary L. Yancey, Lillian Buchanan, Arnetta Barnes, Rosetta Southerland and Mrs. Mattie Curry's group. The banquet followed the next evening, October 23 at the same place, with the president, Mrs. Robbins presiding. Mrs. Carlotta Holmes in a brief but timely speech gave the group some fine words for thought. A delicious dinner was served by the members. Around fifty persons were in attendance including friends. Remarks were made by I. R. Holmes, director of the Center. This was a good time for everyone, and a gala affair.

The Arts and Crafts Department of the Drucilla Chapter order of the Eastern Star sponsored a Bed-Spread Raffle for the benefit of the Chapter on October 25. Mrs. Gladys A. Dawkins is chairman of this department and is happy to say that Mrs. Nellie J. Bynum of 1111 Cornell Street was the winner of the bed-spread.

Mrs. Rhodes Entertains

for Her Mother, Mrs. Harrington
The Sylvia Williams Mission Circle met at the home of Mrs. Gladys Rhodes at 508 Price St., on October 7 at 4 o'clock with Mrs. Leathers presiding. The devotion was conducted by Mrs. Susie Alston. The meeting was opened by singing "I Am Thine

O Lord," followed by Scripture, Cor. 3:1-5 by Mrs. Lula Green. Mrs. Alston offered prayer. Minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved, after discussing old and new business a collection of $4.78 was taken while the members repeated scripture readings.

The activities, many and varied, were given by each member who try each day to do some good deed. The work of the true Missionary, "Because the fields are white but the laborers are few." The lesson taken from the "Helper" "Look unto Him and He will Direct thy Path." "The Field of Individual Service" "Workers Together With God." "The Value of Worship in the Missionary Meeting." These were beautifully discussed by Mrs. Boykin and were enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Rhodes served a delicious course, after which sentence prayers were said for Mrs. Harrington.

The recently established employment agency of St. Mark AME Zion Church is an independent charitable organization with no connection with any other employment agency in the city.

The committee will cultivate relationships with various employers in Durham for the purpose of placing workers. This service will be free of charge and open to the entire community.
