Pies And Tarts To Top Off Your Feast For Your Thanksgiving Dinner

Thanksgiving Dessert

Will yours be a wedge of Grandma's Pumpkin Pie, along with aged Cheddar? A walnut half marks the tip of each serving. Luscious, creamy spiced custard fills out the scallops of the pastry shell. Or will yours be a piece of the Cranberry Mince Pie, the tart sweet fruit filling, bright as calico, showing off through the lattice crust? Or perhaps you'll choose Country Kitchen Mince Pie. A deep layer of fragrant mince-meat bakes with a rich topper of Sour Cream. Delicious! For trim, a circle of mince-meat, a ring of pastry acorns and oak leaves.

Pumpkin Chiffon Tarts

These are perfection our recipe gives the secret for making the gelatin filling light as a cloud. Pumpkin's flavored with brown sugar, Cinnamon, nutmeg, and ginger. Peak with whipped cream, candied ginger aloft. Pass salted nuts, raisins (golden and dark) candies.

A. M. E. Zion Conference

The Central North Carolina Conference will convene in Raleigh at Rush Memorial A. M. E. Zion Church on East Carbarrow Street from November 27 through December 1. Rev. George Tharrington, pastor of Kyles Temple A. M. E. Zion Church, will deliver the annual sermon on Wednesday afternoon at 7:30, and music will be furnished by the chorus of the church.

On Thursday afternoon the Laymen's Association is sponsoring a "Bride's Contest" which will convene from 7 to 8 where Mrs. Mabel Powell will reign as bride-elect from Kyles Temple Church.

Other brides participating are: Raleigh District, Miss Jennie Stocks; Laurinburg District, Miss Betty McCrimmon; Stanford District, Mrs. E. A. Armstrong; Fayetteville District, Miss Patricia McPherson.

Each of the brides will be attended by one bride's maid elected from each church of the five districts.

There will be a bus leaving for Raleigh to the conference on Wednesday at 6:30 P. M. from Kyles Temple Church. If you don't have a way to attend the conference the members would like for you to help fill the bus.

Birthday Party Held For Miss Willie Mae Bailey

A surprise birthday party for Willie Mae Bailey was held at her home, 412 Mincey Street, Wednesday night, November 20. The party given by her sister, Sylvia, was a gay affair lasting from seven to eight o'clock. The honoree was delightfully surprised to the amusement of the guests present when she discovered that a cake made for the occasion was for her instead of her grandmother as her sister had led her to believe.

Extending Willie Mae happy birthday greetings at the party were Johnny and Carolyn Roberts, Delores and Brenda Nicholson, Helen Johnson, Margo Brown, Brenda Taylor, Sadie Newby, Richard Steacie and John Smith.

Joining with these young people in extending greetings were her grandparents and other friends.

Next meeting of the district will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cain at 106 West Chestnut street.

MRS. THEODORE B. THORNTON

Wedding Vows For Miss Ingram And Lt. Thornton Spoken In Baptist Rites

The wedding of Miss Carolyn Monje Ingram of Durham, and Lieutenant Theodore Burnis Thornton, also of Durham, was solemnized Saturday evening November 2 at seven o'clock at the White Rock Baptist Church. Dr. Miles Mark Fisher performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Bernice H. Ingram and the late Charles J. Ingram and Lt. Thornton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Burnis Hillman Thornton, all of Durham.

The ceremony was performed before a background of Oregon ferns and emerald foliage, interspersed with standard baskets of white chrysanthemums, carnations and gladiolas. Cathedral tapers burning in seven branch candelabras completed the church decoration.

John H. Gattis presented a program of organ music prior to the ceremony and Mrs. Margaret K. Goodwin sang, "If I Could Tell You" and "Through The Years".

The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, F. V. Allison, Jr., wore a formal gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over bridal satin. The fitted bodice featured a sweetheart neckline edged with lace. The long fitted sleeves ended in calla points. The bouffant skirt had a voluminous panel of lace in front extending to the floor and a lace panel in the back formed a billowing chapel train. The skirt also featured insets of lace on the tulle.

Her veil of illusion was attached to a tiara of seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The bride's only ornament was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom. She carried a wedding handkerchief of imported Irish linen appliqued with Alencon lace and seed pearls in a wedding bell design. Her prayer book was topped with a purple throated orchid.

child with a cascade of tube roses fastened to satin streamers.

Mrs. Audrey I. Fairley, sister of the bride, of Washington, D. C., was matron of honor. She wore a Crown Gold iridescent taffeta gown which featured the harem hemline. She wore matching headpiece, mitts and satin pumps. She carried a bouquet of bronze and gold chrysanthemums caught with matching ribbon. Miss Carolyn A. Thornton, sister of the groom was maid of honor. Her attire and bouquet was like that of the matron of honor.

The bridesmaids were Misses Ann Rhoden, Charlotte, Shirley A. Moore, college roommate of the bride, Miami, Fla., Gladys Fortune and Delois Winston, both of Durham. They wore dresses of iridescent Lime Peel designed like those of the honor attendants. They carried cascade bouquets of gold chrysanthemums with matching ribbon.

The groom had as his best man, his brother, Victor H. Thornton of Atlanta. Ushers were Berry Coleman, Greensboro, William Miller, Wilmington, Cary Booker, Hendersonville, William Cassidy and Reginald Spaulding of Durham.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Ingram wore an ice blue dress of rosepoint lace over taffeta with matching accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

The groom's mother was dressed in blushing pink appliqued satin with matching accessories. She wore a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the Algonquin Club. Assisting at the reception were Misses Florida Fisher and Geneva Mebane, Mesdames I. E. Turner, G. B. Smith, Mabel Watson, W. M. Grandy, M. L. Newby and Mr. W. A. Reeves.

For her wedding trip the bride wore a baby blue knitted sheath with matching accessories and the orchid lifted from her Prayer Book.

Mrs. Thornton is a graduate of Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., and is presently working toward a Master's Degree in Psychiatric Social Work at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, N. C.

Lt. Thornton is a graduate of A and T College, Greensboro and is a member of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity. He is presently serving a tour of duty with the Signal Corps of the United States Army.

Among the pre-nuptial activities for the bride a surprise shower was given by her classmates at the University of North Carolina, Miss Patricia Aldridge and Mrs. Jane Pfouts.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were from Grand Rapids, Mich., Philadelphia,
