

Church Burns Mortgage

A Mortgage burning ceremony was held recently at the Pine Grove Baptist church as the church held its homecoming services. At top is an exterior view of the church, located outside of Creedmoor. At left is the church's pastor, Rev. Louis Wade who delivered an address on "Returning Home" at the special services.

Follows: Vern Mack, Walter Loring, Ann Chipley, E. T. Simons, Ann Carter Pollard, Raeford Porter, George Arnold, Ernest Illman, James T. Diggs, Ann Northup, Ann Mercer Kesler, Ed Shewmake, Susan Moore, Jean Simon, Al Webb, and Roosevelt Truesdale. The exhibit can be seen from 11 a.m. until 4 p.m. every day during this month and also from 6 to 9 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday.

Speaker Dwells On Importance Of Right Traits

GREENSBORO
The high development of three personality traits were last Sunday described at A&T College as being important to the success of man.
The speaker was L. C. Dowdy, dean of the school of Education and General Studies at the college, who delivered the main address, at the annual observance of Men's Day. The program was sponsored by the campus chapter of the YMCA.

Speaking from the subject, "Enlightened Man For an Enlightened Age", he challenged his audience to the development of the power of self-evaluation and examination so that one might be able to live with himself; the development of self control and self discipline which allows a man to set himself to a task and stick with it and a continually increasing intensity in one's faith in God necessary to facing up to the complex problems of today's world.

The above picture shows the homeland. Bishop Pope was the honoree at a testimonial which was held at Mother Zion Church, New York City, Friday night. He will sail for Liberia on Friday.

Church Choir Is Heard In "The Messiah"

The First Baptist Church Senior Choir, presented Handel's "Messiah", in the auditorium of the church, Sunday, Dec. 9 at 8 p.m. The choir was under the direction of Dr. James A. Dillard, Minister of music at First Baptist. Guest singers with solo parts were: Mrs. Vivien King Bright, soprano; Mrs. Peola Johnson, singer and music student at Winston-Salem Teachers College; Leon Randolph, tenor of Washington, N. C.; and Cyrus Gwyn, basso and music student at Howard University in Washington, D. C. James Derr accompanied the program at the piano and Mrs. Martha S. Atkins, presided at the console of the organ.

Whiskey Making Firm Sponsors Nationwide Plea For Moderation

NEW YORK
A powerful plea for moderation during one of the most hazardous times for driving—the New Year's Eve holiday—will be widely published by The House of Seagram during the final hours of 1956. The message—the latest in Seagram's twenty-second consecutive year of moderation advertising—suggests that "Tonight when it's 'One for the Road' be sure it's coffee."

coffee to bars and taverns throughout the country by Seagram wholesalers. The licensees will provide this coffee without charge to consumers when it's time for the "one for the road." "It is Seagram's hope," Mosley says, "that the annual publication of this message will have a cumulatively important effect in furthering the cause of moderation."

This message was first published by Seagram in a year-end moderation statement preceding the new year 1954. George E. Mosley, vice president in charge of advertising and sales promotion, Seagram Distillers Company, notes that there has been widespread endorsement on the part of many groups and individuals from all walks of life for Seagram's efforts to promote public safety. The message is published by The House of Seagram together with the entire membership of the National Licensed Beverage Association, representing some 50 thousand bar and tavern owners and operators in America, and the National Retail Liquor Stores Association, with its membership of some 30 thousand package store owners. The 1000 and 1750 line ads will appear in 84 newspapers in 68 leading markets, with a combined circulation of 20 million. The publication of the moderation message is further implemented by the distribution of
