WATCH THAT BOY

BY HENRY W. GILLIS

GREEN BAR BILL SAYS | cite the Scout Oath; (4) Each It Rolling...Keep what Scout grasps pole of patrol flag ING? Your patrol of with left hand, raises right course! With lots of outdoor achand, recite patrol pledge vities. But also with indoor a You are off to a good start tivities that are tops. Patrol tities that are tops. Patrol betings, in other words, every ek, as far as possible. What'll make them tops? In the patrol record book-100 percent? Swell! What's our week, as far as possible. What'll make them tops? Here are three points that'll dues situation? How's the patrol treasury? Where do we stand (1) Each meeting with help: (1) Each interesting when treasury: where a some thething that will teach overy in advancement? Lets do some ow something new in Scout-thing about it! Check uniform fellow something new in Scout-ing and will knit the whole gang closer together; (2) Each body completely uniformed.

part of the meeting of interest to all the fellows-short and Next for some snappy coach-ing. (1) Realistic first aid, for mappy, with plenty of action and little gabbing; (3) Each fellow with a definite respon-sibility to carry out in making instance: Make "blood" out of cocoa-water paste by adding red fruit color. Smear it on to indicate cuts and scratches and arthe meeting a success. So far, so good. Now what about the things that go into the meeting? terial bleeding, (2) Have buzzers on hand for signaling prac Well, you probably know the old saying, "Mind-your P's and tice, ropes for knotting (3) Flag for practice in folding to correctly, handling it properly.

Q's." In making up a patrol meeting, you have to "Mind (4) Maps and compas ur C's and P's: Ceremonies mapping. Checking, and Coaching. These Green Bar Bill says: Read are the THREE C's. Prospects, Plans, and Play, These are the next weeks' paper for the end of this week's story. three P's. If you remember those, you can't go wrong.

Durham Divisional Round-table Meeting will be held Tues-day, January 8th at the S. L. Warren Library at 7:30 pm. All Let's take the C's first: Start your meeting with a short cere-mony. It's a swell morale builder and makes you feel that leaders and Den-Mothers are you are really settling down to asked to be present.

business. Here are a few, or make up one of your own: (1) The whole patrol faces the Flag John L. Lambeth, from Washthe Pledge of Allegiance; (2) beth Smith, from Washington, Newest and oldest members re-cite the Scout Law together; Until next week, A Happy (3) Light three candles and re-New Year for All...Henry W.

Gil Riley, Ex-Hillside Ace, Leads NCC To Win Over Savannah

WILMINGTON | had held opponents to some 5 d Brown's hustling North points per game. The Eagles entered the Jack Carolina College basketball team whipped Savannah State College 94 to 74 here Dec. 22 at Had allowed opponents some 60 Williston Industrial H i g h points per contest School

NGC's Gilbert Riley, 6-4 sopho-more forward from Dugham hit 14 of 14 free throws fried. He also swished six baskets to cop high scoring honors with 26 points overall record. On Monday and Tuesday of this week, the Eagles played two additional non-conference against Jackson and Grambling colleges in Miss., and Louisiana respectively. Athletics All-American team named here Saturday.

Saturday night marks the Eagles first 1957 appearance at home. They meet Ben Whaley's Hampton Pirates. In the Savannah State game

Tigers Bob Robbins, with 3 field goals against NCC's 27. 23

Four of Brown's boys, in addition to Riley, hit the two column scoring division. They were Joe Alston, 10; Sam Jones, 11; James Sligh, 14; and Carlton Bell, 15.

Sligh's 14 points included 10 for 10 field goals.

for 10 field goals. Jackson College, sporting a 7-0 record before their last Saturday clash with J. B. Mc-Lendon's Tennessee State Col-lege five, at the time ranked as 1,418 yards rushing and pass-the residue field attornal is in the nation's fifth club in total ing to rank third nationally in defense. The Jackson basketeers total offense.

See? It's Next Year!

The victory gave NCC a 7-1 All-America 11 LITTLE ROCK, ARK. Two Grambling College stars were listed on the 1956 Nation al Association of Intercollegiate named here Saturday. The 33-man squad, represen ting 10-states, was selected by a seven-man committee of coach-es and athletic directors. Edward Murray, a halfback given to nod at center. whose forte is dodging tackles, Alvin Richarden 8' and Alvin Richardson, a 249 pound tackle with a charge like a runaway beer-truck, were the Grambling players honored.

Richardson was the only Ne-gro college gridder named to a first-team berth. Murray, a 160-pound junior Tailback from Houston, Texas

Edward Murray, who gained 1,418 yards in nine games for Coach Eddle Robinson's Gram-bling Tigers took over one of and also accepted the resignaed from Grambling.

ently. Tennesse

NASHVILLE, Tenn. ssee A and I State Uni-to fill the right end spot. Wal-Grambling; Louis Underwood ssee A and I State University and Grambling College, the number one and number three teams respectively among ters is from Fort Worth, Texas. 212-pound right end, Gram Second team selections were bling; Ernest Williams, 175- lb as follows: Charles Figgs, 200-quarterback, and Charles Sparbling; Ernest Williams, 175- lb Negro colleges, placed eight men on the MWAA All-Conferpound left end, and Robert row Grant, 170-pound halfback, Thornton, 215-pound left tackle, Jackson-State; Percy Hines, 170 Inoraton, 215-pound left tackie, Jackson-State; Fergy Hines, 170 both of Jackson State; Samuel Coleman, 235-pound left guard. Grambling; James Glover, 220-pound center, Kentucky State; Rudolph Adams, 205-pound right guard, Central State; Joe ence team. Five of these men were from the Tennessee State quad while these were select-The Tennessee State national championship eleven dominated the polling for the All-Midwest Atlantic Association All-Star squad in the balloting which took place at the Association's MWAA Moguls Accept Resignation annual meeting in Chicago re

SUGA:

Tennessee State And Grambling Place Eight Men

On Mid-Western AA All Conference Grid Team

15 Durhamites

Will Hered les

Mr. Wonderful l

Of Richards As Loop Treasurer

CHICAGO, ILL Delegates to the annual meet-ing of the Mid-West Athletic Association concluded their de-liberations recently at the Washington Park YMCA in Chicago, Following the annual address of President George F. David of Central State College, renorts were heard from Dr. A Tennessee State. The tourna-Tennessee State. The tourna-ment will be held February 21, Alvin Richardson, 6' 3" 240-Alvin Richardson, 6' 3" 240-Kentucky State College; E. 22 and 23, 1957. Field Meet will be held at Con-Field Meet will be held at Con-versity, Commissioner of Flay-11. The Conference voted to return to Chicago in 1957 for its annual meeting.

Over Japanese

The Association accepted the resignation of Dr. Richards who NEW YORK The Dodgers' recent junket to served with distinction as sec Japan prompts Ed Fitzgerald, editor of Sport magazine, to Durg Tigers took over one of and also accepted the resignal editor of Sport maggine, to bite halfback posts. Murray, 5th iton of J. D. Lowery, a veteran suggest that the time is ripe to 9", 160 pounder, is fourth high-est ranking player in total of-fense according to the National fonse is Houston, Texas. Central State's great fullback Herbert Drummond took top ation this week. The ATA, oldest accrediting

SATURDAY, JAN. 5, 1957 - THE CAROLINA TIMES

Ran

By Ted Carroll

Title Bout ...

body for sepia tennis players, Issued its annual rating from the office of secretary Arthur P. Chippey here this week.

Ryland replaced hard swing. ing left hander George Stewart as the top male player of the year. Stewart was pushed down to second place. Miss Gibson, highly ranked in international has been a perennial play, choice for the number one spot among the women by the ATA Southerners dominate the various divisions of the young net-ters, and a host of Durhamites C. and Lt. John J. Malavas, ters, and a host of Durhamites received rankings by the ATA. Dayton, Ohio. Some 15 Durhamites were ranked among the singles play-ers and eight combination from Durham received ranking, among the doubles teams.

15 years age bracket. The doubles combination of Williams and Irvin Holmes was ranked in first place among the 15-18 year olds. Othere receiving rankings Othere receiving rankings were Sylvis Bailey, fourth in sion on February 6-8. girls singles, 15-18 years old; Charles Brown, third in boys singles, 12-15 years old; Char-sie Herndon, third, and Frances McDuffy, fourth, in girls sin-gles, 12-15 years old; and James Fred first James Henderson Ford, first, James Henderson, second, Billy Clement, fourth, and Wesley Clement, fifth among boys under 12. Unranked but mentioned were General Bruton, Michael Holt, Bobby Jordan, George Long and Curtis Mabry among boys under 12 in singles.

ence game for the Falcons of St. Augustine's, and their first win over Union in years. Saint Augustine's took an-early lead, but was over taken 29-28 as the half ended. With s beautiful erray of believed are beautiful array of balanced shooting, the Falcons scored heavily in the second half to build up a 56-46 lead with only full court press which enabled four minutes 29 seconds left to them to tie the score 59-50 only play. The Panthers from Vir- five seconds before regulation ginia showed great skill with a ORANGEBURG, S. C. Althea Gibson and Robert Williams and Charles Brown Ryland, Tennessee State stu-dent, were accorded the number one rankings for the year in and Arthur Ashe (Richmond, men's and women's singles play by the American Tennis Associ-ation this week. The ATA, oldest accrediting doubles teams in the 12-15 bracket.

PAGE FIVE

Ernest Ingram, former Durhamite now living in Washington, D. C., was unranked but mentioned in the men singles.

Following Ryland and Stew-art, top ranked men in singles play were Vernon Morgan, Montclair, N. J.; Wilbert Davis, Nashville, Tenn.; Norman Ap pel, Dayton, Ohio; Elton King, Jr., Washington, D. C.; Harold Freeman, Washington, D. C.; Ronald Charity, Richmond, Va.;

Big Group Seen Joseph Williams was rated the top singles player in the 12. For Dairy Meet GREENSBORO

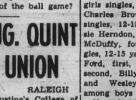

The largest turnout of dairy farmers in the history of the A and T College Dairy tion Short Course is expected here for the ninth annual ses-that advance registration is now The "Weight-A-Day-Month" program, a nationally recom-mended plan for keeping tab on milk production in relation to proper feeding, is to be featured at the three-day meet

Experts in dairying from the United States Department of of Agriculture, State College at Raleigh and A and T College are scheduled to appear on the program

SPECIAL SUIT SALE $69.00 Bults --- Now $54.00 $49.00 Bults --- Now $36.00 Custom Tailoring Company 222 EAST FOURTH ST. WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

gerald, to see a Japanese umpire throw somebody like Ted Klu-szewski out of the ball game? ST. AUG. QUINT price of admission, asks Fitz-

RESENTS

MODLEW'T TITLE BOUT.W THE GARDEN WED. JAN.2

ONE OF THE WINS

BEATS UNION Saint Augustine's College of Raleigh, outlasted Virginia Un-ion University in a hard fought overtime battle by a score of 71-67. It was the first confer-ence game for the Falcons of St.

reports were heard from Dr. A. J. Richards, Secretary-Treasur-Fay Mitchell, 6' 1" 205-pound junior from Memphis at one of the halfback slots.

Alvin Richardson, 6' 3" 240ers; W. O. Robinson, Director of Publicity, Jackson State Colpound Grambling senior was installed at the right tackle slot. lege; Victor K. Perry, Commis-sioner of Officials, Louisville Both Larce and Richardson are from New Orleans. Robert and Mack Greene, Executive Fans Curious

