

Church Ceremony Setting For Miss Jones-Mr. Bostic Nuptials

CLEARWATER, Fla.—St. Matthew First Baptist Church was the scene of the marriage of Miss Gloria Collins Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Jones, Clearwater, and Joseph H. Bostick, Jr., son of Mrs. Mae Bostick, Daytona Beach, and the late Mr. Bostick, Sr., on March 28, at 8:00 p.m. The Rev. H. V. Palmer officiated at the double-ring candlelight ceremony.

The church was decorated with white gladioli, lilies and palms. Family pews were marked with white ribbons. Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Jean Bonds of Clearwater at the organ and Miss Deloris Maddras of Leesburg at the piano. Vocalists were Miss Mabetha Garrett of Leesburg and Miss Martha Griffin of Clearwater.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, had as maid of honor Miss Ernestine Jordan of Jacksonville. Bridesmaids were: Mesdames Eula Jones, sister-in-law of the bride, Clearwater; Arletha Chapman, cousin of the bride, St.

Petersburg; Virginia Lloyd, sister of the bridegroom, Jacksonville; Lo Anner Roberson, Clearwater; and Leola M. Pieze, Tallahassee. Norma Olivia Lloyd of Jacksonville, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. Miss Marva Ellis of Clearwater was keeper of the bride's book.

Wallace Rasberry, Jr., Jacksonville, a frat brother of the groom, served as best man. Groomsman were: Joseph Jackson, frat brother, Nathaniel Blackshear, Wilbur Riffin and Cornelius Lockett of Jacksonville, and Emmett Jones, brother of the bride, Clearwater. Daryl McCray of Clearwater, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Visited grandparents Miss Velma Jean Morris spent last week in Durham visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Morris, of Dunstan Street.

A Durham Visitor Mrs. James Walker of Boston, Massachusetts, was a recent visitor to our city.

Class Plans Anniversary

The Missionary Bible S. S. Class of Ebenezer Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Brodie Royster, 22-G Wabash Avenue, April 19, for the monthly meeting. Mrs. Ruth Seate presided. Plans for the Class Anniversary to be held the fourth Sunday in June were made.

Those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Royster were Mesdames Mary Morris, Flora Puryear, Fleea Brown, Leona Seate, Helen Lash, Annie Mitchell, Lula Singletary, Lula Morris, Ester Badie, Ronnie Primus, Josephine Day, Mary Saunders, Beulah Morgan, Martha Stanley, Lydie McClain and Effie Chavis. A delightful dinner was served to the class. Little Misses Catherine Waddell and Jackie Puryear served as waiters. Mrs. Royster's daughter, Mrs. Nannie Waddell, and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Sadie Royster were hostesses for the occasion, assisted by Mrs. Annie Mitchell and Flora Puryear.

Club Receives Advice On How To Prepare Soil

The Lyon Park Rose Garden Club held a meeting at the home of Mrs. Helen McClain, Cornell Street, Monday, April 20. The meeting was opened with devotions. Mrs. Elnor Smith, the president, was in charge.

J. L. Moffitt of the Little River High School brought to the club some very interesting facts about preparing soil for planting. He also briefly illustrated how to arrange cut flowers in various shape containers.

Members present, in addition to those already named, were Mesdames Arlene Mebane, Mable Freeland, Elizabeth Bullock, Josephine Hoskin, Mattie Canty, Bessie Thompson, Catherine Shaw, Fannie Papp, M. W. Webb, Sophronia Green, Gertrude Farrington, Pearl Brown, Rosa Murry, Eva Toller, Essie Amey.

During the social hour the hostess served a very tasty turkey menu.

Speed was blamed for more than 10 per cent of the traffic deaths and injuries in the U. S. during 1958.

Attending the meeting, held at the home of Mrs. Cromartee on Rosewood Street, were Catherine Floyd, Mary Watson, Etta Allen, Pansy Wilson, Jesse Wilson, John Jones, Benjamin Ruffin, Robert Watson, William Rogers, Gloria Pass, Ella Trice, Jewelle Merritt, Barbara Rice, Evelyn Goodin, Alice Carman, Sylvia Godwin and Gloria Mangun.

Before trying to re-start a stalled engine, wait at least 30 seconds before pressing the starter. Then if it doesn't fire immediately, don't keep grinding away on the starter. Chances are if it doesn't catch in about 10 seconds it won't start at all.

Students From AME Zion Churches In Durham Area To Show Talents In "Youth-Arama" In Siler City

Elementary and high school students of churches in Durham district of the A.M.E. Zion church will display their musical and speaking abilities at a "Youth-arama" Sunday, May 3 at the Jordan Grove A.M.E. Zion Church in Siler City.

Announcement of the program was made in Durham this week.

The "Youth-arama" will be a competitive event with students from the various Durham district churches vying for honors in vocal and instrumental music selections and in an oratorical contest.

It will get underway at 2:30 p.m. Entry blanks for the "Youth-arama" should be mailed to Jonathan Lane at P. O. Box 31, Siler City.

Mrs. Janie Speaks, wife of St. Mark pastor, the Rev. H. L. Speaks will be main speaker at the morning portion of the "Youth-arama" program.

There is a satisfaction in service that goes beyond all purely commercial considerations. We say it sincerely, we do feel a dedication to our calling: we welcome the opportunity to accept the many bewildering responsibilities and details that would otherwise burden a bereaved family. And we are particularly grateful when we receive so many letters of appreciation from families we have served.
