REPUBLICANS "SNAG" ON RACE ISSUE

The efforts of a certain element of the Republican party to thwart the election of Alexander Barnes, county chairman has really complicated matters for both factions.

The trouble began Saturday
The narty athered at the court.

Raprington closed the nominaterminal present were not registered Republicans.

Hutchins did not make any protest of the meeting until afman, and Alexander Barnes had been nominated for the chairafternoon when the members of the narty sphered at the court.

Barrington closed the nominaTecuble is that there are more the party gathered at the court- Barrington closed the nominathe party gathered at the courtlouse to elect a chairman and delegates to the district and state meetings, which will be held at Asheboro and Winston-Salem

Friday and Saturday respectively.

R. N. Barringer, local lumber dealer, made what many termed an unfavorable decision when he ruled that the meeting would adto ruled that the meeting would adjourn until May 15th. The decision was the result of a statement made by A. N. Hutchins, which charged that there was a possibility that all persons like to have the more than 6,000 a possibility that all persons like to have the more than 6,000 trouble is that there are more brown faces here than white

Rev. E. T. Browne joined Austin in denouncing the rul-ing as unfair and out of line with what had ben done in the rights of others.

nominated Barnes, asked why Republican party should the be held Friday and Saturday. It the sudden change in procedure when it had been the practice all the time to have the entire. "I do not want to believe | pairman, and the person who | what harm would be done to the | County at the two that you men would invite me, a minister of the gospel to what you know and believe when it had been the practice hat you know and believe when it had been the practice Barringer.

Illegal meeting. If you all the time to have the entire

The chairman did not make

Rev. F. L. Tyson joined in the in that no delegates had been "The unit of party activaries argument and tried to show selected to represent Durham be the election precinct.

Rites For Dr. Hughes,

Suicide Victim, Slated

have, then you have insulted the entire body elect officers and delegates. He was told that the pastor of Mt. Vernon Baptist Church.

Rev. J. A. Stewart charged that the ruling not only violated all the rules of a democratic meeting, but showed that they had no respect for the rights of others.

The chairman did not make a motion to be made but said that the was taking McDonald's suggestion and adjourning the meeting to reconvene on March 15.

However, after consultation would not be recognized by the fact that a Negro has been nominated.

The chairman did not make a motion to be made but said that the was taking McDonald's suggestion and adjourning the meeting to reconvene on March 15.

However, after consultation would not be recognized by the fact that a Negro has been nominated.

Rev. F. L. Tyson joined in the al Election year, the County Chairman shall call precinct meetings at such time as shall be designated by the Chairman of the State Republican Executive Committee after giving ten (10) days written no-tice to each Precinct Chair man and after ten (10) notice of such meeting in a newspa-per of general circulation within the county."

Barnes further based his contention on the fact that he went tention on the fact that he went "The unit of party action shall to McDonald's office and as

> Funeral services for Dr. Wal-ter Hughes, well-known North Carolina physician who commitday night, were scheduled to be held Thursday at the Matthews

Guilford County coroner Dr. Allen B. Coggeshall said the 62

His body was discovered in the bathroom of the two story residence by Ted Smith, who lived at the 734 Pearson street home which Dr. Hughes used as his home and office.

He was pronounced dead up-on arrival at L. Richardson Me-morial hospital, where he was gating police that he had threatened to take his life on two

It was reliably reported that the general practitioner was suffering from a serious illness. A native of Greensboro, Hughes was the son of a doctor.

taken after he was found. Dr. Hughes' wife told investiprevious occasions.

Methodist Church.

Beauticians' Vote This Wee

The Carolina Times

VOLUME 34 -- NUMBER 10: QURHAM; N.C., SATURDAY, MARCH 8, 1958

Man Draws Life Term In Winston-Salem Rape

TIMES Beautician Popularity Contest were girding them-selves for the first week of bal-loting here late Tuesday. Many beauticians have already sent in orders for extra papers for their customers and friends and the balloting is expected to be un-usually heavy for the first week.

of 55 contestants had been nom-inated and the number is expect-ed to reach 60 by Friday noon.

E. R. York, the contest manager, announced this week that votes are not transferrable. This was in response to one contestant who requested that her votes

York also ured contestants to ote that the number on the Beginning each week the rela tive standing will be published in the CAROLINA TIMES until the close of the contest on April 13. The actual standing and the win ner of the free round trip air plane trip to the National Beau da, with one week's hotel ex

the following week in the CAR-OLINA TIMES, issue of April 20

six o'clock Tuesday are as fol-ballot will be changed each week, following the date they appear in the paper. Each ballot will count for 15,000 points.

be transferred to a friend.

Contest Field Now

Numbers 55 Entries

day a tota

Powell Will

WINSTON-SALEM A young High Point man ones convicted and sentenced for intended rape on a white woman, was given a life sentence in Superior Court here this week on charges of raping the wife of an assistant Wake Forcest College basketball team coach. A plea of guille, entered by the State His plea cut to 16 minutes a trial which had packed the County Courthouse. After the plea, no evidence was submitted and Judge Frank Arnastrong passed sentence. Moore, who had said he wast the lile lightmate son of a taxic-abdriver, was secured of raping Mrs. Al DePorter, 25 year-old wife of Wake Forcest College assistant basketball coach list December 13. Attorney Hose V. Price, appointed along with Attorney Harold Kennedy by the court to defend Moore, told the court that the plea of guilty was entered because "we feel that a plea will be in the best interest of justice," Solicitor Harvey Lupton told Sidge Attraffering that the visites of the wilhes of the list will be in the best interest of justice," Solicitor Harvey Lupton told Sidge Attraffering that the wilhes of the list will be in the case had been prepared with the idea of that it main but a greed that a trial world be desired. J. E. Medichael told the court the case had been prepared with the idea of that it main but a greed that a trial world be desired. J. E. Medichael told the court the case had been prepared with the idea of that it main but a greed that a trial world be desired. J. E. Medichael told the court the case had been prepared with the idea of that it main but a greed that a trial world be desired. J. E. Medichael told the court the case had been prepared with the clase that it trial world be desired. J. E. Medichael told the court the case had been prepared with the clase of that it main but a greed that a trial world be desired. J. E. Medichael told the court the case had been prepared with the idea of that it main but a greed that a trial world be desired. J. E. Medichael told the court the case had been prepared with the case had been

NEW YORK Three legal actions involving the constitutional rights of Negroes were taken this week by High School case and two were derson, insurance executive and W. J. Kennedy, Jr., president of North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company.

Hill.

Mrs. Dilsle Chandler, Burling.

Mrs. Dilsle Chandler, Burling. Defense and Educational Fund, proved plan to integrate its high

On August 29, 1957 a state parent and taxpayer, which re-parent and appear, which re-strained the school board from proceeding with its plans to in-tegrate and, in effect, overrode the judgements and decrees of federal courts approving the

On the same day the Little Rock school board petitioned the U. S. District Court to enjoin Mrs. Themason from using the state court, order. This in-junction was granted and the Little Rock high school proceeded to desegregate.

Attorneys for the Negro students are Wiley A. Branton of Pine Bluff, Ark., and Thurgood

Marshall, director - counsel of the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund staff in New

LITTLE ROCK SCHOOL Mrs. Dilsie Chandler, Burling-Mrs. Matins Dickens, Rorboro. Miss Mary Foust, Chapel Hill. Mrs. J. DeShazor Jackson, cational Fund attorneys. They turged the court to affirm a judgement of a district court which prohibited interference with the Little Rock's court aport of the Conress. In 1956, he pub-Mrs. Estelle Freeland, Dur Mrs. Callie Daye, Durham.

Mrs. C. L. Ashford, Durhahm. Mrs. Daisy Jeffries, Burling Miss Daisy Hawley, Orford.

Mrs. Alveta Monroe, Durham. Mrs. Eula Steele Durham. Mrs. Elizabeth Brown, Dur-

Miss Hazel McCoy, Chapel

Mrs. Laney Williams, Durham. Miss billie Wells, Durham. Mrs. Asnie B. Tillie, Burling-

Mrs. Josephine Day, Durham. Mrs. D. Arice Moss, Durham. Mrs. Odelle Leak, Durham. Mrs. S. W. Weaver, Chapel

Miss Daisy Carmon, Durham. Miss Pecola Harris, Durham. Miss Montez Bates, Durham Mrs. Jeroline Baird, Roxborg (Please turn to page Eight)

Talk At NAACP Campaign Drive

Some of Durham's leading business, religious and labor fig ures will take part in a program Monday night which will offi-cially launch the membership campaign of the Durham NAA-Congressman Adam Clayton

Powell (D.- N. Y.) will be the featured speaker for the event. The program is scheduled for St. Mark A. M. E. Zion Church on Pine and Pickett Streets at eight o'clock. Powell will be introduced by the Rev. R. L. Speaks, pastor of St. Mark A. M. E. Zion Church Rev. William F. Fuller, president of Durham NAACP, is scheduled to describe the aims and objectives of the organization preceding the Congress-man's address.

at Shiloh Baptist Church. At this meeting, Kelly Alexander, of Charlotte, State President of the Oak Grove Free Will Baptist Church, L. E. Austin, publisher of the TIMES, Roy Trice, labor union official, J. Henderson, insurance executive and W. J. Kennedy, Jr., president of North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Alexander of North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Powell pastor of the Congressman P

Eighth Circuit in St. Louis by He is currently a member of NAACP Legal Defense and Eduthe Education and Labor and Inof minority causes as a member of the Conress. In 1956, he publicly bolted the Democratic Party because he was dissatisfied with the party's civil rights platcourt order was obtained by a Mrs. Clyde Thomason, a white

Recently elected to serve as chairman of Finance; Dr. F. E.: Vice Chairman; W. H. Headen, officers of the Committee of Davis, Associate Chairman of Assistant Scoretary. (Not shown) Engagement of Hayes-Taylor Finance; Perry J. Brown, Chairman of Arthur Lee, Jr., Scoretary and W. M. Hampton, Int Vice Chairman of the Committee of Manleft to right, Dr. B. W. Barnes, agement; J. C. McLaughlin, and man.

1,000 Expected At Tarheel Vote Campaign Conference

More than 1000 persons are U n ion Memorial Methodish on registration and voting at the expected to attend the South Church. Dr. Edwin R. Edmonds, Y. The annual banquet will be tive Secretary of the organiza-tion, will speak at the mass meeting, which will conclude the conference on Sunday, March 7, at Shiloh Baptist Church. At MCA and the first general ses-ting for lawyers from 4 to 6 p. m.

His two sons, the couple's only children, are also doctors. He graduated from Meharry Medical College in 1918 after completing his studies in the expected to attend the South Eastern Regional meeting of the NAACP here March 6-9.

Roy Wilkins, National Executive Secretary of the organizative Secretary Organizative Secretary Organiz

In 1947, he returned to Grensboro as a physician at Bennett College, a post he held until 1951

LITTLE ROCK SCHOOL In the Little Rock case a brief was filed on February 26 with the U. S. Court of Appeals, ince 1941. Mayssiman Baptus, reputed to be the largest protestant Negro be the l Virginia's program of "masive resistance" to school desegregation of the state to the verge of chaos," Roy Wilkins executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, declared here Friday in an address at an NAACP meeting in the Mosque.

The meeting was scheduled single case in the federal courts has ruled ressurected by a Virginia editor, has proved equally futile, the NAACP leader asserted. This ment of the Negro population has said it was not interested and did not want the decision "The best testimony to the discredit integration because of the Negro population has said it was not interested and did not want the decision "The best testimony to the discredit integration because of the Negro population has said it was not interested and did not want the decision "The best testimony to the discredit integration because of the Negro population has said it was not interested and did not want the decision of the Negro population has said it was not interested and did not want the discredit integration because of the Negro population has said it was not interested and did not want the decision of the Negro population has said it was not interested and did not want the decision of the Negro population has said it was not interested and did not want the decision of the Negro population has said it was not interested and did not want the decision of the Negro population has said it was not interested and did not want the decision of the Negro population has said it was not interested and did not want the decision of the Negro population has said it was not interested to close the Negro population has said it was not interested and did not want the decision of the Negro population has said it was not interested and did not want the decision of the Negro population has said it was not interested and did not want the decision of the Negro population has said it was not interested and did not want the decision of the Negro population has said it was not interested and did not want the N

RICHMOND, VA | to failure. Already, he p Virginia's program of "masive out, a federal court has ruled

The meeting was scheduled single case in the federal courts. schools when and if federal for the Mosque after the Virgin-They have got exactly nowhere. troops can be sent."

man for the White Citizens molished the hastily erected leg-Councils who made a bitter at-isaltive barriers to desegregation, that other Negro citizens are in Virginia, or the killi ressurected by a Virginia editor, preme Court decision of 1954.

The meeting was scheduled for the Mosque after the Virginia State General Assembly refused to permit an NAACP ing of the House of Delegates—tion to law suits which sought to law suits which so law suits which suits which so law suits which so law suits which so law suits w ing of the House of Delegates—ton to law suits which sought a privilege which previously had been extended to a spokes—man for the White Citizens

The White Citizens

The White Citizens

The White Citizens

The Attorneys for the Negro students are Wiley A. Branton of Pinc Bluff, Ark, and Thurgood Marshall, director counsel of the NACP Legal Defense and the NAACP Legal Defense and the NAACP Legal Defense and the NAACP Legal Defense and the Virginia plan "Wikins declared that the commonwealth's legislative defense of segregation as well as its legal of segregation as well as its legal actions to that end were doomed actions to that end were doomed system."

Councils who made a bitter at saftive barriers to desegregation, that other Negro citizens are not interested. Therefore, the state, Wilkins warned, must be state, Wil

Mrs. J. H. Love, Durham. Mrs. Earlie Grandy, Durham.