

Winston-Salem's Guthrie Tallies Three Times As Rams Defeat Punchless St. Paul's, 40-0, In Finale

WINSTON-SALEM — Halfback Charles Guthrie scored three touchdowns to lead the Winston-Salem Teachers College Rams to a 40-0 victory over the St. Paul Tigers, before nearly 1,000 chilled fans Saturday at Bowman Gray Stadium.

This victory gave the Rams a 5-3 record for the season and assured them of a first division berth in the final standing of the CIAA. It was the eighth straight defeat of the season for St. Paul.

Guthrie ran for two touchdowns and scored the third one on a pass as he gained 90 yards in nine carries in rushing and caught four passes good for 98 yards.

for the next Ram TD. Kenneth Benton ran for the extra point to give the Rams a 26-0 margin.

After St. Paul failed to gain, the Rams scored again on a 45-yard drive. A five-yard penalty on St. Paul moved the ball five yards. Rowe then passed to Guthrie on the St. Paul 30, and he carried from there for the touchdown. Benton ran for the extra point to give the Rams a 33-0 lead.

With less than three minutes to play, St. Paul's Tinsley punted from his own five out to the 40. Substitute back Elmore Lyons caught the ball, fumbled, picked the ball up and kept going until he crossed the goal line. Louis Cole ran for the extra point to make the final score Rams 40, St. Paul 0.

Throughout the afternoon, the Rams' defense stopped St. Paul cold. The visitors got into Ram territory only twice in the game. Six senior linemen made their final appearance in a football uniform for the Teachers. They were co-captain Thomas (Stick) Gunnings, Fonda Bowman, Frank Brown, Roosevelt Hope, Eddie Bratton, and Arthur Pharr.

Improved A. & T. Cage Team Kicks Lid Off Season Against Hampton

GREENSBORO — A reportedly "improved" A&T College Aggie quint opens its 1957-58 campaign on the home court against Hampton Institute on Saturday evening, December 5.

Cal Irvin, head basketball coach, in analyzing this week team prospects for the current campaign, was almost jubilant. Among the facts revealed were: his team will be taller, averaging better than six-foot-two per man; concentrating on a fast break, the Aggies will be considerably faster than at anytime in the history of basketball at the college and the team's depth has been considerably improved with the addition of four promising freshmen, including:

Walter Holtzclaw, 6'5", forward, Charlotte; Bennie Robinson, Burlington, 6'1" guard, Burlington; Herbert Gray, Washington, D. C., 6'5" center and Gerald Junior, 5'10", playmaker guard from Chicago.

The mainspring behind the Aggie attack guards, Joe Howell, 6', junior of Philadelphia and Al Atiles, 6', sophomore from Newark, N. J. They team with forwards, Vinson Miller, 6'5" junior, Philadelphia and Joe Cotten, 6'4" sophomore, Garysburg, along with Charlie Harrison, 6'6" junior, New York City to comprise the first-stringers.

The Rams scored three times in the third period to sew up the game. Dupree scored from the four to climax a 59-yard drive after the opening kickoff. Guthrie failed to make yardage for the extra point. The Rams led 19-0.

Fullback Daniel Foster, a former Atkins star, ran 25 yards

Following the opening against Hampton, the Aggies face three other rough opponents in the Charles Moore Gymnasium before the holidays. They include: Fayetteville State Teachers College, December 11; Elizabeth City State Teachers College, December 14 and North Carolina College, December 17. Other home games include: St. Augustine College, January 4; Virginia State College, January 7; Winston-Salem Teachers College, January 20; Johnson C. Smith University, January 22 and Shaw University, February 12.

The "Away" schedule calls for: Bluefield State, December 8; Fayetteville State College, January 11; Shaw University, January 14; St. Augustine College, January 18; Elizabeth City Teachers College, January 25; Winston-Salem Teachers College, January 28; Virginia State College, January 31; Hampton Institute, February 1; Johnson C. Smith, February 8 and North Carolina College, February 15.

JOE ALLEN, 235 senior guard, is the last of the Allen clan to play under the tutelage of Coach Herman Riddick during 11 of the 13 years Riddick has mentored the Eagles. His older brother, Thomas, was here from 1945-49; Jesse was here from 51-53. Both of them were backs.

North Carolina College Cagers Open Home Stand With Kentucky

The North Carolina College Eagles will play a 20 game schedule during 1957-58 according to Coach Floyd H. Brown.

After a practice game with Camp LeJeune and the Intra-squad Game, the Eagles play Kentucky State in their own gym at 8:00 p.m. on December 3.

Other December homes include the CIAA opener with Virginia State on Dec. 7 and the Dec. 9 clash with a Camp LeJeune five featuring several noted All-America court stars.

Other Eagle home games are

January 9, Hampton Institute; January 13, Maryland; January 18, Fayetteville; February 1, Winston-Salem; February 3, Virginia Union; February 8, Morgan; February 15, A&T; and Feb. 22, Shaw.

Games away for the Brown coached basketballers include Dec. 13, Maryland; Dec. 14, Morgan; December 17, A&T; January 11, Winston-Salem; January 17, Shaw Univ.; February 7, Virginia Union; February 17, Virginia State; and February 18, Hampton Institute.

Rams' Bob Rowe Is Individual Offense Leader

B. Rowe of Winston-Salem is the total defense individual leader at the end of 10 weeks of the CIAA.

Maryland's J. Sample continues individual rushing leader with 116 yard average in 6 games.

Team leaders include Shaw University (yielding only 129 yards in 7 games) repeating as defense leader, Maryland (220 yards in 6 games) replacing Shaw as tops in rushing, Lincoln (21 of 44 completions for 51.2) replacing Maryland in forward passing, and Winston-Salem (281 yards in 6 games) replacing NCC in total offense.

Other individual leaders are Ed Hudson of NCC, passing (32 of 58 in 7 games for 48.1); J. Buckson, Morgan, pass receiving (23 catches in 8 games for 237 yards); Eugene Hammonds, Shaw University, scoring (78 points in 7 games); and A. Tinsley, St. Paul's, punting (39 kicks in 7 games for a 37 yard average.)

Allen Brown In Alma Mater Concert Series

Allen Brown, talented young pianist now making his home in New York, will be presented in concert at N.C. College on Dec. 10. He is an alumnus of NCC and a former student of Mrs. C. Ruth Edwards, recently retired professor of music.

Brown, who has concertized in some of the nation's leading cities, has studied at the American Conservatory of Music in Chicago and with Dr. Clarence Adler, the noted New York teacher. His NCC program will open with an organ prelude in G minor. Other features of the Dec. 10 concert are numbers from Mozart, Mendelssohn, William Grant Still, Stanley Bate, and Chopin.

Second East-West Schoolboy Game On Dec. 7

The second annual East-West Shrine Youth football game will be played at Durham Athletic Park at 2 p.m. on Saturday, December 7.

The Eastern team, coached by West Virginia State College alumnus Simon Coates, will arrive in Durham at noon on Sunday, December 1 to set up training headquarters at North Carolina College.

Coach Willie Bradsher, former guard standout at NCC and now head man at Lincoln High School, Chapel Hill, will assist Coates. The Western contingent will locate at A and T College, Greensboro. Some 27 players will be allotted to each club.

Proceeds from the game will be used to develop a youth rehabilitation program and to provide a summer camp for underprivileged children.

Players for the two teams have been selected by state-wide balloting among high school mentors. F. G. Burnette of Durham is chairman of the arrangements committee of the Youth Bowl game. Burnette served in a similar capacity last year.

North Carolina Negro Shriners from throughout North Carolina are expected to attend the game in large numbers.

The Eastern team, captained by Walter Browning, Jr., J. W. Ligon High School Raleigh, won the 1957 contest by a 15 to 0 score. Browning is now enrolled at NCC.

Coaches for the East last year were Peter H. Hines of Raleigh and Charles England of Tarboro. The 1957 Western coaches were Clarence Moore of Asheville and Joseph Robinson of Morganton. Overall arrangements are under the direction of Commissioner W. T. Armstrong of the N. C. Negro High School Athletic Association.
